*Please be aware that as part of the National Football League's new agreement with NBC to televise Sunday Night Football, the NFL will implement a flexible schedule for Sunday start times for seven of the final eight weeks of the season (week 16 is a holiday weekend and will not be subject to flexible scheduling).

This will allow the NFL to bring more attractive match-ups to a national audience late in the season. If any of the 49ers games are moved from the original start time, fans will be notified 12 days prior to the date of the game with the exception of a Week 17 game, where the notification will be six days to ensure a Sunday Night game with playoff implications. Starting time changes will be publicized on 49ers.com and through local print, electronic and internet media.

FUTURE SAN FRANCISCO SCHEDULES

The NFL expanded to 32 teams in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans. In addition, the NFL realigned for the first time since 1970—into eight divisions of four teams each—and the scheduling formula that was introduced guarantees for the first time that all teams play each other on a regular, rotating basis. Although the number of teams has increased to 32, the number of playoff teams remains the same at 12.

Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team within a division plays 16 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (6 games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (4 games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (4 games).
- Two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (2 games). These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place, and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF 49ERS FOOTBALL IN SAN FRANCISCO

In 1946, the city of San Francisco began to thrive in a post-World War II boom that enhanced its economic state, social diversity and area population. The West was becoming a hotbed for spirit, culture, climate, adventure and sports, in particular, football. At the time, professional sports centered around teams on the East Coast and Midwest regions, but a young owner of a lumberjack business saw the growing market for the sport of football in the Bay Area, and was ready to pounce.

A few years earlier, Anthony J. "Tony" Morabito saw the success and large fan base that followed college football powers like the Wonder Teams of California-Berkeley, the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert, St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco, and knew that a professional football franchise would soar in the Bay Area when the war ended.

In 1944, after Morabito's requests to expand the NFL to San Francisco were politely rejected for a few years, he and his associates visited Arch Ward, the sports editor of The Chicago Tribune, who was organizing a new rival league, the All-America Football Conference. Morabito knew immediately he wanted a stake in the new league. The first meeting of the AAFC was held in St. Louis on June 6, 1944—D-Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a franchise in San Francisco. The AAFC would start play after the end of the war.

Morabito teamed with his younger brother, Victor, and partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco, Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre. The group came up with the name "49ers" in honor of the miners who had rushed west for gold. They saw a photo on the side of a railway freight train of a miner firing a pistol and the franchise, name and logo were born.

In 1950, the AAFC folded and San Francisco, along with Baltimore and Cleveland, were awarded NFL franchises. It was what Morabito hoped for all along. He, Victor and Lou Spadia, the team's general manager, went on to build what would become one of the NFL's most celebrated teams.

The 49ers became the first major league professional sports franchise to be based in San Francisco. Since Morabito paved the way for professional sports in the West 60 years ago, the 49ers have won five NFL championships—all Super Bowls—for an NFL-best record in Super Bowl competition with no losses. San Francisco was also the first team to win a record five Super Bowls—Super Bowl XVI, XIX, XXIII, XXIV and XXIX. Also in the franchise's impressive winning repertoire are five conference championships and 17 divisional championships.

From the 49ers inaugural roster of 32 players in 1946, to the teams of the eighties, to today's modern era of salary cap and free agency, the San Francisco 49ers have played some of pro football's most celebrated moments on the gridiron. Here's a look...

THE EARLY YEARS

As members of the AAFC in the late 1940's, the 49ers built themselves with talents like Frankie Albert, Len Eshmont, Visco Grgich, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci to name a few, under the director of Head Coach Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, who joined the team hot off of two Sugar Bowls wins with Santa Clara. In the four football seasons of the AAFC (1946-1949) the 49ers were never able to overcome Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns, and finished second in the league, but established themselves as a team ready to compete in NFL play after accumulating a 39-15-2 AAFC record.

End R.C. Owens makes one of his famous "Alley-Oop" catches in the 49ers 27-21 win against the Washington Redskins in 1957. Owens was one of QB Y.A. Tittle's favorite targets. He used to loft passes high up into the air and Owens, a former basketball player, would jump above his defender to acrobatically snag the toss.

The 49ers struggled in their first several seasons in the NFL. But in 1957, San Francisco would enjoy its first sustained success and playoff appearance under new Head Coach Frankie Albert. After losing their first game to the Chicago Cardinals, the 49ers rallied to five straight wins, including an emotional comeback victory at Kezar Stadium against the Chicago Bears, one in which the team's beloved founder, Tony Morabito, collapsed and died of a heart attack late in the second quarter.

The 49ers got off to a fast start against Detroit in the Western Divisional playoff game, but ultimately lost 31-27 in what would be the last time San Francisco made a playoff appearance in 13 seasons.

For the next decade, the 49ers lingered around .500 and although the 1960's was the least successful period in 49ers history, the team did invent a cutting edge offensive formation in the shotgun, devised by 49ers Head Coach Red Hickey in 1960. The formation allowed the 49ers to beat one of the NFL's powerhouses, the Baltimore Colts.

ON THE CUSP OF SUCCESS

In 1968, the 49ers hired Head Coach Dick Nolan. In his first two seasons, Nolan went 7-6-1 and 4-8-2, but in 1970, the 49ers were able to turn the tide.

Nolan's 1970 team finished 11-4-1 overall, losing in the NFC Championship bout against Dallas, 17-10, in Kezar Stadium. The 49ers sent five players to the Pro Bowl that season including MVP veteran QB John Brodie, WR Gene Washington, CB Jimmy Johnson, T Len Rohde and LB Dave Wilcox. Nolan was named NFL Coach of the Year.

Following the 1970 season, the 49ers moved from Kezar Stadium to Candlestick Park where they continued their success for two more years, winning NFC West titles in both 1971 and 1972, but lost two more crushing playoff defeats at the hands of the Dallas Cowboys.

The 49ers would not reach the playoffs for the next eight seasons.

A NEW ERA BEGINS

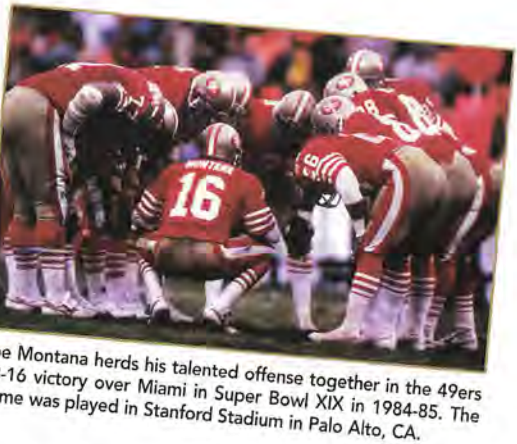
In 1977, a new era of 49ers football began when Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. became the new owner. DeBartolo had one goal in mind—to transform the team into an NFL dynasty. Upon purchasing the 49ers, he began to upgrade the personnel on the field, the organization's front office and operated under a first-class umbrella in every facet of running the club.

Bill Walsh was hired as the team's head coach during the 1978 off-season and within two years of taking over the reins, had drafted QB Joe Montana out of Notre Dame, had a rising star in WR Dwight Clark and added a throng of talent on defense with defensive backs Ronnie Lott, Eric Wright, Dwight Hicks and Carlton Williamson. Just three years after becoming head coach, Walsh and the 49ers claimed their first World Championship with a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XVI. The trip to the Super Bowl was a sweet one after the 49ers finally shed a monkey off of their collective backs and defeated Dallas 28-27 in an NFC Championship nail-biter best remembered for Montana's game-ending pass to Clark who jumped up in the end zone and reeled in "The Catch" to steal the win.

THE TEAM OF THE 80'S

After winning its first World Championship in 1981, the 49ers would go on to stockpile the roster with even more talent. WR Jerry Rice, RB Roger Craig, FB Tom Rathman, G Guy McIntyre and LB Keena Turner were just a few of the many talents that joined Clark, Montana and a stingy secondary unit to capture a total of four Super Bowl titles throughout the decade.

In 1983, the 49ers again won the NFC West Division, but saved their best performance for 1984, when the team won 18-of-19 games en route to shutting down Dan Marino and the Miami Dolphin's passing game in Super Bowl XIX in Stanford Stadium. San Francisco defeated Miami 38-16 as the entire defensive backfield, Lott, Wright, Hicks and Williamson were elected to the Pro Bowl—an NFL first.



Joe Montana herds his talented offense together in the 49ers 38-16 victory over Miami in Super Bowl XIX in 1984-85. The game was played in Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, CA.

In 1985, Craig became the first NFL player to gain 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in the same season as the team finished with a 10-7 overall record and was eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the New York Giants.

San Francisco won another NFC West Divisional title in 1986 and '87 before capturing their third Super Bowl trophy in 1988. At one point in the season, the team was 6-5 and in danger of missing the playoffs, but defeated the Redskins on a Monday Night and finished the year 10-6. They went on to dominate Minnesota 34-9 in the first round of the playoffs and stun the Bears 28-3 in the NFC Championship game. Against Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII, Montana marched the 49ers 92 yards down the field before hitting WR John Taylor for the winning touchdown with only 34 seconds left. The 20-16 victory over the Bengals marked the last game that Walsh would serve as the 49ers head coach. In his 10 years at the helm, Walsh had a 102-62-1 record, winning six NFC West titles and three Super Bowls.

George Seifert took over in 1989 and continued to take advantage of the 49ers existing talent pool, leading the team to its fourth Super Bowl win in 1989, a 55-10 rout over Denver. Montana won his third Super Bowl MVP.

Jerry Rice and the 49ers celebrate as he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time mark with 127 touchdowns in the 49ers 44-14 win against the L.A. Raiders in 1994.

SUSTAINING SUCCESS

With injuries to Montana in the early 1990's, QB Steve Young emerged as a starter in 1991 after serving as the backup for four seasons. During his first season, the 49ers won their final six games and finished 10-6. In 1992, San Francisco posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2) while winning their sixth NFC West title in seven years. The team fell to Dallas in a nostalgic NFC championship game, 30-20, as Rice became the all-time NFL season reception leader with 103 catches.

With Montana's trade to Kansas City in 1993, Young became the team's sole quarterback for the third straight season. Once again, the 49ers won their division, but lost a crushing championship game at the hands of the Cowboys, 38-21. Determined to overcome the Cowboys in 1994, DeBartolo acquired a host of talents that included CB Deion Sanders, LB Ken Norton, Jr., LB Gary Plummer and draft picks DE Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

The additions paid dividends as the team finished with a 13-3 regular season record, plowed over the Bears 44-15 in the playoffs and got revenge on Dallas with a 38-28 victory in the NFC Championship game. Led by Young's six touchdown passes, the 49ers rolled over San Diego to win their fifth Super Bowl. Young was named the game's MVP.

Steve Young celebrates with fans after routing San Diego 49-26 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, FL in Super Bowl XXIX.

Siefert led the team to one more NFC West title in 1995 before Steve Mariucci became the new head coach, winning two more division titles in 1997 and 2002.

THE FUTURE 49ERS

Under the direction of new team owners Denise and John York and Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers are poised to make a comeback and restore the franchise's winning tradition that has been established over a grandiose six decades. The team of 2006 has a multitude of former 49ers players to model themselves after in heart, mind and body.

Organization

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK AND JOHN YORK

OWNERS

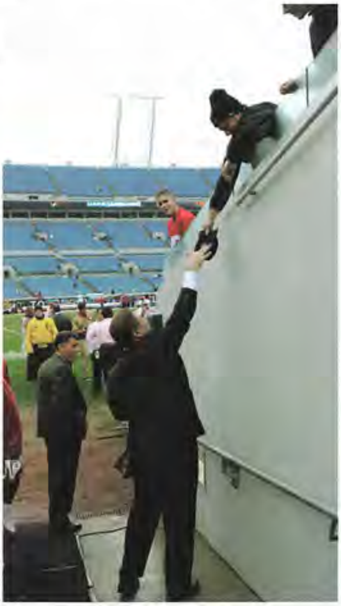
For years, Denise and John York have worn many hats in the sports and business worlds. Best known in the NFL community for their role as owners of the San Francisco 49ers and community and youth development advocates in the Bay Area and beyond, the couple has brought their extensive background in management and a passion for sports to the forefront of the 49ers organization since taking over the reins in the late 1990's.

As the team owners, they have conveyed their core family values of success and community leadership as the overriding mission of the 49ers football club.

"First and foremost, the goal of the 49ers is to win football games," John York said about his vision as owner. "Beyond winning, the 49ers are determined to be great partners in our business relations and are committed to being the best community citizens among Bay Area sports teams."

Embracing the Bay Area, Denise and John expanded the expertise and firepower of their front office staff, made upgrades to the 49ers training facility, bolstered the ties with the 49ers Faithful, developed important relationships with Bay Area community officials and are making significant strides in development of a state-of-the-art NFL stadium.

At Monster Park, Denise and John have supported renovations and improvements to increase the seating capacity, modernize the video boards and refurbish the interior and exterior of the stadium. On game day, the fan experience has also been enhanced with "Faithful City," an oasis in the main stadium parking lot devoted to 49ers interactive games, live entertainment, appearances by the Gold Rush Cheerleaders and a pre-game remote broadcast from 107.7 The Bone.



The two are no strangers to the world of sports. Since her father, Edward DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, Denise has rallied behind the 49ers during the ebbs and flows of three decades of football, including the highs of 30 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. While her family served as the 49ers backbone during many celebrated seasons, Denise was also instrumental in the boardroom of the family real estate development company in Ohio, The DeBartolo Corporation. It was there where she matured into one of the most successful business women in the United States. When her father purchased the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team in 1981, he made Denise the President. She coupled her role in sports and her business endeavors with the Corporation, and went on to become one of only a few female executives in the NHL, helping to revitalize a dormant franchise. During her tenure there, Pittsburgh drafted super stars Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr and claimed its first Stanley Cup title in 1991, and a second in 1992, making her the first woman to have her name engraved on Lord Stanley's Cup.

In 1978, just one year after Denise's father purchased the 49ers franchise, she and John, her college sweetheart, were married. Though his professional career then focused on medicine, John had been a 49ers fan since his childhood in Little Rock, Arkansas, so the connection to the team was natural.

"I would say that my best memories were lying on my living room floor in Little Rock, Arkansas, and being able to choose who my team was since Little Rock didn't have a team," York said about his earliest memories of being a 49ers fan. "So I kind of fell in love with the 49ers, with John Brodie throwing passes to R.C. Owens and then later, Joe Montana and Dwight Clark and 'The Catch.' I think those are the things we share as a group of fans. We all have our individual memories."

Now as owner of the 49ers, John enjoys the unique opportunity he has to share memories of 49ers past with fans who have followed the team since it played in Kezar Stadium. In their visits throughout the Bay Area, and on game days both home and away, Denise and John are also enthusiastic about meeting a younger generation of Faithful fans who are just beginning to shape their 49ers memory bank.

"When we're on the road, I'm able to go around the field and visit with many 49ers fans that are there and have come to the game," John said. "They come early and want to say hello, get autographs and watch the team warm up. I've gotten into the habit of always bringing something with me to share. If there are kids involved, I always invite some of them to join me on the field pre-game."

PUTTING TOGETHER A WINNING FORMULA

Denise and John's passion for the 49ers and formulating a winning football team has only flourished since their ownership began.

On the field, Denise and John have committed to assembling the most qualified group of leaders who combine the exemplary talent needed to rekindle the 49ers celebrated history through superior coaching and recruiting. In 2005, they appointed Head Coach Mike Nolan to oversee the club's endeavors on the football field. Both committed educators, Denise and John's decision to appoint Nolan as the team's incisive teacher was a perfect fit. He has since brought a sense of confidence, structure and most importantly, a much-needed identity, to the 49ers team.

"Winning the Stanley Cup with the Penguins and being able to share the excitement with the city of Pittsburgh was such a significant moment in my life. Our goal is to bring the same feeling to the Bay Area with the 49ers," Denise said. "Under Mike Nolan's leadership, I feel like we are on the right track."

The Yorks felt it was important that there be an exemplary group supporting Nolan in his efforts. Nolan has brought on board lauded coaches, including the astute offensive mind of Norv Turner, and Hall of Fame linebacker Mike Singletary.

"Since I accepted this position, Denise and John have not wavered in their commitment to provide the 49ers with the best coaching staff and support staff that I could assemble," Nolan said. "John has listened to me and our staff to help acquire the players that we need to compete for a championship."

Denise and John have cultivated an environment where veterans like linebacker Derek Smith re-signed in 2005 rather than test the free agent market, and new players such as Pro Bowl guard Larry Allen and explosive playmaker, Antonio Bryant, signed with the team.

They have also made significant additions to the front office staff with the hiring of football savvy personnel scout Scot McCloughan in 2005, who serves as the 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel. Spearheading two NFL Drafts in San Francisco, McCloughan has unearthed a wealth of young talent, and in the process, has been able to recruit athletic free agents to keep the team's roster fresh in the wake of injuries. In the spring of 2006, Denise and John named Lal Heneghan as Executive Vice President of Football Operations, adding another voice of expertise in the football-making decisions within the organization.

"The addition of another highly qualified NFL football person to our organization will help elevate all of our decisions and actions. We wanted a professional who had a strong football record. We believe Lal will help solidify the football future of the 49ers," John said.

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the 49ers Faithful, players and coaches, Denise and John opened training camp at the team's training facility during the summer of 2005. The team opened more than 10 practices, enabling nearly 30,000 49ers fans the opportunity to preview and meet the team before the first snap was taken during the season.

In 2006, they supported the effort again with 10 dates slated for public participation.

"We use this as a tool to get the fans in touch with both the players and coaches," John explained.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE BAY AREA

Denise and John have also provided the 49ers the tools to deliver in the community as the organization has made a tremendous impact on many Bay Area neighborhoods. Under Denise and John's leadership, the team's community program and 49ers Foundation has grown by leaps and bounds. In 2005, 49ers players, coaches, staff and alumni participated in nearly 200 community events, donating more than 2,000 hours while the 49ers Foundation has grown from $200,000 to a record $1.1 million raised and distributed to Bay Area non-profits.

The 49ers Foundation was founded in 1991 and is one of the oldest of its kind. Its efforts are near and dear to the couple's hearts. In 2005, the two continued to head many of the Foundation's activities, putting in frequent visits at the 49ers Academy, which is an ongoing classroom program serving 6th, 7th and 8th grade at-risk students in East Palo Alto. The two periodically drop in to teach the students as they benefit from the Academy's small, nurturing and personalized environment.

They have also continued to emphasize the importance of the Foundation's involvement in the Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA and the Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club. Ownership, players, alumni, coaches and staff frequently visit the Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA, donate tickets to the youth and financially support the YMCA's programs. Most recently, the 49ers Foundation pledged $250,000 over a five-year period to renovate the new facility. John was on hand to help Bayview community leaders cut the ceremonial red ribbon in November, 2005 in honor of the grand opening of the gymnasium.

Denise and John also have continued to support the efforts of the Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club, one of the Foundation's yearly beneficiaries. Their partnership with the city and San Francisco Giants has helped to expand recreational opportunities for youth in one of the most underserved neighborhoods in the Bay Area.

In March of 2005, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

Moving into 2006, Denise and John will front a unified effort for one, focused campaign in both the 49ers Foundation and community alliances. The "respect" campaign aims to inspire youth to demonstrate respect for their families, schools and communities. On the 49ers end, involvement includes supporting organizations and programs that help establish life goals, encourage positive character building choices, teach life skills, and demonstrate respect, tolerance and appreciation of diversity.

> "The Yorks are totally engaged as NFL owners. I have spent a lot of time with the Yorks on a variety of initiatives. Their passion for the 49ers and the NFL, and their commitment to building a top organization in San Francisco, are quite evident. They have re-structured the 49ers to create a strong foundation for success on and off the field."

DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK

With more than 27 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise has been nominated consecutive times since 2002 to San Francisco Business Times "Most Influential Women in Business" for heading one of the largest women-owned businesses in the Bay Area. Denise has also been nominated to Business on Leadership since 2000. For her numerous achievements, she was inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

Denise serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio which includes the five-time World Champion 49ers. She previously held the position of Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC). Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. in December 1994, Denise was named Chairman.

When she's not making decisions in the boardroom, Denise spends much of her time giving back in both the Bay Area and her rooted community in Ohio. In November, 2005, Denise took part in San Francisco's Mission High School's second annual Denise DeBartolo Award to recognize someone who has made a difference for the students at Mission High School. Denise first got involved with the school in 2002, when she received word of the condition of the athletic program and immediately provided uniforms and funding for several of the teams. Her efforts in the Mission District school continue.

She has been instrumental in the erection of a handful of athletic fields throughout the Bay Area including a new football field and facility in Crocker-Amazon Park located in South San Francisco in 2002, the installation of a synthetic sports playing surface at Burton High School in San Francisco in 2004 and most recently in 2005, a newly renovated surface at the 49ers Academy – Ronald McNair Field.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has also awarded more than $350,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH) through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools.

As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, Denise assisted in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise took the lead in a second fundraising effort for the assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

JOHN YORK

John York has proven to be a successful business leader on many levels, showing a propensity for developing and building companies. In addition to his duties with the 49ers, John doubles as President of The DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, he is essential in steering The DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

A successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, he has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, John founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, he molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest.

Bringing this expertise to The DeBartolo Corporation, John assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. He successfully instituted programs designed to shore up the operations, increase fan participation and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK and Louisiana Downs.

John is also noted for his generous support of youth activities and education beyond the Bay Area. In 2002, he made a $500,000 contribution in Denise's name to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

For his 19 years of service to the Boardman Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18, John was awarded the Honorary Lifetime Member title in June of 2006. And in May of 2005, John was presented with the Distinguished American Award from the Northeastern Ohio Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. in Cleveland, Ohio.

Still an actively involved alumnus of the University of Notre Dame and his high school alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, John continues to donate time and financial support to better educational facilities and curriculum at both of his former schools.

John graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, he underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, John has numerous publications to his credit.

THE YORK FAMILY

Though Denise and John have an extensive involvement in their vast portfolio of business and community ventures, they define themselves as husband, wife, and parents first. The couple met during college while John attended the University of Notre Dame, and Denise at Notre Dame's sister college, St. Mary's College. They have been together ever since and married for 28 years.

John, a native of Muskogee, OK and later Little Rock, AK, and Denise, who grew up in the Youngstown suburb of Boardman, OH, both came from modest families whose principle values lie in an entrepreneurial and opportunistic work ethic. From their humble beginnings into their adult successes, Denise and John have practiced, and taught their own children the importance of giving back. The couple has four children: Jed, Tony and twins Jenna and Mara.

The York Family

Jed is learning the nuts and bolts of the 49ers franchise as the team's special projects manager. Tony is carrying on the family tradition by attending college at the University of Notre Dame, the alma mater of his grandfather, father and older brother. Jenna and Mara are entering their third year at Boston College.

The family enjoys visiting the variety of San Francisco's ethnic restaurants, traveling and of course, game day.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS LIMITED PARTNERS

The 49ers have two limited partner groups—Franklin Mieuli and Rick C. and Carla Morabito.

Mieuli's longtime interest and love for sports sparked his future involvement in the professional sports teams that have brought him five Super Bowl championship rings as a limited partner with the 49ers and one NBA World Championship as the former owner of the Golden State Warriors.

In 1949, he accepted a position in the advertising department of the San Francisco Brewing Company, makers of Burgermeister beer. "Burgie" sponsored broadcasts of 49ers football games and in 1954, Mieuli produced the team's first telecasts. Through his business relationship and friendship with Tony and Vic Morabito, the original owners of the 49ers, Franklin was offered the opportunity to purchase a share of the club, and today still holds stake in the 49ers franchise.

When the New York Giants moved west in 1958, Horace Stoneham offered Mieuli stock in the San Francisco Giants. In 1962, Franklin and a group of his friends also purchased the Philadelphia Warriors and the San Francisco Warriors were born. He became the only sportsman to have ownerships in three major league sports teams in the same area.

In the 25 years after he acquired majority ownership, the San Francisco and now Golden State Warriors were in the playoffs ten times, won four division titles and a World Championship in 1974-75. Mieuli is the first professional sports team owner to have named an African American as his head coach, Alvin Attles, a member of the team that moved west from Philadelphia. His longtime friend has served with the Warriors as a player, head coach and administrator and remains with the team after 46 years as current vice president and assistant general manager.

Simultaneously, as president of Franklin Mieuli and Associates Radio and TV Production Co., he acquired production rights to the Giants and Warriors' games and engineered games for the A's and Raiders' broadcasts. He produced and handled the radio coverage for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley with Lon Simmons, Russ Hodges, Gordy Soltau and Marty Martin as his broadcasting crew. Today, his company continues to manage the radio engineering for 25 sports teams, including baseball, football, hockey and basketball, throughout the U.S. and Canada. He also owned radio stations, KPUP, (KHIP and KMPX) in San Francisco and was an owner of KTMX in Caluso.

Mieuli received a degree in advertising from the University of Oregon and served a stint in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mieuli and his former wife, Hilles Parish Cribari, are the parents of three children, seven grandchildren and five great-children. Ms. Blake Green, Mieuli's loving companion for the past 28 years, was formerly a feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle and Newsday in New York.

Mike Nolan

HEAD COACH
20th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

When Mike Nolan took over San Francisco's head coaching reins in 2005, he knew the expectations laid out in front of him were immense. Walking into an organization that had no history of success was one thing, but joining one of professional football's most storied franchises put a great responsibility on his shoulders.

Nolan set lofty goals to get the club back into the League's upper echelon while carrying on the winning tradition set by many celebrated players and coaches from the past, including his father, Dick, former 49ers head coach from 1968-75.

"There is an expectation level of performance and you do have a responsibility to past players," Nolan confirmed. "That is the responsibility of the players, coaches and the entire organization to get this back on track."

Nolan welcomed the task and challenged his team to capture the NFC West title last season, a goal that he says will not change.

"When you go forward, there is no choice in the leadership role," Nolan boldly stated. "You have one choice, and that's to lead and you don't lead from a loser's perspective. You lead from a winner's perspective."

Nolan's burning desire to win was the exact ingredient owners Denise and John York were looking to add to the 49ers organization when hiring the franchise's 15th head coach on January 19, 2005. It marked the same exact date his father, Dick, was hired by the 49ers 37 years earlier. Growing up under the wing of his father, who captured three straight NFC West Division Championships (1970-72) in San Francisco, gave him an early itch to lead a life dedicated to football and family.

"When I was named the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, I fulfilled a lifelong dream to follow in my father's footsteps," Nolan said. "I have always considered myself one of the 49ers Faithful. And having grown up in the Bay Area, I can say that I was once a fan and have now returned."

Mike and Dick Nolan became the fourth NFL family along with Don and David Shula, Jim Sr. and Jim Jr. Mora, and Wade and Bum Phillips to have a father and son handle head coaching roles. Some of Mike Nolan's most vivid childhood memories were watching from his father's shadow on the practice field and in the locker room and building relationships with talents who were some of the greatest to ever play the game.

"Mike was nine years old when I played here when his dad was hired," 49ers Hall of Fame LB Dave Wilcox said. "He used to hang around the locker room. I don't know how Mike coaches, but the things they say about him sound exactly like his dad. Very thorough, knew what he wanted to do, knew he was going to get there. So I'm convinced that he'll do that."

THE ROOT OF ALL VALUES

Nolan has playing experience and almost 25 years of coaching notched on his belt. Over that span, he's learned that character and heart can be more significant than mere talent alone. Encounters in both roles as student and mentor are also responsible for his desire to see every individual player coached as though they were starting.

After playing football at Woodside (CA) High School, he walked-on to the football team at the University of Oregon. One day at practice Oregon's quarterback ran the option and was tackled by the team's safety. Both suffered injuries and the back-up quarterback, who was the team's second-string safety, stepped in as the new leader in the pocket. Just two days later, Oregon's third-string safety flunked out of school. In the unexpected twist of fate, Nolan went from a fourth-string walk-on to a starting safety in one of the nation's toughest football conferences, the Pacific-8 (Now the Pac-10). He grabbed his chance, took advantage of his coaches' principles, and started three years on scholarship for the Ducks.

Since then he believes one of a coach's most significant responsibilities is to make sure every man on his roster is ready to compete. In 2005, the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of San Francisco's four starters in the secondary. Yet players who were signed to the roster after training camp, and many rookies, were prepared to step into starting roles.

"Our coaching mandate is that if you are in a 49ers uniform, you will be coached, prepared and ready to play whether you are a first-round pick or a backup player," Nolan said. "Our coaches are dedicated teachers that are skilled in getting everybody on this team ready to play."

With the proper mentoring program, all 10 of the 49ers 2005 drafted players saw action during the season while six made starts. QB Alex Smith took snaps in nine games starting seven, and led the team to consecutive wins to close out the season. Third-round draft pick RB Frank Gore paced the 49ers rushing attack with 608 yards and ranked first among NFL rookie running backs in rushing average per carry (4.8). Second-round selection G David Baas and third-round pick G/T Adam Snyder stepped in due to injuries along the offensive line and became sturdy anchors in the trenches while gaining valuable experience.

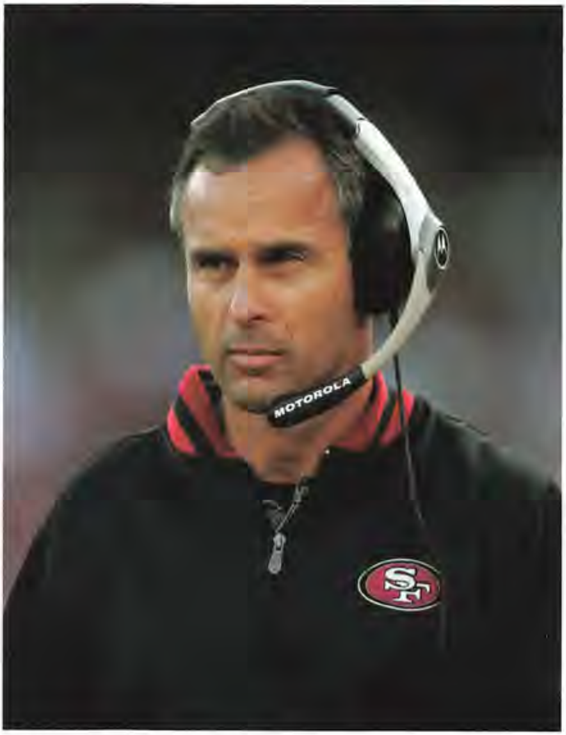
Under Nolan's direction, many of the 49ers talented veterans were also able to find their niche and excel. K Joe Nedney hit 26-of-28 field goals including a career-high 56-yarder to tie for the longest in 49ers history. LB Derek Smith paced the team with 163 tackles and a 13-yard interception, while defensive leader Bryant Young notched eight sacks to move him into third place on the 49ers all-time career sack list with 77.5.

BUILDING AN IMPRESSIVE RÉSUMÉ

Much of Nolan's success as a leader and acute defensive mind was showcased in his previous position as the defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens. During his impressive stint in Baltimore, Nolan's defense yielded nine Pro Bowl starters in 2003-04. Over that span, his stingy defensive units also produced two NFL Defensive Players of the Year in S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003).

In 2004, Nolan's defense finished tied for second in the NFL in average rush per carry (3.6 yards). The Ravens defense allowed only 16.8 points per game, good for fourth in the AFC. Nolan's unit had 34 total takeaways, including 13 interceptions. Reed was named the Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year after earning 20 votes from a national panel of writers and broadcasters who cover pro football to make him the first safety to win the award in 20 years. He led the NFL with nine interceptions and set an NFL mark with 358 return yards on those picks. Reed joined LB Ray Lewis, CB Cris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs as players selected to start in the 2004 Pro Bowl.

In 2003, Nolan's defense was among the NFL's best, finishing third overall. Baltimore ranked first in the AFC with 17 fumble recoveries, led the NFL in sacks (47) and tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 41 takeaways. The Ravens defense allowed just 281 points and grabbed 24 interceptions. Nolan was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team following the 2003 season and NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Football Digest. During the 2003 season, Baltimore allowed the fewest yards per play (4.2) and fourth fewest passing yards (175.3 per game) in the NFL. Lewis was named the AP's NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the leading vote-getter on AP's All-Pro team (49 of 50 votes). Reed, one of eight Ravens to make the Pro Bowl, tied a Ravens' record with seven interceptions and Suggs was named the AP's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year while setting a Ravens' rookie record with 12 sacks.



Nolan was promoted to Baltimore's defensive coordinator in 2002 after originally joining the Ravens in 2001 on the other side of the ball as the team's wide receivers coach. Brian Billick had envisioned Nolan as a defensive coordinator, and he moved into that position with the departure of Marvin Lewis.

The 2002 season was especially challenging for him due to the fact that the Ravens newcomers out-numbered the starting veterans on defense. Eight rookies comprised the defensive roster by season's end, while Lewis was lost to a shoulder injury in October. Although the team faced adversity, Baltimore finished first in the AFC with a team-record 25 interceptions, second in the NFL in fewest yards per rush (3.7), third in the NFL in fewest yards allowed on first down (4.87 yards—best in the AFC) and third in the AFC with 31 takeaways. Linebacker Peter Boulware was double and triple-teamed with Lewis and defensive end Michael McCrary (knee) out, however, Boulware still logged a career and team-high 59 sacks including seven during the 2002 season.

Prior to tutoring the Ravens wide receivers, Nolan had a one-year stay as the New York Jets defensive coordinator in 2000, a position he also held with the Washington Redskins (1997-99) and the New York Giants (1993-96). Under Nolan's tutelage, the Jets defense rebounded to tenth overall (tied with Philadelphia) in the league—11 positions better than the previous year.

"When I was the GM of the Jets we had a good relationship," present Dallas Cowboys Head Coach Bill Parcells remembered about Mike Nolan. "I knew his dad and I liked his dad. I just kind of took to Mike myself. I think he's a good, young coach and I like him very much personally. I think he's a football guy. He grew up with it. It's very important to him and I think that he has a lot of passion for it."

From 1997-99 Nolan was the defensive coordinator in Washington. In 1997, the Redskins allowed the eighth-fewest points in the NFL and finished third overall in pass defense. Though his three-year spell with the Redskins had plenty of highs and lows, Nolan credits his experiences there as the catalyst he used to build his present foundation.

"I didn't learn as much football at Washington, but I learned more than I could have any place else as far as personnel, structure and chemistry," he remembered. "That was one of the best experiences of my coaching career, looking back on it."

The Washington job also introduced Nolan to one of the League's most innovative coaching minds on the offensive side of the ball in Norv Turner. Nolan gained tremendous respect for his then-head coach, and brought him on board to lead the 49ers offensive strike in San Francisco, a reunion that took place during the 2006 off-season.

Prior to serving on the Redskins staff, he spent four seasons as defensive coordinator under then-head coach Dan Reeves for the New York Giants (1993-96). In Nolan's first season as the League's youngest defensive coordinator at the time (32 years old), the Giants defense allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). Nolan cut his professional coaching teeth under Reeves, serving on his staff in Denver from 1987-92 as the Broncos linebackers coach and special teams coach/defensive assistant. During that span, Nolan reached the Super Bowl three times with the Broncos - in 1987, 1988 and 1990.

"Mike has a good personality and he relates well to players because he has been around them," Reeves said. "Mike played in high school and college and almost made it with us in Denver. He has coached special teams, offense and defense, so he's had a lot of experience coaching all three phases. I think that will pay dividends for him."

Nolan launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Oregon, in 1981 after participating in the 1981 Broncos' training camp as a defensive back under Reeves. Within five years, he held positions as a linebackers or defensive backs coach at Stanford, Rice and LSU.

FOOTBALL ALL IN THE FAMILY

Football and family have always been one in the same for the Nolans and the same has held true since he's become a head coach.

Because coaching hours run deep into the night and begin at the break of dawn, Nolan and his wife, Kathy, found a way to increase time spent together. Kathy drives him to work in the morning and picks him up at the end of the day. The commute enables the couple to spend some extra time together.

"One thing I learned from my father growing up was how he treated my mother," he explained. "My father loved my mother more than you could ever imagine, and I always saw that.

"That's helped me in my own life. We've moved nine times in the last 22 years. It is important that we keep the family together."

Nolan's family members have also been his biggest supporters, cheering him along every step of the way. His naming as the head coach in San Francisco last season marked the most special stop for the Nolan family yet. The night before Mike's first game, his oldest brother, Rook, met him at the team hotel with a gift, their father Dick's 1956 NFL championship ring that he earned as a defensive back with the New York Giants. Rook received the ring when he moved out of the family house. Rook, who took his name after being born during his father's rookie season in 1954, thought his younger brother should wear the ring during his first regular season game as a head coach. Mike wore the ring with the face down close to his palm and went on to lead the 49ers to an opening day 28-25 win against division rival St. Louis on September 11, 2005.

The Nolan family appreciates the process that lies ahead for Mike in winning another 49ers championship. But they have no doubt in his leadership and drive to get the job done.

"He understands players and can help them with any problems that they have on or off the field," Mike's father, and biggest supporter, Dick said. "He knows his stuff and is very organized. I never dreamed he would be the head football coach of a team I coached. I never thought it would be that way. It is great to see that happen."

Mike and Kathy Nolan have four children: sons, Michael and Christopher, and daughters, Laura and Jennifer. The family resides in Saratoga, CA.

> "When my father was head coach of the 49ers I was fortunate enough to spend time with 49ers greats like John Brodie, Gene Washington, Dave Wilcox and Jimmy Johnson. The reason I bring those names up is because I am often asked why I am a coach. A lot of coaches say that it's because they love the game. But seldom do they actually reflect on why they love the game. I realized and recognized that it was those players' passion and intensity that struck me as a child and made me want to be part of the game of football."

Lal Heneghan

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

A proven football administrator with a wealth of experience at the NFL, NFLPA and club level, Lal Heneghan enters his first season as the 49ers Executive Vice President of Football Operations. When Denise and John York and Mike Nolan agreed on the creation of the new position, they began an extensive search to find a person whose knowledge and organizational skills would benefit the organization in a vast array of areas. In his new role, Heneghan will oversee all aspects of the day-to-day football operations.

"We wanted a professional who had a strong football record and could add more firepower to our football operations," Owner John York said. "Lal fit that profile and will help solidify the football future of the 49ers. The addition of another highly qualified NFL person to our organization will help elevate all of our decisions and actions."

"Lal is an experienced NFL person in football operations," Head Coach Mike Nolan added. "He has achieved success at many levels in the NFL office and Cleveland Browns. He is well respected and he has demonstrated the ability to communicate and motivate people. Lal brings a wealth of knowledge to the 49ers that is extremely important. Here at the 49ers, we make 'We' decisions. The addition of Lal will only strengthen those decisions and I am excited about that."

Heneghan most recently served in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns as Vice President, Football Operations and General Counsel from November of 1998 until May of 2004. Over the past two years, Heneghan has provided consulting services to professional sports and non-profit organizations and said his diverse levels of experience have served him well in his career.

"I've had the opportunity to see how different elements of the NFL operate," Heneghan said. "When issues or questions arise, I've usually had experience in knowing what people's points of view are. That's helped me facilitate solutions to problems that come up and it in turn, gets everyone to work together."

With the Browns, Heneghan was responsible for departmental, salary cap and player contract coordination as well as general legal matters. He also oversaw the club's pro personnel department as well as the medical, equipment, video and player development departments.

Prior to joining Cleveland, Heneghan spent seven years with the National Football League Management Council as Director of Labor Relations. In that capacity, he supervised the daily operation and interpretation of the NFL salary cap, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and advised clubs on all aspects of their daily labor operations.

After joining the NFL in 1991, Heneghan initially served as labor relations counsel, where he represented clubs in grievance arbitrations and counseled clubs on a variety of labor issues. In 1993, he participated in negotiations with the NFLPA, which resulted in the 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Heneghan's contributions to the NFL are reflective of his involvement in a broad range of areas, including serving on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee while with the Browns. He remains one of three NFL-appointed executives to serve as a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Previously, Heneghan was a labor attorney at Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld in Washington, D.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center. During Law School, he worked with the NFLPA in Washington, D.C. Heneghan said a career that combined his two passions—sports and law—gave him the best of both worlds.

"When I entered law school I had an interest in combining my interest in law with a career in sports," Heneghan said. "I had been able to participate in sports in college and wanted to combine sports into my professional pursuits. I was fortunate that I attended law school with a man who had played in the NFL and was the Assistant Executive Director of the NFLPA. (Mark Murphy, an eight-year veteran safety with the Washington Redskins from 1977-84). He introduced me to the people at the union on the legal side and that's how I got my start."

An accomplished college athlete, Heneghan was a tight end and co-captain for the 1984 University of Pennsylvania Ivy League Champion football team. Heneghan said he still applies the same ideals of teamwork and leadership to his professional career today.

"Sports in college were helpful because we were part of a new program when I went there. We worked together as a team, and we really felt we were a team that tried to re-establish a winning tradition," Heneghan said. "I think that is what goes on at the club level as well. A group that has that commitment can win with each other."

Heneghan's greatest sports achievement was being a part of Pennsylvania's football team who captured the Ivy League Championship. However, he did not emphasize the end result of hoisting the championship trophy in the air. Instead, he remembered with pride the journey he and his teammates made together to achieve such great success.

"I think winning the championship as a group was the best feeling I had as a player," Heneghan said. "Just the camaraderie we had was great and we had a lot more fun around each other because we won. It wasn't any particular game, but being part of the team was the greatest thing to me."

Born in Rockville, MD, family has always been a big part of his life, stretching even to the origin of his first name. Lal, an Irish family name, is short for Lally which was his father's name before he emigrated from Ireland to the United States.

Heneghan's wife, Amy, is a pediatrician. The couple has a 10-year-old son, Jack, and an eight-year-old daughter, Lucy.

"To me family is my most important job," Heneghan said. "I grew up in a large family and it's always been a privilege to be a part of something."

Scot McCloughan

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

In early 2005, the San Francisco 49ers took significant strides and rounded the corner with an innovative vision to restore the club's winning ways of the past. To succeed in rebuilding the 49ers franchise, owners Denise and John York knew they would have to make every decision count, especially when it came to acquiring talented and quality players.

It didn't take long for the 49ers search committee to pinpoint the keen eye of Scot McCloughan, who was hired on February 2, 2005 to reform San Francisco's roster.

In his current role, not only is McCloughan overseeing new talent that comes through the Santa Clara practice facility door, but he's also helping to manage the team's salary cap and player contracts, while working hand-in-hand with Head Coach Mike Nolan in devising a personnel plan to build a young team into a powerhouse.

Upon his arrival in San Francisco from his former post as the director of college scouting for the Seattle Seahawks, McCloughan had just over two months to devise a plan for 2005 free agency and the NFL Draft.

He was in a challenging position, but possessed the track record and football pedigree to get the job done.

Heading the 49ers personnel department enabled him to return to the Bay Area, where his football roots began. The year McCloughan was born in San Leandro, CA was his father's (Kent) final year playing in the NFL. Kent was a standout cornerback for the Oakland Raiders from 1965-70, and was part of the 1967 Super Bowl II squad. Immediately after his final season, Kent began scouting for the Raiders, discovering talented collegiate players around the country from the family's new home in Loveland, CO.

Respected NFL executive Ron Wolf was a member of the scouting department in Oakland at the time and brought Kent on board to bolster the department. Young Scot joined his father for film sessions at the house and even traveled as his dad's sidekick on trips around the area. He watched, learned and took notes.

Football was life in the McCloughan household, and the environment quickly ceded Scot into a standout on the football team as a running back, safety and return man. He was also a star baseball player, earning a scholarship on the Wichita State team where he contributed in two collegiate World Series as a designated hitter and third-baseman.

McCloughan went on to play minor league baseball for three more years for the Toronto Blue Jays organization before football beckoned him again. It was then that Wolf re-entered the picture, this time, recruiting Kent's son to join his scouting staff in Green Bay in 1994.

McCloughan went on to comb the Midlands region for college talent for three years before he took over a slot in the Southeast territory. During that span, he was part of two Packers' Super Bowl teams, including the 1996 championship squad who defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI. In just five short years, he made an impressive name for himself and Seattle hired him as their director of college scouting.

"He's very good at what he does and has a tremendous desire to improve," Wolf said. "He has an exceptional eye for talent."

Some of his early picks, like St. Louis G Adam Timmerman, Green Bay's seventh-round selection out of South Dakota State in 1995, turned out to be hidden gems. Timmerman has since become a Pro Bowler.

In Seattle, McCloughan's efforts came to fruition when the Seahawks won the NFC Championship in 2005 and made a trip to Super Bowl XL in Detroit to play the Pittsburgh Steelers. On that roster, 25 of the 28 draft picks on McCloughan's draft scroll were still on the team when he left his post to join the 49ers last year.

"I think Scot is one of the bright young talents in this League. I fought like crazy to keep him here," Seattle Head Coach Mike Holmgren said.

Along with his tireless routine of preparation, McCloughan possesses an acute memory. It served him well heading his first draft in San Francisco, where he had to put together a draft board based on the needs of a team he barely knew.

"Ten of the 11 draft picks from 2005 remained on the team and the one we did cut and wanted to put on the practice squad was claimed," McCloughan recapped. "Two, three years into this, I think it's going to be a heck of a draft."

The 2005 Draft Class has already proven him right.

All ten players, and one undrafted college free agent saw action during their rookie campaign. Six became starters, including G David Baas and G/T Adam Snyder, who helped bring cohesion and strength to the offensive line by the season's end. RB Frank Gore led the 49ers rushing efforts and first round selection, QB Alex Smith took over the starting reins in the second half of the season, leading San Francisco to consecutive wins to close out the 2005 slate.

McCloughan also held the roster together with a myriad of free agent acquisitions who stepped in to take the place of many injured starters.

"That gave me a lot of confidence in Scot McCloughan and our personnel department," Nolan said about the free agents effectively filling holes throughout the year.

Over his two-year span with the 49ers, McCloughan has also recruited talents of seasoned veterans through free agency such as LT Jonas Jennings and 2005 49ers co-MVP K Joe Nedney. And during the 2006 off-season, McCloughan helped acquire future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen and pulled the trigger on an important trade with Denver in the 2006 draft, acquiring a second pick in the first round to put San Francisco in prime position with No. 6 and No. 22 overall choices. The move gave the team firepower on both offense and defense as athletic TE Vernon Davis and agile LB Manny Lawson were selected in the two first-round slots.

The McCloughan scouting pedigree likewise matriculated to his older brother, David, who shares Scot's innate ability to unearth football talent. He also came to San Francisco in 2005 and serves as the 49ers director of college scouting.

McCloughan and his wife, Kelli, have a son, Caden, and twin girls, Adison and Avery. The family resides in San Ramon , CA.

Norv Turner

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
21st NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Norv Turner enters his first season as offensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers. He has over 20 years of professional coaching experience – nine as a head coach and six as an offensive coordinator in the NFL. Turner, who grew up in the Bay Area community of Martinez, has been regarded as one of the NFL's finest offensive minds in his roles as offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys, San Diego Chargers and Miami Dolphins as well as head coach of the Washington Redskins and Oakland Raiders. An elite instructor and motivator, Turner said he would still be involved in teaching if he did not enter the coaching profession.

"I probably would have taught history. I used to be a history buff, now it's gone more towards football than the world itself," Turner said. "I like to think I have a pretty good understanding of the history of the League, history of players, those types of things."

Over the years, tutoring quarterbacks to leave a mark in NFL annals has become Turner's niche – QB Gus Frerotte went to the Pro Bowl in 1996 under his direction. In 1999, QB Brad Johnson led the NFC in passing with 4,005 yards and helped Washington win a division title. He also helped develop QB Trent Green in Washington and tutored QB Drew Brees as a rookie in San Diego. Additionally, Hall of Famer QB Troy Aikman excelled under his guidance in Dallas. Since his retirement, Aikman frequently has designated Turner for having the most influence on his playing success. Aikman backed that up by asking his former offensive coordinator to be his presenter in Canton during his Hall of Fame induction in August, 2006.

"It's really rewarding when guys let you have a positive impact on them," Turner said. "There are certain players who truly open up and are willing to listen, and learn and buy into what we are doing. It's amazing how much more success they have than the guys who fight it. I appreciate the quality in a player who opens himself up and buys into the system and believes in it. They'll have success, they let their ego down and say 'Hey, I'm yours,' and then you can have a real impact on them."

Turner said his approach has remained consistent despite the players he has coached. While his method impacts individual athletes in different ways, Turner said he stresses the importance on practicing skills that will lead to success on the field.

"I coached a veteran quarterback a few years ago and he said, 'Norv, your problem is that you are too much of a perfectionist,'" Turner said. "I took that as a real compliment. I think you have to be exact and you have to be demanding. Everyone has got to understand that the difference between winning and losing in this league is very, very small. It can come down to one play at any time, and so I think coaching the details is the thing that is most important to me."

In his first season as head coach of the Raiders in 2004, Oakland ranked fourth in the AFC in net passing yards per play despite a season-ending injury to QB Rich Gannon, the 2002 NFL MVP, in the third game of the season.

Turner was Washington's head coach from 1994-00 and directed the Redskins to four winning campaigns, including two in a row (1999 and 2000). His 1999 Redskins claimed their first NFC Eastern Division title since 1991. While Turner was head coach with Washington, he also served as offensive coordinator. During his seven-year tenure in Washington, he led the Redskins to a regular-season record of 49-59-1. The Redskins went 1-1 in the 1999 postseason. The team had a 1,000-yard rusher four times and a 1,000-yard receiver on five occasions.

Turner also served as the offensive coordinator on Jimmy Johnson's Dallas coaching staff from 1991-93. As the Cowboys' lead play caller, Turner helped guide the team to two straight World Championships including wins in Super Bowl XXVII following the 1992 season and Super Bowl XXVIII following the 1993 season.

With Turner as offensive coordinator with Dallas, RB Emmitt Smith led the NFL in rushing all three years. In addition, both Aikman and WR Michael Irvin finished in the top three in the NFL in passing and receiving, respectively, twice. Also during Turner's tenure in Dallas, TE Jay Novacek led all NFL tight ends in receiving twice and averaged more than 57 receptions a season over that three-year period. In 1991, Dallas became the first team to have a running back, Smith (1,563) and a wide receiver, Irvin (1,523) eclipse the 1,500-yard mark in the same season.

Turner also spent two seasons on Dave Wannstedt's Miami staff as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator. RB Ricky Williams' 1,372 rushing yards in 2002 marked the 10th time in Turner's 15 seasons as either a head coach or a coordinator that a running back surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark. In Turner's first season with the Dolphins in 2002, Miami ranked second in the NFL in rushing with an average of 156.4 yards per contest. The 2,502 total rushing yards were the third-highest total in Dolphins history.

Turner spent the 2001 season as the offensive coordinator with San Diego. Under Turner's guidance, the Chargers offense improved to the 11th-best unit in the NFL after having finished 28th overall the previous season. Chargers RB LaDainian Tomlinson led all NFL rookies with 1,236 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns on 339 attempts, while also catching an NFL rookie-best 59 passes. His rushing total ranked fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL. In addition, QB Doug Flutie threw for 3,464 yards and WR Curtis Conway had 71 receptions for 1,125 yards, marking just the second time in team history that San Diego had a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.

Turner began his NFL coaching career as an assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1985. With Turner as the team's receivers coach, the Rams offense finished third, fourth and third, respectively, from 1988-90, his final three seasons with the club.

Turner began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oregon in 1975. The following year, he moved on to the University of Southern California where, for the next nine seasons, he served as the Trojans receivers coach (1976-79), defensive backs coach (1980), quarterbacks coach (1981-83) and offensive coordinator (1984).

In 1980, Turner tutored what is regarded as one of the finest defensive backfields in college football history. It included CB/S Ronnie Lott and S Dennis Smith, both NFL first-round draft choices in 1981, along with S Jeff Fisher, a seventh-round draft pick in 1981. During Turner's nine-year tenure at USC, the Trojans won all four Rose Bowls in which they appeared and took part in six bowl games overall, winning five of them.

The 1978 team went 12-1, including a victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl, and claimed the National Championship. Turner was a three-year letterman (1972-74) as a quarterback at the University of Oregon, spending two seasons behind NFL Hall of Fame QB Dan Fouts.

"After my college career ended and I graduated, I wanted to stay in athletics," Turner said. "I got a chance to stay in coaching as a graduate assistant. I played for John Robinson at Oregon and he gave me the chance to get involved as an assistant coach and it grew from there. The opportunity to stay in athletics and a competitive situation is why I wanted to do it and I was very lucky."

Turner and his wife, Nancy, have three children: Scott, Stephanie and Drew.

Billy Davis

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
15th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Although one of the League's youngest defensive coordinators, Billy Davis is an experienced coach who grew up with the burning passion needed to excel on the professional level. Davis grew up with a strong football background. He learned at a young age that developing a strong work ethic, solid character and commanding presence were keys to achieving success.

Davis enters his second season as the 49ers defensive coordinator after being named to lead the club's defensive unit February 9, 2005. Davis joined San Francisco after completing his first season as linebackers coach of the New York Giants in 2004. Prior to New York, Davis spent the previous three seasons as the Atlanta Falcons linebackers coach. During that span, LB Keith Brooking was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his three seasons under Davis. In 2002, Davis was instrumental in helping Atlanta's linebackers adjust to a new 3-4 defense installed by defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

Through grit, determination and tenacity, San Francisco's 2005 defense ended the season strong in the team's last two wins against St. Louis and Houston with aggressive plays and timely turnovers. Davis was forced to shuffle a defense that spent almost half the season without three starters in the secondary. In addition, the unit featured several newcomers who played a vital role in the defense without the benefit of spending time in training camp. With the addition of fresh talent via the 2006 NFL Draft and free agency, coupled with players who have a year of the new defensive system under their collective belts, Davis only expects the unit to improve in 2006.

"Injuries are a part of the game," Davis said. "That's why it's so important to teach and work with every player on the defense and get them prepared for each contest. Our guys will be in their second year in our system and they are a young, talented group that I feel will improve this season."

Davis grew up in a world where the sport provided for his family in a multitude of ways. He was chosen as a ball boy by Dick Vermeil (Philadelphia) and Don Shula (Miami) as a child while his father, Bill, served 13 years in the NFL including six years as the Cleveland Browns' director of player personnel.

"I've leaned on my father for advice every day," Davis said. "Having a strong influence like him in my life set a great example of how a man is supposed to work hard and how to treat his family."

Although Davis could have used his last name to advance his career, he chose to enter the profession at the bottom and work his way to the top. After serving as a graduate assistant coach at Michigan State, Davis joined the NFL in 1992 as a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers. A college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati, Davis took the opposite route to a successful pro coaching career. In 1992, he sent letters to every team in the NFL inquiring about available coaching positions. He received a response from Pittsburgh, so Davis made the trek to the "Steel City" from Michigan State to interview for an entry-level opening. With a playing and coaching career primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Davis was shocked when Pittsburgh Head Coach Bill Cowher asked him to join the staff as a defensive assistant, a position where he had no previous experience. However, Davis immediately accepted the new challenge and has quickly become one of the top young coaches in the NFL.

"I would have taken the job for no pay," Davis recounted. "It was an opportunity to learn from some of the top defensive minds in the game today."

As a defensive and scouting intern, Davis sat in a meeting room with a laundry list of former and current head coaches. Bill Cowher, Dom Capers, Marvin Lewis and Dick LeBeau allowed Davis to fine tune his game at a fast pace. He worked extra hours to learn the defense and said the extra time spent in the film room proved to be invaluable in becoming the coach he is today.

"It was the first time I was exposed to defensive coaches," Davis said. "I was able to learn to put together plans designed to defuse offense's strengths. My time as an offensive player and a coach helped with this transition."

In 1995, Davis began a four-year stretch as the outside linebackers coach with the Carolina Panthers under Capers. With Davis as their coach, linebackers Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon finished first and second in the NFL in sacks, with 14.5 and 13.5 respectively, in 1996. Each made the Pro Bowl and the second-year Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

After leaving Carolina, Davis had a pair of one-year stops, first with the Cleveland Browns in 1999 (as a defensive assistant/linebackers) and next with the Green Bay Packers in 2000 (defensive assistant/defensive line). Davis began his coaching career at Michigan State in 1990 as a graduate assistant where he stayed on through the 1991 season.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Davis was a college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati from 1985-88. He also spent time in training camp with the Miami Dolphins.

Davis and his wife, Sherry, reside in San Jose with their two daughters, Monica and Brooke.

Larry Mac Duff

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
8th NFL Season, 4th with 49ers

An experienced coach who is equal parts teacher and motivator, Larry Mac Duff enters his fourth season as special teams coordinator for the 49ers. A 30-year coaching veteran of the collegiate and NFL ranks, Mac Duff has led successful units as both a defensive and special teams coordinator. He says several factors beyond merely just scripting X's and O's play an important role in maintaining a winning atmosphere.

"The key to success for me is to have outstanding players that are really committed," Mac Duff said. "Football to me is a people business and the personnel involved both at the playing and coaching level are the ones that make the difference."

Under Mac Duff in 2005, K Joe Nedney returned to a high level of production after battling injuries during the 2004 and 2003 seasons. He joined the 49ers in 2005 and connected on 26-of-28 field goals. He also was named NFC Special Teams Player of Week after his five field goal performance against Tampa Bay. Mac Duff continued to extract stellar play from LS Brian Jennings. In 2004, Jennings was named as the "need player" for the Pro Bowl. Additionally, P Andy Lee fared well after being named to several All-Rookie publications in 2004. Last season, the 49ers special teams unit continued to perform and placed favorably in several team categories including kickoff and punt coverage despite shuffling lineups due to injuries.

Mac Duff said the selections of players who fit the right mentality were instrumental in the development of the unit.

"We are looking for players with the right kind of skills and the right kind of attitude," Mac Duff said. "Hard workers who are really committed. I like to coach details and coach with enthusiasm. A lot of special teams is about being real aggressive, athletic and tough."

Mac Duff joined the 49ers after two stints at the University of Arizona where he served as the Wildcats defensive coordinator for a total of 12 seasons.

In between stops at Tucson, Mac Duff spent four seasons as the special teams coach for the New York Giants from 1997-00. Under Mac Duff, the Giants led the NFL in field goal defense in 1999 and 2000 and paced the NFC in punt returns in 1999. KR Ron Dixon became the first player in NFL history to return two postseason kickoffs for touchdowns during the Giants Super Bowl run in 2000. The Giants went on to capture two NFC East Championships in Mac Duff's tenure.

Mac Duff's first stop in Arizona set defensive standards in the early 1990's. The Wildcats 'Desert Swarm' unit led the nation in scoring defense in 1992, allowing only 8.9 points per game, and finished second in total defense. The impressive display was repeated in 1993 when the Wildcats led the nation in rushing defense while allowing a conference-record of only 30.1 yards per game. Arizona finished among the top 10 defenses for four consecutive seasons spanning from 1992-95. Mac Duff has stayed true to his coaching philosophies on both defense and special teams, maintaining the same teaching methods no matter what side of the ball he is directing.

"I think coaching is coaching whatever position it is," Mac Duff said. "My approach to coaching regardless of position or level is to try and be very demanding, very positive and very enthusiastic. I try to make it as much fun as I can knowing that there is a real responsibility for players and coaches to get things right."

Mac Duff said there is one advantage to working with the special teams unit.

"One of the great things about being a special teams coordinator in the NFL is that you have contact with the entire football team," he explained. "I have a chance to work with all positions in a variety of different special team situations. I really enjoy that and I get an opportunity to have contact with the entire team and be in a leadership position."

Mac Duff also cited Head Coach Mike Nolan's background as a special teams coach as a reason why the group had success in 2005.

"It's an advantage for us as an organization to have a head coach that has done it himself," Mac Duff said about Nolan's special teams experience. "It helps in personnel decisions; it helps in planning and organization as far as practice structure and meeting time. It helps in making decisions during games because there are a lot of things in game management decisions that involve an aspect of special teams. He understands the magnitude of the job and I have been fortunate enough to have Jeff Rodgers as a full-time assistant coach. There is a lot to be taught in detail and technique. Coach Nolan's background is definitely a plus for us."

After a decade coaching in the high school and junior college ranks, Mac Duff joined Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980. He moved west to Hawaii in 1984 to run the defensive line and special teams. Under Mac Duff's tutelage, Hawaii produced its first Division I first-team All-American in defensive tackle Al Noga.

An All-American defensive end at Fullerton (CA) Junior College, Mac Duff helped his team earn a national title in 1967. He moved on to Oklahoma in 1968 where he played linebacker for the Sooners, graduating with a degree in physical education in 1970. He later earned a master's degree in physical education from Cal-State Fullerton in 1972. Mac Duff prepped at Sunny Hills High School in Fullerton, CA, where he lettered in football and baseball.

"What I am today as a coach is a combination of working a lot of years with a lot of different people," Mac Duff said. "I have had the opportunity and privilege to work with some great people. They have all contributed to my growth."

Born in Clinton, IA, Mac Duff and his wife, Barbie, have one son, Justin.

Mike Singletary

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSE
4th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Mike Singletary enters his second year with the 49ers and first as the assistant head coach/defense. Singletary was elevated to the post after serving one season as the assistant head coach/linebackers, the position he was named to on January 21, 2005.

A proven teacher who values work ethic and discipline, the 49ers linebackers played well this past season under Singletary's direction. LB Derek Smith led the team with 163 tackles. Additionally, LB Brandon Moore finished second on team with 93 tackles and five sacks in only 10 starts and former 49ers LB Julian Peterson was chosen as a Pro Bowl alternate.

Singletary teamed with 49ers Head Coach Mike Nolan as the Baltimore Ravens inside linebackers coach for two seasons. Players have flourished under his tutelage, including Ray Lewis, who earned 2003 NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. Under Singletary, the inside linebackers at Baltimore finished first and second in tackles in each of his seasons coaching the position. He was also part of a coaching staff that directed the Ravens defense to a third overall finish in 2003 and sixth overall in 2004.

After coaching under Nolan's defensive staff for just two seasons, Singletary's wisdom and commanding respect sent impressionable waves throughout the organization and team. When Nolan took his first head coaching position in San Francisco, Singletary's character was a key cog in forming his coaching staff.

"Mike is one of the best leaders and teachers that I have ever been associated with," Nolan said. "Mike teaches with great passion and great energy; two things that are very important, I think, to being a successful teacher. There are not too many people that command the respect that Mike does the minute he walks into a room.

"In Baltimore, Mike coached possibly the best linebacking corps in the NFL in Ray Lewis, Eddie Hartwell, Terrell Suggs and Peter Boulware. As a player, there are probably way too many things to list on Mike, but two things that stand out to me are his very successful 12-year NFL career and in 1998, his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame."

In 2001, Singletary won the Walter Camp's "Man of the Year Award," based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man. He also co-founded Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training.

Singletary was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998 after a stellar career with the Chicago Bears from 1981-92. He boasted 1,488 career tackles (885 solo), finishing as the Bears' first or second leading tackler each of his last 11 seasons. Singletary was named to the NFL Team of the 80's after being selected to play in a team-record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. The former Bears defensive captain was also named All-Pro eight times (1983-89; 1991), and an All-NFC selection nine consecutive times (1983-91). He also started a defensive team record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only running back Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all-time team lead.

Singletary was drafted in second round of the 1981 NFL Draft from Baylor University.

In addition to his coaching duties for the 49ers, Singletary is a motivational speaker and has authored three books: Singletary One on One, Calling the Shots and Daddy's Home at Last.

Singletary and his wife, Kim, have seven children.

Jerry Sullivan

WIDE RECEIVERS/SENIOR ASSISTANT

15th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Jerry Sullivan enters his second season with the 49ers after being named wide receivers coach/senior assistant January 25, 2005.

Under Sullivan's direction in 2005, WR Arnaz Battle emerged as a multi-purpose threat establishing career-highs in catches (32), yards (363) and touchdowns (3) while opening running lanes with his physical style of blocking.

Sullivan, a 15-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, joined the 49ers after spending the 2004 season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals' coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included WR David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator where he worked with rookie wide receiver WR Anquan Boldin, a second-round draft choice who finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan has coached a multitude of Pro Bowl receivers, including San Diego Chargers WR Anthony Miller (1992-93) and WR Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions WR Herman Moore (1997-98) and WR Germaine Crowell (1999) and Arizona Cardinals WR David Boston (2001) and WR Anquan Boldin (2003).

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers. Following his five-year term in San Diego, Sullivan coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997-2000. Prior to his tenure in the Motor City, he coached on the collegiate level from 1971-91, including stints with Texas Tech, South Carolina, Indiana University, Louisiana State University and Ohio State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, reside in San Jose, CA. The couple has one son, Jon-Eric, who serves as a college scout in the Midwest region as the Green Bay Packers representative for the National Football Scouting Combine. Connie has a daughter, Allison, who resides in Gainesville, FL, and a son, Matthew, who works for Louisiana State.

Duane Carlisle

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

7th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Duane Carlisle enters his second season with San Francisco after being named the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 10, 2005. Carlisle is responsible for directing all of the speed, agility and conditioning programs for every position on the team. Carlisle also assists Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Johnny Parker with the implementation of the 49ers' lifting programs throughout the season. Additionally, Carlisle partners with Team Nutritionist Dr. Suzanne Nelson to implement the team's comprehensive sports nutrition program. He also assists the 49ers' athletic trainers with reconditioning injured players as they prepare to return to the playing field.

During the 2006 off-season, Carlisle and Parker received an overwhelming response to their spring/summer conditioning program – with nearly 100 percent player participation. The 14-week progression of exercises was designed to build muscle size, strength and stamina while keying on position-specific speed and proper nutrition.

Carlisle, the president and founder of Lightning Fast Training Systems, is one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 14 years pushing athletes to perform to their maximum potential.

Carlisle recently served as the speed development consultant for the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-04). He was also the head speed, strength and conditioning coach for the Philadelphia Charge of the Women's United Soccer Association and the speed, strength and conditioning consultant for Major League Lacrosse's New Jersey Pride (2001-2003). Additionally, Carlisle was the speed development coordinator with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1997-98) and as the sprint and jump coach at Penn State University.

He has prepared numerous players for the NFL Combine including Pro Bowlers such as Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook, Kansas City Chiefs RB Priest Holmes, Seattle Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck and former Chicago Bears CB Jerry Azumah. Carlisle has also served as the director of strength and conditioning at the prestigious Lawrenceville Boarding School in Lawrenceville, NJ (2000-04).

Carlisle is a native of Haverhill, MA and was a track and field athlete at the University of Maryland. He graduated in 1989.

Gary Emanuel

DEFENSIVE LINE
2nd NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Gary Emanuel enters his second season as the 49ers defensive line coach after being named to the position February 14, 2005.

In his first season with the team, DE Bryant Young responded with one of his best seasons, leading the team with eight sacks, while adding 43 tackles and 1.5 forced fumbles. He had three multi-sack games. Emanuel also received solid performances from returning DT Anthony Adams and DT Isaac Sopoaga along with newcomer DE Marques Douglas who addded 62 tackles and two fumble recoveries.

Emanuel joined San Francisco after spending eight seasons at Purdue University where he held the position of assistant head coach/defensive ends coach (1997-2004). Prior to joining the Boilermakers, Emanuel spent three seasons at Washington State coaching the defensive line (1994-96) where the Cougars ranked second in the NCAA in total defense (229 yards per game), third in scoring defense (12.1) and third in rush defense (73.8) while leading the Pacific-10 in rushing defense. Emanuel served in a similar capacity for three seasons at Syracuse University tutoring the Orange defensive line (1991-93).

Many of Emanuel's products have gone on to enjoy successful NFL careers including LB Chad Eaton (New England Patriots, Seattle Seahawks), LB Akin Ayodele (Dallas Cowboys) and LB Shaun Philips (San Diego Chargers).

During his 24-year collegiate coaching career, Emanuel spent four training camps as a member of the NFL Minority Fellowship program. Those camps included the Oakland Raiders (2001), Arizona Cardinals (2000), Cleveland Browns (1999) and Chicago Bears (1995). He also spent a training camp with the Buffalo Bills (1992) as part of the Ralph C. Wilson Minority Coaching Fellowship.

Emanuel began his coaching career at his alma mater Plymouth State (1981-84) where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach as well as head coach of the Panthers basketball team (1983-85). Following his time at Plymouth State, Emanuel moved on to West Chester University (1985-86), University of Massachusetts (1986-88) and Dartmouth College (1988-91) before heading to Syracuse in 1991.

Born in Philadelphia, PA, Emanuel was raised in New London, Connecticut, and received a bachelor's degree in 1982 from Plymouth State College.

Emanuel and his wife, Angela, reside in San Jose, CA.

Pep Hamilton

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/QUARTERBACKS
4th NFL Season, 1st with 49ers

Pep Hamilton enters his first sesason with the 49ers as the team's offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach after being named to the positon on March 6, 2006. He will assist offensive coordinator Norv Turner and quarterbacks coach Jim Hostler with game planning, playbook implementation and player development.

Hamilton spent the last three seasons with the New York Jets. He orginally served as the Jets offensive quality control coach in 2003. In 2004, he was elevated to offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach where he was charged with the responsibility of acclimating unrestricted free agent QB Quincy Carter to the Jets' offensive system. With Hamilton's tutelage, Carter led the team to a 2-1 record in his three started with the Jets. In 2005, Hamilton focused solely on mentoring the Jets' wide receivers, helping Laveranues Coles snag 73 catches for 845 yards (11.6 avg.) with five touchdowns to rank 14th among top receivers in the AFC.

Prior to joining the Jets, Hamilton served as an intern with three other teams in the NFL. He spent the 2002 summer as a pro scout/player personnel intern with Baltimore, the 2001 summer as an offensive coaching intern with the Washington Redskins and the 2000 summer with Kansas City in the same capacity.

He first joined the coaching ranks in 1997 at his alma mater Howard University. Hamilton served as quarterbacks coach from 1997-2000 and then served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach from 2000-02.

Hamilton earned the scholar-athlete award two consecutive years (1995-96) as a quarterback at Howard. He graduated with a business degree in 1997.

Hamilton and his wife reside in Santa Clara with their son and daughter.

Bishop Harris

RUNNING BACKS
13th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Bishop Harris enters his second season as the 49ers running backs coach. He was named to his position February 21, 2005.

In his first season with the team, Harris' young running backs corps made tremendous strides in both the run game and as solid blockers. RB Frank Gore led all rookie rushers in the NFL in average yards per carry (4.8). Gore also paced the team with 608 rushing yards, becoming the first 49ers rookie to lead the team in rushing since 1990. RB Kevan Barlow added 581 yards and three touchdowns and RB Maurice Hicks led the 49ers with a 5.2-yard per carry average while adding three scores.

Harris joined the 49ers after four successful seasons as the New York Jets running backs coach. In New York, Harris rallied RB Curtis Martin to his last four 1,000-yard seasons since his arrival in 2001, including Martin's personal record of 1,697 yards in 2004. Harris previously served as running backs coach from 1998-99 for the Buffalo Bills. At Buffalo, Harris helped FB Sam Gash make consecutive Pro Bowl appearances and helped guide RB Antowain Smith to his best season as a pro, picking up his first 1,000-yard season in 1998. He also tutored probable Hall of Fame RB Thurman Thomas during his final two seasons of a 12-year career with the Bills.

Harris served in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders from 1995-97 and the Denver Broncos from 1993-94. In Oakland, Harris directed two rushers to 1,000-plus rushing seasons (RB Harvey Williams and RB Napoleon Kaufman 1,294 yards in 1996). With the Broncos, Harris worked with the versatile Rod Bernstine, helping him excel in both his running and receiving game.

Harris coached on the collegiate level at Duke (1972-75) and was an assistant at North Carolina State (1977-79) before serving on the staff at LSU (1980-83). He moved to Notre Dame (1984-85) and then was a member of the University of Minnesota's coaching staff (1986-90), serving first as the linebacker coach and then as running backs/assistant head coach for the following three seasons.

Harris was named the head coach at his alma mater, North Carolina Central, in 1991 and held that role through the 1992 season. He was an All-Conference defensive back at NCCU from 1960-63 and earned his master's degree in Education from Duke.

Pete Hoener

TIGHT ENDS
8th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Pete Hoener enters his second season with the 49ers after being named tight ends coach on February 16, 2005.

In 2006, Hoener will play a key role in helping to develop the 49ers first round (sixth pick overall) draft selection, Vernon Davis, into a productive play-making NFL tight end.

Last season, Hoener's unit suffered some critical injuries, most notably to TE Eric Johnson, who set a record for most catches by a 49ers tight end during the previous season. Hoener prepared four different starting combinations for action, including TE Billy Bajema, TE Steve Bush, TE Terry Jones and TE Trent Smith.

Hoener joined San Francisco after spending the 2004 season as the offensive line coach of the Chicago Bears. Under Hoener, the Bears offensive line went through seven starting combinations in 2004, but featured Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz. Hoener's offensive line paved the way for RB Thomas Jones to establish 948 rushing yards.

Prior to his stint with Chicago, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as both the offensive line coach (2003) and tight ends coach (2001-02). Hoener broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1985-86), tutoring the tight ends while working alongside Jim Hanifan.

In addition to his eight years of NFL experience, Hoener chalks up over 25 years of college coaching knowledge, including 15 as an offensive coordinator. His coaching stops include Texas A&M (2000), Iowa State (1998-99), Texas Christian (1991-97), Purdue (1989-91), Illinois (1986-88), Indiana State (1978-84), Illinois State (1977) and Missouri (1975-76).

Hoener played football and earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University (1974).

Jim Hostler

QUARTERBACKS
7th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Jim Hostler enters his second season as 49ers quarterbacks coach. He was named to the position February 1, 2005.

Hostler served as the primary tutor to 2005 first overall draft pick QB Alex Smith. Smith started seven games in 2005 and led the 49ers to back-to-back victories to close out the 2005 campaign. Quarterbacks Tim Rattay, Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also logged starting duties for the team in 2005.

Hostler joined San Francisco after spending two seasons with the New York Jets as the team's wide receivers coach (2004) and quarterbacks coach (2003). He joined the Jets after serving as an offensive assistant/quality control coach and assistant wide receivers coach (2001-02) for the New Orleans Saints. Hostler began his NFL coaching career with the Kansas City Chiefs as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2000).

Over his seven-year NFL run, Hostler has helped tutor a lineage of talents including QB Chad Pennington, QB Vinny Testaverde, WR Santana Moss, WR Wayne Chrebet and WR Justin McCareins with the Jets. He also coached 2002 first-round draft selection WR Donte Stallworth as a member of the Saints coaching staff.

Hostler cut his coaching teeth at his alma mater Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). He spent nine seasons at IUP and helped the Indians qualify for the NCAA Division II playoffs five times, including one trip to the National Championship game (1990). As a member of the IUP coaching staff, Hostler served in a number of capacities, including time as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999), linebackers coach (1997-98) and running backs coach (1990-92, 1994-96). Hostler also spent the 1993 campaign as the offensive coordinator at Juniata (Pa.) College.

A four-year standout at IUP (1986-89), Hostler was a four-year letter winner and two-time all conference selection at cornerback. He also helped the Indians capture two Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference titles and three trips to the Division II playoffs while compiling a 38-9 record.

Hostler and his wife Jen have two sons, Clint and Grant, and a daugher Attie.

Vance Joseph

SECONDARY COACH
2nd NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Vance Joseph enters his second season in San Francisco and first as secondary coach with the 49ers after being named the secondary assistant on February 17, 2005. He will share the secondary duties with Johnnie Lynn.

In 2005, Joseph had to juggle the starting lineup due to multiple injuries. CB Shawntae Spencer had a career year after tying for a team-lead four interceptions, 14 passes defensed and 76 tackles. S Mike Adams also had the best year of his career with 68 tackles, one sack and four interceptions. He also prepped three players in the secondary who weren't with the 49ers during training camp. Each one went on to see action as starting reserves by season's end.

Joseph joined San Francisco after spending 2004 as the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University (2004). He joined Bowling Green after working in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, for two seasons (2002-03). Joseph also had a brief stint as the secondary coach at Wyoming (2002). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant for the Buffaloes (1999-01).

Joseph lettered three times during his five-year (1990-94) collegiate career at CU as a quarterback. Joseph was a true freshman who saw action on Colorado's 1990 National Championship team.

Joseph signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 1995 where he made the transition from quarterback to defensive back. He played 17 NFL games with the Jets and Indianapolis Colts over the course of two seasons. Joseph finished his career with two interceptions.

Born and raised in Marrero, La., Joseph received a bachelor's degree in marketing in 1994 from Colorado.

Johnnie Lynn

SECONDARY COACH
13th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Johnnie Lynn enters his 13th NFL campaign after being named the 49ers secondary coach on February 14, 2006. He will share the secondary duties with Vance Joseph.

It marks the second time in Lynn's coaching career that he has tutored the 49ers defensive backs unit, his first was in 1996.

Lynn previously served as secondary coach of the Baltimore Ravens in 2004 and 2005. Lynn spent the 2004 season under Head Coach Mike Nolan when he served as the defensive coordinator for the Ravens. That season, the Ravens secondary unit accounted for six of the team's seven defensive touchdowns. Lynn also coached two Ravens defensive backs to earn starting Pro Bowl nods—SS Ed Reed and CB Chris McAlister. Lynn also tutored CB Chad Williams, who he reunites with in 2006 as Williams joined the 49ers during the off-season.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Lynn spent seven seasons with the New York Giants, serving for five seasons (1997-01) as secondary coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator, the Giants stingy defense ranked third in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing only 17.4 points per game. The Giants also finished ninth in total yardage defnese (309.3 ypg) and ninth in passing defense (194.9 ypg). While Lynn mentored the defensive backs, the team consistently had one of the NFL's best pass defenses. One came in the 2000 NFC Championship Game, when the Giants limited Cris Carter, Randy Moss and the Vikings to just five catches for 60 yards. Lynn was also instrucmental in helping to develop a throng of talented defensive backs including Will Allen, William Peterson, Shaun Williams and Jason Sehorn to name a few.

Prior to coaching defensive backs for the 49ers in 1996, Lynn served as the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995. Before moving into the NFL coaching ranks, Lynn served in a number of coaching capacities at the University of Arizona from 1987-93. He started as the Wildcats as a graduate assistant in 1987, and was elevated to outside linebackers coach (1988-91) before taking over the defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn enjoyed an eight-year NFL career (1979-86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety. He originally joined the Jets as a fourth-round draft pick out of UCLA. He ended his career 10th on the Jets career interception list with 17 interceptions.

A four-year letterman at UCLA, Lynn played on four bowl teams and garnered All-Pacific 10 honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in history.

Lynn and his wife Laurie are the parents of three children: Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

Johnny Parker

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
19th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Johnny Parker enters his second season with the 49ers as strength and conditioning coach after being named to his position February 14, 2005.

The success of Parker's weight, cardio and nutrition programs play a crucial role in Head Coach Mike Nolan's overall philosophy about the importance of the team's physical ability and group unity. During the 2006 off-season, Parker's 14-week program that was designed to build strength, stamina and focus on position-specific speed and proper nutrition yielded nearly 100 percent player participation.

Parker, a 19-year NFL coaching veteran, joins San Francisco after spending two seasons in the private sector following a year with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002) in which the Buccaneers captured their first Super Bowl title. He began his NFL career in 1984 with the New York Giants (1984-92) prior to joining the New England Patriots (1993-99). As a member of Bill Parcells' staff, Parker helped guide the Giants to appearances in Super Bowls XXI and XXV and the Patriots to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. Parker has participated in the Super Bowl on every professional team he has worked. He has been a part of three Super Bowl Championship teams and one runner-up.

Following the 1994 season in New England, the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society named Parker the recipient of their President's Award, presented annually to the top strength and conditioning coach in the NFL.

Parker began his coaching career at Indianola Academy as linebackers coach (1969-73) prior to entering the collegiate ranks at the University of South Carolina as the Gamecocks strength and conditioning coach (1974-76). Following his time at South Carolina, Parker spent time at Indiana University (1977-79), Louisiana State (1980) and his alma mater University of Mississippi (1981-83) prior to joining Parcells and the Giants in 1984.

Born in Greenville, South Carolina, Parker was raised in Shaw, Mississippi and received a bachelor's degree in 1968 from Ole Miss. Parker also received a master's degree from Delta State.

Jeff Rodgers

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

4th NFL Season, 4th with 49ers

Jeff Rodgers enters his second season as the 49ers assistant special teams coach. Rodgers previously served two seasons as special teams quality control coach in San Francisco and continues to work directly with special teams coordinator Larry Mac Duff.

Under Mac Duff and Rodgers in 2005, K Joe Nedney returned to a high level after battling injuries during the 2004 season, connecting on 26-of-28 field goals. He also was NFC Special Teams Player of Week after his five field goal performance against Tampa Bay. The 49ers special teams performed well as a unit, finishing third in kickoff coverage in 2005.

In 2004, TE/LS Brian Jennings was named as the "need player" for the Pro Bowl. Additionally, P Andy Lee fared well after being named to several All-Rookie publications in 2004.

Rodgers joined the 49ers staff from the University of Arizona, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on defense, working with the secondary in 2001 and the flex linebackers in 2002.

Rodgers played four seasons at linebacker for the University of North Texas. He earned his degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management, in 2000. Rodgers prepped at Westlake High School in Austin, TX.

Born in St. Paul, MN, Rodgers is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

Robert Talley

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

Robert Talley enters his second season with the 49ers as the special assistant to the head coach. Talley was named to the position March 19, 2005.

In his role, Talley assists the offensive coaching staff as well as Head Coach Mike Nolan. During his first season in San Francisco, Talley concentrated on preparation in the passing game. In 2006, Talley will assist offensive line coach George Warhop in teaching skills and schemes in the trenches.

Talley joined the 49ers coaching staff after spending eight years on the Dartmouth staff where he served as the team's defensive coordinator (2000-04) and defensive backs coach (1997-04). During that span, he was also part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during the summer months. He spent the 1998 summer assisting the defensive line in Jacksonville, helped with defensive backs in Chicago in 1999, spent the summer of 2000 assisting the defensive line in Minnesota, 2002 in the same capacity with the New England Patriots, and was with the New York Giants in 2004 helping the defensive line.

Prior to his eight-year stint at Dartmouth, Talley led the linebackers at Colby College in Waterville, ME, where he was also involved with the program's scouting, recruiting and strength and conditioning programs during the 1996 campaign.

Talley began his coaching career at the University of Massachusetts in 1991, where he worked with the defensive backfield and special teams. From 1992-94, he took over as the outside linebackers and specials teams coordinator. In 1995, he served as the defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator.

A two-time All-America defensive back at Boston University, Talley was co-captain of the Terriers' football squad his senior season in 1990. Talley was named to the All-Yankee Conference team three times and set the BU record for career tackles.

Born in New York City, NY, Talley grew up in Staten Island, NY and went on to play as a quarterback and defensive back for Curtis (Staten Island, NY) High School.

Talley and his wife, Sarah, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Jason Tarver

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

6th NFL Season, 6th with 49ers

Jason Tarver enters his sixth season with the 49ers and will continue to serve in his second season as the defensive assistant/outside linebackers coach. Tarver spent his first three seasons with the 49ers as an offensive quality control coach before becoming the assistant running backs/offensive assistant coach in 2004.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Santa Clara Broncos cut their program.

After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley College in 1996-97.

Born in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver and his wife, Katie, reside in San Jose, CA.

George Warhop

OFFENSIVE LINE
11th NFL Season, 2nd with 49ers

George Warhop enters his second season as the 49ers offensive line coach. He was named to the position January 31, 2005.

Warhop's offensive line improved each week as the season progressed as evidenced by the 49ers 217 and 182 rushing yards in the team's two victories to close the 2005 season. G/C Eric Heitmann played every snap in 2005 to go along with a formidable line that included 2005 draft picks G David Baas, T Adam Synder matched with G Justin Smiley and T Kwame Harris. T Jonas Jennings and C Jeremy Newberry look to make strides after suffering injuries in 2005. Warhop also reunites with a familiar face in future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen who played under the him at Dallas from 2003-04.

Warhop joined San Francisco after spending two seasons with the Dallas Cowboys. In his two seasons with the Cowboys, Warhop's offensive line helped account for 3,768 rushing yards, 25 rushing touchdowns and 216 first downs. Under Warhop's tutelage, T Flozell Adams earned his first Pro Bowl nod after the 2003 season, and was named by his NFL peers as first alternate in 2004. Allen, his teammate in the trenches, was also named to the Pro Bowl during Warhop's stretch in 2003 and 2004 for his outstanding perfomance at guard after missing the all-star game in Hawaii in 2002.

Prior to his stint with Dallas, he spent five seasons as the offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals. During his five years with the Cardinals offensive line, Warhop tutored a group who was able to steadily decline the quarterback sacks allowed from the 78 surrendered in 1997 before his arrival, to 50 (1998), 45 (1999), 35 (2000) to 29 (2001). The latter was the second-fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season, trailing only the 22-sack effort of the 1978 line. Largely because of Warhop and his troops' work, Arizona averaged 4.5 yards per carry on the ground, the tenth-best per carry average in the league and the team's highest average in 17 seasons.

In 1998, his first season with the Cardinals, Warhop's linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season. Warhop's first Cardinals' line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the previous two seasons (eight in 1996 and nine in 1997).

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Warhop spent the 1996-97 campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams, working with Jim Hanifan. Warhop was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1993 and then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994-95. From 1991-92, he was the offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League, helping the team win the World Bowl in his first season.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, and then served on the offensive staffs at Kansas (1984-86), Vanderbilt (1987-89) and New Mexico (1990-91).

Warhop and his wife, Lori, have a daughter, Olivia, and a son, Jacob.

Paraag Marathe

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Paraag Marathe enters his sixth season with the 49ers and second as director of football operations. Previously, he spent one season as assistant to the general manager and three seasons as special projects manager in the 49ers personnel and football operations departments.

In his current role, Marathe is the club's chief contract negotiator and coordinates its compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement. He is also responsible for the management of the club's salary cap as well as multi-year forecasting at both the individual club and league level. Marathe serves as the liaison with the team's business office and CFO with regards to player compensation.

In his time with the 49ers, Marathe has developed new systems within football operations to better understand and predict market trends on player contracts and their salary cap ramifications. He has also developed new methods and systems for evaluating and acquiring players for the College Draft and at the NFL professional level. He also manages the club's research and development efforts and assists with budgeting for various football administrative departments.

Marathe also frequently conducts special assignments within both the business and football sides of the organization for Owner John York and Head Coach Mike Nolan.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999-01 as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, leveraged buyout, software, retail, sports footwear and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the corporate consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG) from 1997-99, where he concentrated primarily on stadium naming rights deals and corporate sponsorships.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley and received his master's in business administration (MBA) from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe and his wife, Naya, reside in Sunnyvale, CA.

Terry Tumey

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

With an extensive background in football and advanced experience in business, Terry Tumey enters his second season as the director of football administration. He enters the position after excelling in his role as assistant director of football administration for the previous two years.

Tumey is responsible for planning and managing the finances for the football administration department, including the scouting and coaching budgeting, training room, video department, equipment room, strength and conditioning, travel and training camp. He also assists in contract negotiations and works with the management team with respect to the salary cap and compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement. He is also a key liaison with the groups that comprise the NFL Management Council.

Tumey is responsible for the coordination of the team's general football activities from inter-club communication to league-level issues such as the coordination of NFL Europe and non-player football contracts.

After spending two years as a personnel assistant (2001-02) with the 49ers, evaluating talent and scouting opponents, Tumey was elevated to assistant director of football administration in March, 2003.

Tumey's experience in business is substantial, having worked as senior associate for Coopers & Lybrand (1993-94), where he analyzed and advised on corporate relocation strategies among many other duties. He served as a capital planning manager for Panda Management Company in Pasadena (1994-95), developing marketing plans and analyzing the viability of potential restaurant sites.

From 1988-90, Tumey gained experience in real estate as an assistant project manager for Griffin Homes in Calabasas (1988-89) and as project manager with Crescent Bay Company in Santa Monica (1989-90).

Prior to coming to San Francisco in 2001, Tumey spent two years as a defensive assistant coach (1999-00) for the Denver Broncos. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, UCLA, in 1992 and later joined the Bruins staff full-time in 1995, serving as the defensive line coach for four years (1995-98).

A three-time All-Pacific-10 first-team choice as a nose guard at UCLA (1985-87), Tumey helped the Bruins win four bowl games, compile a record of 36-10-2 and finish ranked in the top-10 three times during his four-year career.

Tumey earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1988 and returned to UCLA's Andersen School of Business where he received a master's in business administration in 1993.

A native of Tulsa, OK, Tumey and his family reside in Piedmont, CA.

David McCloughan

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

David McCloughan enters his second season with the 49ers overseeing the club's college scouting department. In 2004, Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan recruited David, his older brother, from across the Bay where he spent the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the Oakland Raiders.

David and Scot inherited their love of football and scouting from their father Kent, who played as a defensive back for five years at Oakland before becoming a college scout for nearly three decades with the Raiders.

David joined his father in Oakland when his own professional football career as a defensive back was ended prematurely due to an ankle injury. He then scouted college talent around the country for nearly a decade with the Raiders.

McCloughan was drafted out of the University of Colorado in 1999 with the Indianapolis Colts' 69th pick overall in the NFL Draft. He went on to play four seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis, Green Bay and Seattle.

He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Colorado and led the nation in punt returns as a senior with a 16.4-yard average. The high school running back standout, who was converted to defensive back at Colorado, also earned first team All-Big Eight honors as a junior and a first team All-Academic accolades as a sophomore in his new position. He was also a member of the 1990 Colorado National Championship team.

A native of Loveland, CO, McCloughan graduated with a degree in marketing and attended Loveland (CO) High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track.

McCloughan and his wife, JoDee, have two sons.

Tom Gamble

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In his 19th NFL season, Tom Gamble enters his second year with the 49ers overseeing the club's pro personnel department. In his role, Gamble monitors every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents. He is also responsible for maintaining continuous depth and personnel on the 49ers roster.

Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as an area scout for the Indianapolis Colts for seven seasons under Bill Polian.

He worked in 1997 as a part-time college scout for the Carolina Panthers while dueling as a pro scout with the Baltimore Ravens. Gamble entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as an area scout, handling contract negotiations, and later served as Director of Pro Scouting. He served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets in 1995-96.

Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point in 1987 and an M.S. from Rowan University in 1988.

Gamble grew up in a football family where his father Harry served as the head coach at both the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. He would later become the former President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gamble and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Mathew.

Trent Baalke

AREA SCOUT

Trent Baalke enters his second season with the 49ers and ninth season in the NFL as he scouts the Western region for San Francisco.

Baalke joined San Francisco as an area scout after serving four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, his last (2004) as the club's college scouting coordinator. He joined the Redskins in 2001 and spent three seasons as Washington's national scout, traveling throughout the country in search of rising talent.

Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

He previously held the position as the athletic director at Shanley (Fargo, ND) High School. Before his stint at Shanley, Baalke was the defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State (1990-95) where he helped promote current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri's talent to NFL scouts.

He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach in 1989 for North Dakota State, helping the squad finish with a 14-0 record and Division II National Championship. He was instrumental in campaigning for one of his players to join the professional ranks—defensive lineman Phil Hansen—who went on to play 11 seasons for the Buffalo Bills.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was a two-time All-Northern Sun Conference and an All-Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji.

Trent and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katlynn and Cassie. The family resides in Loveland, CO.

Roylin Bradley

AREA SCOUT

Roylin Bradley enters his second season with the 49ers as the club's scout throughout the Midland region.

Just prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Bradley worked for AltairStrickland in Texas City, TX. Bradley also served as a substitute teacher, mentoring at the middle school and high school level within his former institution, LaMarque (TX) High School.

Bradley spent the 2004 summer as an intern with the Seattle Seahawks scouting department under Scot McCloughan after returning from a one-season stint in 2003 with the Canadian Football League where he was a linebacker for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

After a successful span (1997-2001) at linebacker for Texas A&M, Bradley spent 2001 training camp with both the Philadelphia Eagles and Seattle Seahawks and also spent time in training camp in 2002 with the New Orleans Saints.

Bradley played defensive end and fullback for LaMarque (TX) High School where he received All-State and Player of the Year honors in the state of Texas in 1995 and '96. He also ran the 400 meters for LaMarque's track team.

Bradley resides in LaMarque, TX where he was born and raised.

Todd Brunner

AREA SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his seventh season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout where he combed the Northeast region in 1999 for college talent. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout covering the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh University, where he lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. Following his football career at Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple in 1991 and earned his Master's degree.

Brunner comes from a football family as his father John coached at Temple, Villanova, Princeton and in the NFL ranks with Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay and Minnesota before scouting for the 49ers for 13 seasons. His brother Scott spent time in the NFL with the New York Giants.

Born in Middletown, NY, Brunner and his wife, Nancy, reside in Robbinsville, NJ with their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and son, Chad Joseph.

Justin Chabot

AREA SCOUT

Justin Chabot is in his third season with the 49ers as a regional scout. Previously, Chabot spent five years as Director of Football Operations at Northwestern. As part of his role with the Wildcats, Chabot served as the pro liaison to visiting college talent scouts from the NFL. Chabot was extremely familiar with Northwestern's football program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot tallied 41 career starts on the line for Northwestern, including the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl. A four-year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first-team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches his senior year. He was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 1993.

Born in Washington, D.C., Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

Chabot resides in Baton Rouge, LA.

Quentus Cumby

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Quentus Cumby enters his first season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's pro personnel assistant.

In his role, Cumby will assist the pro scouting department in their evaluation of NFL talent. Cumby is responsible for maintaining current NFL roster boards, depth charts and will coordinate player tryouts and visits to the 49ers facility. Cumby will also serve as the 49ers weekly advance scout for the personnel and coaching staffs.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Cumby was a physical education teacher at Ben Franklin Intermediate in Daly City, CA during the 2005-06 term. He began his teaching career in the fall of 2005 after spending the summer as an intern with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department under Ted Thompson and Reggie McKenzie.

In 2003, Cumby was invited to participate in training camp by the Packers as a free agent safety. One year later, he spent the summer of 2004 playing the position in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Cumby played football and ran track at Cleburne (TX) High School where he was an all-state free safety in 1999. He went on to earn a football scholarship at the University Kentucky where he was a two-year starter at free safety and corner from 1999-02. He graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

Cumby resides in Sunnyvale, CA.

Oscar Lofton

AREA SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers scouting staff in 1992, enters his 15th season with the club as a regional scout. Lofton concentrates on identifying college talent across the Southeast and South Central regions of the United States.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High School (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966 and returned in 1979 to serve as the Lions' athletic director and later, head football coach (1980-85).

Loften played three seasons (1960-61 and '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while serving in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons, Kelly, Andy and Kyle, and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

Matt Malaspina

AREA SCOUT

Matt Malaspina enters his second season with the 49ers as an area scout after spending five years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. During that span, Malaspina was part of 49ers Vice President of Player Personnel Scot McCloughan's staff when he headed the Seahawks' college scouting department.

He landed in the Northwest after spending 1999 with the Carolina Panthers where he evaluated college players in the northeast region. Prior to his time with the Panthers, he served one season with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was also an assistant offensive coach at Jacksonville University from 1997-98. He entered college coaching in 1997 as an intern at his alma mater, the University of Central Florida. A 1993 graduate of Central Florida, Malaspina had a brief playing career as a center for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, playing in 1994 and attending training camp in 1995.

Malaspina and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Chuluota, FL with their son, Carson.

Ethan Waugh

PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT/ COLLEGE SCOUTING ADMINISTRATOR

Ethan Waugh is in his third season as a player personnel assistant for the San Francisco 49ers. His duties include assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He also works extensively with the 49ers college scouting database.

Waugh joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Prior to his time in Bloomington, Waugh was an assistant at Western Carolina from 1997-01 where he worked with linebackers, defensive ends, tight ends and special teams. He also worked with the running backs during the 2000-01 seasons.

Waugh grew up in Vernon Hills, IL and attended Lake Forest College, lettering two seasons as a defensive back before transferring to Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. A 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history, he lettered as a quarterback and as a receiver. He earned a master's degree in American history from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh grew up in a football family—his father, Maury, was his head coach at Lake Forest and is currently coaching at the University of St. Francis in Fort Wayne, IN. Waugh's brother Tucker is the wide receivers coach at Stanford and his second brother, Adam, tutors safeties at Army.

He and his wife, Allison, reside in Santa Clara, CA with their son, Spencer.

Mike Adams

Ht: 5-11, Wt: 195, Born: 3-24-81
College: University of Delaware
3rd Year (FA in '04)
Games/Starts: 2005-14/10; Career-22/10

Free Safety 20

CAREER: Scrappy, determined player with a nose for making game-changing plays…Had career year in 2005 where he tied for the TEAM LEAD with four interceptions…Versatility has enabled him to start at both safety and cornerback…Speedy cover man with ample size who has impressive ball-hawking skills…Stepped into action from the practice squad and provided depth and playmaking ability to an injured 49ers secondary in 2004.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by San Francisco on April 28, 2004…Waived by San Francisco on September 4, 2004…Signed to the San Francisco practice squad on September 6, 2004...Signed by San Francisco to the 53-man roster from the practice squad on November 13, 2004.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005:

- Played in 14 games, and started in a CAREER-HIGH 10 contests, including nine at free safety and one at left cornerback.
- Tied for TEAM LEAD with Shawntae Spencer with CAREER-HIGH four interceptions.
- Established CAREER-HIGHS in tackles (68), forced fumbles (1) and sacks (1.0)
- Saw extensive action at defensive back in nickel packages, finishing with three solo tackles, one sack for five-yard loss and one game-saving interception in final minute vs. St. Louis (9-11) to preserve 28-25 win.
- Finished with two solo tackles at safety, along with three special team stops and forced fumble at Philadelphia (9-18).
- Made FIRST CAREER START, playing free safety after playing first three games as a nickel defensive back at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2) when CB Mike Rumph was placed on injured reserve with a foot injury. Moved from corner to safety during week leading up to game.
- Started at free safety and registered seven solo tackles while also recovering an Edgerrin James fumble in end zone to save touchdown vs. Indianapolis (10-9).
- Started and led team with nine tackles (seven solo) at Washington (10-23).
- Started and recorded four tackles (two solo) vs. Arizona (12-4) and intercepted a QB Kurt Warner pass intended for Anquan Boldin right before halftime at the 49ers 15-yard line.
- Inactive at Seattle (12-18) and Jacksonville (12-18) due to a knee sprain and was replaced at free safety by Keith Lewis who also started at St. Louis (12-24).
- Made first NFL start at left cornerback vs. Houston (1-1-06), when injuries to CB Bruce Thornton (knee) and CB Derrick Johnson (neck) forced 49ers coaches to shuffle the secondary. Scored FIRST-CAREER NFL touchdown on 40-yard interception in the third quarter. Intercepted second pass and lateraled to S Ben Emanuel to set up 49ers game-winning field goal.

- Saw action in eight games after being signed from practice squad to 53-man roster.
- Finished season with four tackles (two solo), one interception, one fumble recovery and five special teams tackles.
- Recovered fumble on special teams vs. Carolina (11-14).
- Registered two tackles (one solo), FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION and one assisted special teams tackle vs. Miami (11-28).
- Saw action on special teams and at cornerback at St. Louis (12-5).
- Tallied two special teams tackles (one solo) vs. Buffalo (12-26).

COLLEGE:

- Started 23-of-43 career games at the University of Delaware.
- Posted 213 tackles, 11 interceptions and 14 passes defensed. 11 interceptions rank 11th all-time in school history.
- Earned second team All-Atlantic 10 honors as a senior, registering 70 tackles (39 solo), four interceptions, six passes defensed, 2.5 tackles for loss and one blocked field goal.
- Started all 10 games at strong safety as a junior, posting 63 tackles, three tackles for loss, three passes defensed, one forced fumble and three interceptions (eight yards).
- Appeared in six games with one start freshman year.

PERSONAL:

- Born Michael Carl Adams (3-24-81) in Paterson, NJ.
- Prepped at Passaic Tech (Paterson, NJ) High School.
- Nicknamed "Pops" by grandmother.
- Earned All-State honors and was one of top 100 players in New Jersey. Was also an All-Area, All-Passaic County and second-team All-State selection as a senior.
- Lettered in track and baseball.
- Single. Resides in Paterson, NJ.

LUCKY SEVEN

Growing up in Paterson, NJ, Mike understood the sacrifice and determination needed to achieve a career as a professional football player. He was the second-oldest of seven children that grew up together on welfare in a three-bedroom apartment with his grandmother and mother. "We only had one television, so we had to watch television in one-hour shifts," Mike said. He was a 165-pound quarterback who later blossomed into a standout college player at the University of Delaware before signing a free agent contract in San Francisco. Active in 49ers community service program, Mike feels he can use his upbringing to make a positive impact on others.

Larry Allen

Ht: 6-3, Wt: 325, Born: 11-27-71
College: Sonoma State
13th Year (FA in '06)
Games/Starts: 2005-16/16; Career-176/170; Postseason-10/10

Guard 71

CAREER: Member of the NFL'S ALL-DECADE TEAM for the 1990's who has long been widely recognized as one of the NFL's premier offensive linemen...In 12 NFL seasons since being drafted out of Sonoma State, Allen has been named to the PRO BOWL 10 times...He has also been named ALL-PRO seven times, six times at guard (1995-97, 1999-01) and once at tackle (1998)...With his Pro Bowl selection at tackle in 1998, he became just the third player in league history to be selected to the Pro Bowl at more than one offensive line position during his career, joining Bruce Matthews of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans (guard/center) and Chris Hinton of the Atlanta Falcons/Indianapolis Colts/Minnesota Vikings (guard/tackle)...Has played all but one position along the offensive line in 11 seasons in Dallas, moving between right tackle (1994), right guard (1995-97), left tackle (1997-98) and left guard (1999-03)...With a career-best bench press of 700 pounds and a squat lift of 905 pounds, Allen is also considered to be the strongest man to ever play professional football.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second round (46th pick overall) draft choice by Dallas...Released by Dallas on March 21, 2005...Signed by San Francisco as a free agent from Dallas on March 24, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: (With Dallas)

- Named to his 10th PRO BOWL in 2005.
- Played every offensive snap for Dallas in 2005, starting all 16 contests at left guard.
- Started 11th season as a full-time starter and his seventh consecutive season opener at left guard at San Diego (9-11). Helped Dallas offense rack up 28 points and 301 yards of total offense.
- Started vs. Philadelphia (10-9) and helped Dallas offense accumulate season-high 456 yards of total offense.
- Blocking helped QB Drew Bledsoe complete 26-of-37 passes for 312 yards vs. New York Giants (10-16).
- Helped running game amass 164 yards at a 4.2 yard-per-carry clip at Seattle (10-23).
- Helped lead way as RB Marion Barber rushed for 127 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries vs. Arizona (10-30).
- Part of offensive line that allowed Bledsoe time to throw for 332 yards and three touchdowns while the running game picked up 129 yards and a score on the ground vs. Kansas City (12-11). The 445 yards of total offense was the second-best of the season.
- Run blocking allowed RB Julius Jones to rush for 194 yards, the fourth-best performance in club history at Carolina (12-24). The Dallas offense racked up 22 first downs, 394 total yards—including a season-best 214 rushing—and 24 points in the come-from-behind win.

2004: (With Dallas)

- For the eighth time in 11 NFL seasons, Allen started all 16 games, and for the ninth time, he was an NFC PRO BOWL selection at guard.
- In the season opener at Minnesota (9-12), Allen's blocking helped the Dallas offense rack up 423 yards of total offense.
- In the home opening win vs. Cleveland (9-19), the Cowboys totaled a season-high 441 total yards, and Vinny Testaverde threw for 322 yards with only one sack in 36 passes. The Cowboys also ran for 126 yards against the Browns.
- Helped the Dallas running game collect 166 yards on the day against the New York Giants (10-10).
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Chicago (11-25), Allen was part of a line that paved the way for Jones to rush for 150 yards.
- In the Monday night win at Seattle (12-6), the Dallas line's blocking opened holes for Jones to run for 198 yards, the third-best rushing day in club history and the second-best ever by a Cowboys rookie.
- In the season ending loss at New York Giants (1-2-05), the Dallas line closed the year by opening holes for Jones to rush for 149 yards on 29 carries (5.1 avg.) and a touchdown.

2003: (With Dallas)

- Bounced back after missing most of 2002 season with sprained left ankle that required off-season surgery to remove bone spurs. Returned and started all 16 regular season games and playoff game at Carolina (1-3-04).
- Despite missing parts of four games with injuries, Allen returned to form and was honored for play with eighth PRO BOWL selection at guard.
- Began season by straining hamstring in practice four days before season opener.
- Still started vs. Atlanta (9-7), but aggravated hamstring in second quarter and sat out remainder of half before coming back for second half as offense rolled up 403 total yards.
- Played at New York Giants (9-15) and helped QB Quincy Carter throw for 321 yards in leading Dallas to come-from-behind overtime victory.
- Suffered sprained left knee in second quarter vs. Arizona (10-5) but returned in second half to help Dallas total 365 yards of offense.
- Despite playing sporadically vs. Washington (11-2) due to a sprained left knee suffered in the first quarter, helped Cowboys rack up 400 yards of total offense, including 208 rushing yards.
- Helped shut out DT Kris Jenkins while Dallas line allowed only one sack for zero yards in 45 pass plays vs. Carolina (11-23).
- Paved way for Troy Hambrick to run for 189 yards vs. Washington (12-14).

2002: (With Dallas)

- Had challenging season of injuries. Fought through off-season surgery and nagging early season ankle sprain that limited him to five starts on season between left guard and right tackle.
- Due to off-season rotator cuff surgery on left shoulder, was limited in training camp and saw action in just final two preseason games.
- Entering the regular season, was selected an offensive captain by teammates.
- Sprained left ankle in second quarter against Tennessee (9-15). Attempted to return in second half but lasted just two plays before returning to sideline.
- Inactive at Philadelphia (9-22) due to ankle injury.

- Moved to right tackle during practice week leading up to St. Louis game (9-29) and opened game at that position before re-aggravating sprained left ankle. Left game in the first quarter.
- Returned to starting lineup at right tackle vs. New York Giants (10-6) but came out during first drive after aggravating left ankle. Battled pain and was in and out of game in second half at left guard for Kelvin Garmon who suffered hip injury.
- Following trade of Garmon to San Diego, Allen returned to left guard vs. Carolina (10-13) but left game in second quarter with ankle pain.
- Inactive next three games to let injury heal.
- Returned to practice week vs. Indianapolis (11-17) but was inactive for fourth straight game.
- Placed on injured reserve (11-21) and underwent successful surgery (12-3) to remove bone spurs from left ankle.

2001: (With Dallas)

- Named ALL-PRO by Associated Press for the seventh consecutive season.
- Also named PRO BOWL starter at guard. Unable to attend game in Hawaii due to elbow surgery that was performed after season (1-18-02). Marked seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection.
- Played key role in Dallas' third rank in NFL rushing at 136.5 yards-per-game. Season rushing total of 2,184 yards was second-best total by Cowboys team in last 20 years (1995-2,201).
- Helped limit All-Pro DT Warren Sapp to one tackle and no sacks in season opener vs. Tampa Bay (9-9). Opened holes for Cowboys offense to rush for 99 yards on 23 carries (4.3 avg.).
- Led the way for RB Emmit Smith (107 yards) to his first 100-yard rushing game of the season and offense to 211 total rushing yards in Cowboys Monday Night win over Washington (10-15).
- Played part in helping RB Troy Hambrick gain 127 rushing yards and Michael Wiley 85 en route to the Cowboys gaining 207 rushing yards (6.3 avg.) at Atlanta (11-11).
- Played key role in Dallas' 20-14 win at Washington (12-2) as Cowboys logged third 200-plus yard rushing day of season as team ran 44 times for 215 yards (4.9 avg.), including 102 yards from Smith.

2000: (With Dallas)

- Selected sixth consecutive season to the NFC PRO BOWL squad and garnered consensus ALL-PRO and ALL-NFC honors.
- Part of unit that allowed just 35 sacks in 480 pass plays. Six times during the season, opponents were held to one sack or less.
- Despite suffering fractured right hand in practice (7-20), returned to action by end of preseason and started all 16 games.
- Blocking helped limit Cardinals to one sack while protecting Randall Cunningham as he completed 24-of-34 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns vs. Arizona (9-10).
- Blocking vs. Arizona (10-22) keyed offense as it picked up 347 total yards, including 200 rushing. Allowed just one sack.
- Helped limit DT Warren Sapp to two tackles on the day at Tampa Bay (12-3) while entire Tampa Bay starting defensive line was limited to six tackles.
- Part of offensive line that helped Smith rush for 150 yards and a touchdown vs. Washington (12-10) and NFL's fourth ranked defense. Cowboys ran for 242 yards against Redskins for most by Dallas offense since recording 271 rushing yards at Philadelphia (10-31-93).

1999: (With Dallas)

- Despite starting in third line position in as many years and missing five games due to injury, was selected to his fifth consecutive PRO BOWL while earning consensus ALL-PRO honors at guard.
- Earned recognition as part of line that allowed second-fewest sacks (24) in NFL (Indianapolis-14) and one or fewer sacks in 9-of-16 games.
- Helped lead way as Cowboys gained 541 total yards while surrendering only one sack in 50 pass plays in FIRST CAREER start at left guard at Washington (9-12).
- Helped lead the way as RB Emmit Smith (109 yards) became just third player in last 29 games to rush for over 100 yards vs. Atlanta (9-20).
- Blocking helped Cowboys line allow only one sack in 40 pass plays at Philadelphia (10-10).
- Limited Washington (10-24) to no sacks in 32 pass plays.
- Blocking helped spring Smith to 140 rushing yards and two touchdowns in the first half as the Dallas offense rolled up 205 rushing yards at Minnesota (11-8).
- Paved way for ground game to accumulate 149 yards before leaving game in third quarter with sprained medial collateral ligament in right knee vs. Green Bay (11-14).
- Missed first career game at Arizona (11-21), snapping strings of 97 consecutive games played and 90 consecutive starts.
- Missed next four games with sprained knee.
- Returned to starting lineup at New Orleans (12-24) and helped Dallas line surrender no sacks on 39 pass plays while leading way for Smith to rush for eighth 100-yard game of the season.
- In season finale vs. New York Giants (1-2-00), helped pave for way for Smith as he recorded ninth 100-yard game of year. Part of line that did not allow a sack in 33 pass plays.
- Part of offensive line that surrendered only one sack in 39 pass plays in NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at Minnesota (1-9-00). Also opened holes for Smith to rush for 99 yards, including a Dallas postseason record 65-yarder.

1998: (With Dallas)

- Penciled into left tackle position from day one of 1998 season after starting final three games of 1997 at left tackle.
- In his first full season guarding QB Troy Aikman's blindside, earned consensus ALL-PRO and ALL-NFC honors.
- Became just third player in league history to be selected to PRO BOWL at more than one offensive line position when peers voted him to NFC Pro Bowl squad at tackle.
- Earned recognition as vital cog in offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks for 110 yards in 493 pass plays for season—fewest in NFL.
- Blocking helped Smith to seven 100-yard rushing days and 1,332 yards.
- Debuted at new position in the season opener vs. Arizona (9-6) and helped Dallas gain 444 total yards (188 rushing)—both totals were highest since 1996.
- Helped lead way as two running backs topped 100-yard mark for just third time in club history at Washington (10-4), Smith finished with 120 yards and one touchdown while RB Chris Warren added 104 yards and two touchdowns.
- In November, faced four of NFC's top defensive ends in Hugh Douglas (fifth in NFC with 12.5 sacks in 1998), Chad Bratzke (ninth with 11.0), Simeon Rice (tied for 11th with 10.0) and John Randle (10th with 10.5). Streak started at Philadelphia (11-2) when he limited Douglas to one tackle and no sacks.

- Following week against New York Giants (11-8) and Bratzke, blocking helped Smith rush for 163 yards on 29 carries (5.6 avg.). Dallas offensive line allowed no sacks to Giants defense that led NFL in sacks in 1998.
- At Arizona (11-15), limited Rice to one tackle and was part of line that allowed no sacks to Cardinals defense. Plowed way for Smith's 118 rushing yards and three touchdowns.
- Seattle brought AFC's top sacking defense of 1998 (11-22) and came away with just one sack (on Aikman fumble), while Cowboys ran for 173 yards.
- Limited Randle to one tackle and no sacks in 81 offensive plays vs. Minnesota (11-26). Also helped set new club record for pass attempts in a game without a sack (57) and led way as Smith rushed for three touchdowns to tie Marcus Allen's NFL record of 123 career rushing scores.
- In the regular season finale against Washington (12-27), part of blocking unit that saw Smith run for two more touchdowns to break NFL's all-time rushing touchdown record.

1997: (With Dallas)

- Despite moving between guard and tackle during the season, was selected to his third straight PRO BOWL at guard and earned first-team ALL-PRO honors.
- Spent part of training camp working at left tackle and returned to right guard spot for first 13 games of season.
- Started third season at right guard at Pittsburgh (8-31) and helped Dallas gain 380 total yards, including 295 passing yards while not allowing a sack.
- Suffered a strained left hamstring in the second quarter in a win over Philadelphia (9-15) and did not return to action.
- Returned to the starting lineup following the bye week vs. Chicago (9-28) but was forced out of game in second quarter without enough strength in left leg to block effectively.
- Back in starting lineup following week at New York Giants (10-5).
- Forced to slide out to left tackle after loss of Mark Tuinei at left tackle at Washington (10-13).
- Remained at left tackle in third down passing situations vs. Philadelphia (10-26) and Washington (11-16).
- Became full-time starter at left tackle vs. Carolina (12-8) and remained there final three weeks of season.

1996: (With Dallas)

- Earned second consecutive trip to the PRO BOWL, along with consensus ALL-PRO and ALL-NFC honors.
- Dallas offensive line led NFL by allowing just 19 sacks, one shy of club record set in 1995.
- In a win at Miami (10-27), QB Troy Aikman was sacked just once while completing season-high 33-of-41 passing attempts (80.5%) for 363 yards and three touchdowns.
- For the third straight year behind Allen, Emmit Smith ran for over 1,200 yards while topping 100 yards on ground four times, including season-high 155 yards and three touchdowns vs.Washington (11-28).
- In the first round of the playoffs, helped lead Dallas running game to 255 rushing yards vs. Minnesota (12-28), second-best postseason total in club history.

1995: (With Dallas)

- Earned ALL-PRO honors.
- One of a club-record four Dallas offensive linemen to be selected to the PRO BOWL (Ray Donaldson, Nate Newton and Mark Tuinei) after just one year as starting guard.
- Team finished fifth in NFL in total offense while Smith gained club record 1,773 rushing yards, captured fourth NFL rushing title in five years and scored NFL record 25 rushing touchdowns.
- Made first NFL start at right guard in season opener at New York Giants (9-4), helping Dallas offense roll up 459 yards including 230 rushing yards.
- In the regular-season finale at Arizona (12-25), line enabled Dallas to roll up 474 yards of total offense for most yardage by Cowboys team since 9-15-85.

1994: (With Dallas)

- Was 10th offensive lineman selected in NFL Draft and first player ever drafted from Sonoma State.
- Taken in second round (46th overall). Marked first time since 1981 that Dallas had taken an offensive lineman that high.
- Started 10 regular season games rotating between guard and tackle.
- Tied Burton Lawless (1975) and Kevin Gogan (1987) for the most starts on offensive line as rookie in club history at time (Flozell Adams broke the mark in 1998).
- Helped Dallas establish then team record by allowing just 20 sacks for losses totaling just 93 yards (fewest in the NFL) while earning all-rookie honors.
- Forced into the lineup four games into rookie campaign when Mark Tuinei suffered back spasms at Washington (10-2). Received game ball for helping hold Redskins sackless.
- Earned FIRST NFL START at left tackle for Tuinei vs. Arizona (10-9). Marked first time rookie offensive lineman had started for Dallas since (11-24-91) when Erik Williams started at right tackle against Washington.
- Returned to spot duty next two weeks, but early in morning (10-24), Williams was injured in automobile accident and lost for season. Moved into the starting lineup at Williams's right tackle spot for good at Cincinnati (10-30).
- Received game ball (with Mark Tuinei) for helping hold Saints without a sack in Monday night victory at New Orleans (12-19).
- In postseason play, received game ball vs. Green Bay (1-8-95) when Dallas offense picked up 450 total yards and Aikman completed 23-of-30 passes for 337 yards. Sprained left ankle in game, but returned to action.
- In NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15-95), struggled through three quarters on injured ankle before leaving game.

COLLEGE:

- Began college career at Butte Junior College in Oroville, CA (1989-90).
- After a year hiatus, enrolled at Sonoma State, a Division II school 45 miles north of San Francisco.
- In two years with the Cossacks, gave up just one sack.
- Cossacks were primarily a passing team and established 10 new school records—including most yards gained, most touchdown passes, best gain-per-completion and highest passing efficiency.
- During senior year, Sonoma State set a mark with 334 rushing yards against Cal-State Hayward.
- Participated in the East-West Shrine Game, Senior Bowl and was two-time All-America selection.

INSPIRATIONAL MESSAGE

Otis, a Bay Area native who was the surprise of training camp last season, made the team in 2005 as an undrafted rookie free agent. The wide receiver inspired his teammates after using his love for music to express his feelings on the tragic passing of a friend. A gifted performer, Otis has performed in talent shows since the third grade and in August of 2005, composed a rap song entitled "Carry On" in memory of teammate Thomas Herrion. He is currently working on a full-length album of inspirational songs with no foul language to inspire youth to work hard and never give up on their dreams.

OTIS MY MAN

Otis returned a second-quarter punt 75 yards for a touchdown on opening week. He was the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first-ever return. He also became the second 49ers player to score a touchdown on his first touch. Nate Singleton's first NFL reception was a six-yarder from Steve Young (11-18-93) vs. Atlanta during the third game of his rookie season. Here is a list of other 49ers that set and maintained the precedence of scoring a touchdown on their first touch.

- Nickname is "Baas Man."
- Married to Elizabeth. Couple resides in Sarasota, FL.

READY OR NOT, HERE I COME

David came into the world with quite an entertaining birth tale. His unique labor took place in the parking lot of a bank near Tulsa, Oklahoma. In a dash to reach the hospital emergency room, David's parents had to come up with an alternate plan. Their son was ready to be delivered with no time to spare. The Baas' stopped in the bank parking lot and David's father had to deliver him in the family Datsun.

ROOKIE IMPACT

Both Adam Snyder and David Baas became rookie starters in 2005. As the season progressed, the 49ers run game improved aided by the development of the two rookies. Snyder started seven contests, while Baas had five starts. San Francisco's offensive production was better when both linemen started games, especially in the run department. The 49ers averaged more than 111 yards in games that Baas and Snyder started.

DOUBLE DUTY

Billy was a two-sport star at Westmoore High School in Oklahoma. While his efforts on the football field earned him a scholarship at Oklahoma State, Billy's talent on the baseball diamond were just as stellar. A flamethrower pitcher, Billy was regularly clocked with a fastball that zinged 90-miles per hour or more. He made the decision following high school graduation that football held a potentially brighter future than baseball and focused solely on his career as a tight end.

HOME MAKEOVER

Not only does Kevan have a peripheral eye to hit the holes on the field, but his vision in design is just as keen. The running back spent the off-season designing his house by measuring his square footage, arming himself with a digital camera and scouring the Bay Area for decorations to fit his taste. Kevan said his favorite spot was the game room. Designed with what he described as a "Rat Pack" feel, the room features a pool table, game room and dart board. "All you have to do is have a little color coordination and a plan," he said.

IN REMEMBRANCE

Arnaz's tough, hard-nosed play is described by some as competing with a chip on his shoulder. However, Arnaz would express it as playing with an angel instead of a chip in remembrance of his younger brother, Brandon. When Arnaz was nine years old, Brandon passed away in a tragic drowning accident. That memory is a moment from which Arnaz draws strength and inspiration. On his upper left arm appears a tattoo of his late brother's face that runs from the tip of his shoulder to his bicep. "Brandon will always be a part of me," Arnaz said.

HYDRATION TECHNICIAN

Sammy has carved out another niche for himself as an inventor. He and a childhood friend, Chris Spencer, invented a new piece of equipment for football players called "The Hydration System." The Hydration System is a water pouch that attaches to the back of a pair of shoulder pads and holds up to 14 ounces of drinking water. There is a hose attached to the water sack which allows a player to take a drink during a game. Sammy is not only the inventor, but he is also the model on the Hydration System box, and is a faithful client of the product. The Hydration System is patented and in the marketplace.

PERSONAL:

- Born Trent Dilfer (3-13-72) in Aptos, CA.
- Lettered in football, golf, basketball, and baseball at Aptos (CA) High School in Santa Cruz County. Played quarterback, safety and punter.
- Two-time all-conference choice in both football and basketball.
- Voted Player of the Year in basketball as a senior.
- Graduated with a 3.9 GPA.
- A scratch golfer, has won three offseason celebrity tournaments.
- Wife, Cassandra, is a former Fresno State swimmer.
- Parents of four children, daughters Madeleine, Victoria, Delaney and son Trevin. Trevin went home to be with the Lord on April 27, 2003.
- His family has established the TD 4 HIM Foundation, in memory of Trevin, to raise financial assistance for parachurch ministries and various youth programs.

LASTING IMPRINT

In May, Trent financially contributed to a memorial fund that raised more than $800,000 to cover the cost of replacing the natural field turf at his former High School, Aptos High (CA). The memorial fund, and field, is named after his son, Trevin, who died 40 days after contracting a virus that attacked his heart at the age of five. It will be called Trevin Dilfer Memorial Field. The campaign benefited $50,000 from the first annual Trent Dilfer Invitational, a golf tournament hosted by Trent at Pasatiempo Golf Club.

NFL Honors:

Played in Pro Bowl - 1997

AFC/NFC Offensive Player of the Week - 1997 (Week 4 with Tampa Bay)
2005 (Week 2 with Cleveland)

College: UCLA
2nd Year (FA in '05)
Games/Starts: 2005-11/8; Career-11/8

Safety 38

CAREER: Played a large role in 49ers defense as the 2005 season progressed...Promoted from practice squad and made significant plays in 49ers final two victories...Had game-clinching interception in win at St. Louis (12-24-05) and 35-yard return on a lateraled ball after Mike Adams' interception vs. Houston (1-1-06) that set up game-winning field goal...Smart player who did not back from competition when thrust into the starting role after injury to SS Tony Parrish...Versatile athlete lined up at right outside linebacker and strong safety in 2005...Ideal size for safety position.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fifth round (171st pick overall) draft choice by Carolina in 2005...Waived by Carolina on August 30, 2005 and signed by Carolina to the practice squad on September 6, 2005...Waived from Carolina practice squad on September 16, 2005...Signed by San Francisco to the 53-man roster on October 21, 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005:

- Played in 11 games, starting seven at strong safety and one at linebacker in nickle defense.
- Began rookie campaign on Carolina Panthers practice squad.
- Signed by San Francisco to help bolster an injured secondary.
- Utilized as linebacker in nickel situations and moved to starting lineup in base formations when SS Tony Parrish was placed on injured reserve with fractured fibula.
- Finished third in secondary with 43 tackles, three passes defensed, a half sack and one interception.
- Played in FIRST NFL GAME at Washington (10-23) and recorded five tackles (three solo) in action at linebacker and in nickel and dime situations.
- Saw action at linebacker, notching two solo tackles vs. Tampa Bay (10-30).
- Made FIRST NFL START at linebacker when 49ers opened up in nickel defense vs. New York Giants (11-6). Recorded two solo tackles.
- Moved into starting lineup full-time vs. Seattle (11-20) when SS Tony Parrish was placed on injured reserve (11-14) with fractured fibula. Notched five tackles (two solo) and one assisted special teams tackle.
- Started and made four solo stops on defense at Tennessee (11-27).
- Marked CAREER-HIGH seven solo defensive stops vs. Arizona (12-4) as starting strong safety.
- Started at Seattle (12-11) and tallied three solo tackles, including one of RB Maurice Morris for a two-yard loss.
- Started at Jacksonville (12-18) and registered six tackles (two solo) and a half sack. Added one special teams tackle.

- Started at St. Louis (12-24) and finished day with two solo tackles and game-clinching interception of QB Jamie Martin in final minute of game as Rams were threatening to score and take lead. Three-yard interception return preserved 24-21 win.
- Recorded six tackles (five solo) vs. Houston (1-1-06). Ran 35 yards to Houston 21-yard line after Mike Adams lateraled ball after intercepting Tony Banks pass in overtime. Return helped set up 49ers game-winning 33-yard field goal in 20-17 overtime win.

COLLEGE:

- Started 39 of his final 42 games at free and strong safety for UCLA.
- Produced 228 tackles, one blocked kick, eight interceptions and two touchdowns during college career.
- Started all 11 games at free safety senior season, ranking third on team with 70 tackles, four passes defensed and one interception.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Clear Brook (TX) High School.
- First-team All-State selection following junior and senior seasons at Clear Brook.
- Played basketball and ran track.
- Single. Resides in Houston, TX.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

Ben and his older brother Bert are both products of Texas' famed high school football star-studded cast. Both were standouts at Clear Brook High School where Bert was rated the number one quarterback in the state at the end of his high school career and Ben was rated the number one safety when he finished a few years later. The Emanuel brothers went from playing under Texas Friday night lights to the lights of Hollywood as players at UCLA. Ben spent his entire career in Los Angeles while Bert returned back to his Texas roots to finish his collegiate career at Rice University in Houston.

- Made 65 tackles with five sacks, two fumble recoveries, and three caused fumbles junior campaign.

BAYOU CONNECTION

There must be something extraordinary in the water in Bogalusa, Louisiana that helped mold Ronald, and his cousin, Kenderick Allen, into the football powerhouses they've become today. The two were defensive tackles at Bogalusa High School who both went on to earn careers in the professional ranks. Kenderick played at LSU before going on to play for the Saints, Giants and Packers while Ronald, younger by three years, was drafted in the fifth round of the 2005 49ers draft. The two hold a football camp together for youth in their hometown each summer.

MR. GILMORE

When his NFL playing career is finished, Bryan plans to return to college to finish his degree in business administration/management. He hopes to combine his education with his love for teaching and mentoring youth as a high school finance teacher. And when he's not in the classroom, Bryan wants to share his success tips on life, and athletics, as a football and track coach.

College: University of Miami (FL)
2nd Year (D-3A in '05)
Games/Starts: 2005-14/1; Career-14/1

Running Back 21

CAREER: Had one of the most productive seasons for a 49er rookie running back in team history...Led team with 608 yards...The last time a rookie led the 49ers in rushing was 1990, when Dexter Carter paced the team with 460 yards...Averaged 4.8 yards per gain, the highest of any 2005 NFL rookie rusher with more than 55 carries...His 72-yard touchdown run against Washington (10-23-05) is the fifth-longest run from scrimmage by a 49ers rookie...Breakaway threat who is also a tough inside runner...Can run through potential tacklers on his way to the end zone...Gifted talent that plays with unparalleled passion for the game.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (65th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2005...First of two third-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005:

- Played in 14 games, starting one. Inactive for two contests with groin injury.
- Finished season seventh among all NFL rookie running backs in rushing average with 4.8 average per run.
- Led team in rushing with 608 yards on 127 carries. Also had three rushing touchdowns. The last time a rookie led the 49ers in rushing was 1990, when Dexter Carter paced the team with 460 yards. Total 608 yards is highest for 49ers rookie since RB Roger Craig had 725 yards rushing in 1983.
- Also caught 15 passes for 131 yards.
- Rushed for 17 yards on four carries and caught two passes for 21 yards in first professional action vs. St. Louis (9-11).
- Rushed for 42 yards on seven carries with a 5.4-yard average vs. Dallas (9-25). Also caught one pass for five yards.
- Led team with nine carries on 89 yards and recorded CAREER-HIGH 72-yard touchdown in fourth quarter at Washington (10-23). Touchdown was CAREER-FIRST and longest run from scrimmage by a 49ers player since RB Kevan Barlow had 78-yard touchdown run vs. Pittsburgh (11-17-03). Touchdown run was fifth-longest run from scrimmage by 49ers rookie.
- Led team in rushing for third straight week with 55 yards on 15 carries (3.7 avg.) at Chicago (11-13), including a 19-yard long.
- Suffered groin injury in practice week before playing at Seattle (12-11) and missed that game and 49ers contest at Jacksonville (12-18).
- Made FIRST NFL START and had over 100 combined yards with 79 yards rushing on 19 attempts for a 4.2-yard average at Jacksonville (12-18). Led team with three receptions for 57 yards. Caught a 47-yard screen pass from QB Alex Smith during final seconds of second quarter.

- Saw action at running back at St. Louis (12-24), rushing for 68 yards on 10 carries (6.8 avg.) and two touchdowns. Had FIRST-CAREER multi-touchdown game with a 10-yard scoring run in the second quarter and a 30-yard score in the fourth quarter.
- Registered his FIRST CAREER 100-yard game with 108 yards on 25 carries vs. Houston (1-1-06).

COLLEGE:

- Rushed for 1,975 yards at the University of Miami (FL).
- Finished college career ranked seventh on school's career-record list while 17 scores are tied for 10th.
- Caught 23 passes for 225 yards (9.8 avg.), returned two kickoffs for 48 yards and recorded five tackles on special teams.
- Finished season with career highs for yards rushing (945), carries (197) and touchdowns (8) as senior. Ranked fourth in ACC in rushing yards. Rushing yardage total ranked tenth on the school's season-record list.
- Majored in business management and organization.

PERSONAL:

- Born Frank Gore (5-14-83) in Coral Gables, FL.
- Attended Coral Gables (FL) High School.
- One of the nation's most heavily-recruited and highly-regarded running backs in the country.
- Set Dade County record in 2000 for rushing yardage in a season with 2,953 yards and 34 touchdowns senior year.
- Rushed for 1,559 yards and 28 touchdowns in 1999, in addition to 301 receiving yards and four more scores through the air.
- Listed as best tailback on Florida Times-Union Super 75 list and earned Super Prep All-American.
- Single. Resides in Coral Gables, FL.

RUNNING FOR MOM

Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami. However, he relied on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman, and now it is my time to support the family," Frank said. Her resilience and strength was finally answered last fall, when she was able to have surgery. The procedure took place when Frank and the 49ers were in Mexico City playing Arizona. "It was really tough. That was first time she went to the hospital with me not being around her. Not knowing if she was alright or not was the hardest part, but I know my mom is a tough woman."

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Kwame was born in Jamaica on his grandparent's farm and at five, moved to New York and then to Delaware. He was introduced to football by his older brother, Duevorn. The move turned out to be advantageous for the family. While Kwame was the 49ers first round draft choice in 2003, his younger brother, Orien, was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006. Kwame credits his parents for instilling a great work ethic in the boys. "They are responsible for all of the success we have. They never let us forget the opportunity by being in America and how hard they had to work to get here and become U.S. citizens."

FULL HOUSE

Walt's competitive streak can be traced back to his childhood, when he had to pull out all the stops to stand out from his 10 siblings. Walt was the youngest of 11, having six older brothers and four older sisters. Whether his speed accelerated from the mad race to the dinner table each night, or running from his older siblings, Walt stood out in both football and track at LaGrange (GA) High School and then set school records in college at Mississippi State.

Ht: 6-3, Wt: 307, Born: 2-24-80
College: Stanford
5th Year (D-7A in '02)
Games/Starts: 2005-16/16; Career-57/52; Postseason-2/2

Guard/Center 66

CAREER: Was a consummate performer along the front line in 2005, starting all 16 games including 10 at right guard and six at center in place of an injured Jeremy Newberry (knee)...Continued to act as one of the most consistent offensive linemen – one of only five players (T Kwame Harris, LB Derek Smith, G Justin Smiley and NT Anthony Adams) to start all 16 games in 2005...Young and promising anchor in the trenches with tremendous skill and upside...Has started in 52-of-57 career games...After missing almost half of 2003 campaign with ankle injuries, returned healthy to a starting role at guard in 2004, where he didn't miss an offensive snap the entire season...In 2002, was first rookie to start a game on the offensive line since 1987, when Harris Barton started at right tackle...His quick and aggressive play was key factor in helping the 49ers become one of the top rushing offenses in the NFL...Combines good quickness and strength with technique and awareness...Displays great toughness.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a seventh round (239th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2002...Was the first of two seventh-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005:

- Started in all 16 games including 10 at right guard and six at center.
- Played center in preseason for injured Jeremy Newberry (knee) before moving back to right guard for the majority of 2005 campaign. Stepped in as a dependable anchor at starting center for the final six games when Newberry was placed on injured reserve (knee).
- Blocked for four different quarterbacks.
- Served as key cog in team's three offensive touchdowns in season-opening win vs. St. Louis (9-11) as starting right guard.
- Helped rushing attack produce 124 yards, surpassing 100-yard mark for first time of season vs. Dallas (9-25).
- Started at right guard at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2) and shifted to center in second half to relieve injured Newberry. Recovered fumble in first quarter to keep drive alive as 49ers led 14-0.
- Helped open holes en route to 133 rushing yards vs. Indianapolis (10-9).
- Made key blocks in 49ers 140-yard rushing game at Washington (10-23) as RB Frank Gore churned out 89 rushing yards (9.9 avg.) and 72-yard touchdown run.
- Part of 158 rushing-yard attack vs. Tampa Bay (10-30) as offensive line did not allow any sacks for first time since playing at Baltimore (11-30-03). Opened holes for RB Kevan Barlow's 101-yard performance.
- Left game in second half with stinger vs. New York Giants (11-6).
- Made first start at center in place of Newberry at Chicago (11-13) and was instrumental in 133-yard rushing performance while not allowing a sack from Bears defense.

- Moved back to starting right guard the following week vs. Seattle (11-20) and helped QB Ken Dorsey throw for 249 yards and a touchdown.
- Started at center at Tennessee (11-27) when Newberry was placed on injured reserve and stayed there remainder of season. Rookie David Baas shifted into Heitmann's post at right guard.
- Anchored offense in SEASON-HIGH 217 rushing yards in win at St. Louis (12-24), team's highest total since gaining 206 yards rushing at Philadelphia (12-31-03). Paved the way for RB Maurice Hicks' 10 carries for 109 yards (10.9 avg.) and 73-yard touchdown on first play from scrimmage. Marked first offensive touchdown on first play of scrimmage since game at St. Louis game (9-17-00).
- Provided blocking as starting center in team's first consecutive string of wins since 2002 season in finale vs. Houston (1-1-06).

2004:

- Started all 16 games.
- Started at left guard and helped team total 286 passing yards vs. Atlanta (9-12).
- From starting left guard post, helped offense generate 370 total yards at New Orleans (9-19) and paved the way for RB Kevan Barlow to rush for 114 yards and two touchdowns.
- Started at left guard and was part of 332-yard offensive outing vs. St. Louis (10-3) while blocking for TE Eric Johnson's 113-yard receiving performance.
- Started at left guard and helped offense generate 448 total yards vs. Arizona (10-10). Held sturdy up front to aid Johnson's 162 receiving yards and two touchdowns.
- Helped offense total 371 yards at New York Jets (10-17) as the starting left guard.
- Started at left guard and helped team generate 317 yards of total offense vs. Seattle (11-7).
- Helped anchor line from starting left guard post while offense totaled 357 yards vs. Carolina (11-14).
- Started at left guard and opened holes for offense to gain168 rushing yards at Arizona (12-12), including 139 yards and a touchdown from Hicks.

2003:

- Played in nine games with eight starts. Missed seven games with injuries to both ankles.
- Helped offense generate 162 rushing yards vs. Chicago (9-7) as starting left guard.
- Started at left guard before leaving game with right ankle injury at Seattle (10-12).
- Started at left guard before leaving game in second quarter with left ankle injury vs. St. Louis (11-2).
- Inactive Weeks 11-12 with ankle injury.
- Started at left guard and opened holes for 232-yard rushing performance (6.4 avg.) vs. Arizona (12-7).
- Part of offense that yielded 502 yards at Cincinnati (12-14).
- Started at left guard and helped team rush for 209 yards (5.1 avg.) at Philadelphia (12-21).

2002:

- Played in every regular season game with 12 starts. Started both postseason contests. Offense did not skip a beat with the rookie thrust into action.
- Helped limit opponents to just 22 sacks, third fewest in NFL.
- Saw action on special teams vs. Denver (9-15). Left game in first quarter with shoulder injury vs. Broncos.
- Replaced injured Dave Fiore (knee) vs. Washington (9-22).
- Made FIRST CAREER START at left guard and helped offense average 6.6 yards per rush vs. St. Louis (10-6).
- Assisted offense in averaging 5.7 yards per rushing attempt at New Orleans (10-20).

- Started at left guard vs. Arizona (10-27). Left game in third quarter with concussion vs. Cardinals.
- Started at left guard and assisted offensive line that held Raiders without a sack at Oakland (11-3).
- Started at left guard and aided offense that generated 467 total yards at San Diego (11-17).
- Started at left guard and helped RB Garrison Hearst rush for 124 yards vs. Seattle (12-1).
- Left game in fourth quarter with broken hand at Dallas (12-8).
- Did not start but played on special teams vs. Green Bay (12-15).
- Returned to starting lineup and helped offense generate 358 total yards at Arizona (12-21).
- Made first postseason start and helped hold Giants defense without a sack vs. New York (1-5-03) in NFC Wild Card Game.
- Started at left guard at Tampa Bay (1-12-03) in NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

THE PIANO MAN

At the age of five, Eric's mother gave him a toy piano as a Christmas present. To her surprise, he played the small toy with both hands and like any nurturing mother; she bought him a life-sized piano the next week. By the time Eric was eight he could play Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" and "Piano Man." At 11, he composed his first original piece. As his skills steadily began to mature on-and-off the field, playing the piano became an outlet to relieve the emotions he experienced with the ups and downs of a football season.

LIGHTING UP THE LINKS

Not only does Chris excel on the gridiron, he has a plus-one handicap as a golfer. During a vacation to Scotland with his father, brother and friend, Chris took to the links of the famed St. Andrews Golf Course where he shot a blistering 68, or four-under par. Later that week, he ended his golfing journey in Scotland with a score of 71 at Carnoustie. His impressive play on the links has earned him the title of the "Resident Tiger Woods" in the 49ers locker room.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

Maurice has set records all over the football map. On the college level, he set the NCAA Division I and II single-game rushing record with 437 rushing yards on 34 carries vs. Morgan State as a senior at North Carolina A&T, breaking a 409-yard record previously set by Charles Roberts in 1999. During his second year in the NFL, Maurice continued where he left off, rushing for 139 yards and a score in his first NFL start vs. Arizona (12-12-04). His 39 touches tied a 49ers single-game mark for most touches in a game.

HOOK, LINE AND SINKER

Shaun loves to fish. The quarterback started reeling in fish that were inhabitants of farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30-inch, nine-pound walleye on his first try. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40-feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48-inch musket.

TEACHER'S PET

Nicknamed "Coach" by his teammates and peers because of his high football IQ, the name will have a new superlative when they hear of Terry spending his off-season at Harvard. Terry was one of 120 players who took part in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program. As part of the criteria in qualifying for the Harvard program, Terry had to take the Buyer's Briggs Business Test. It was his second year taking advantage of this opportunity. Last off-season he went to The Wharton School of Business.

SCHOOL TIES

There's not a shy bone in Brian's body. The outgoing long snapper is one of the most sociable players in the 49ers locker room. And after attending 13 schools throughout his home state of Arizona, it's easy to see how Brian adopted his adaptive demeanor. He attended six pre-schools, five elementary schools, one middle school and finished his educational whirlwind tour at Red Mountain High School in Mesa, AZ.

2004: (With Buffalo)

- Played and started in 14 games, manning the left tackle post.
- Started at left tackle vs. Jacksonville (9-12) and helped yield only one Drew Bledsoe sack.
- Started at left tackle vs. New England (10-3) but left the game with a concussion in the third quarter.
- Returned following week and started at left tackle at New York Jets (10-10).
- Inactive with ankle injury vs. Miami (10-17) and at Baltimore (10-24).
- Returned to the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-31) and played a large role in allowing zero sacks for the first time since September 14, 2003. Paved the way for RB Willis McGahee's 102-yard rushing performance.

- Part of offensive line that allowed zero QB Drew Bledsoe sacks for the second straight game vs. New York Jets (11-7). Also led the way for McGahee's 132-yard rushing performance.
- Started vs. St. Louis (11-21) and helped open holes for McGahee's 100 yards rushing.
- Started at left tackle at Seattle (11-28) and held Seahawks DE Grant Wistrom from recording a sack. Helped McGahee notch four rushing touchdowns; the most by a Bill since 1979. Left the game with an injured shoulder but later returned.
- Played through injury at Miami (12-5) and helped hold Dolphins DE Jason Taylor without a sack for second straight game.
- Led way for Willis McGahee's sixth season 100-yard rushing performance vs. Cleveland (12-12).
- Played large role in the offensive line continuing its outstanding job protecting Bledsoe, as line only gave up one sack at San Francisco (12-26).

2003: (With Buffalo)

- Started first eight games of season at left tackle.
- Suffered hip flexor injury at Kansas City (10-26) and was de-activated next game at Dallas (11-9).
- Returned to play vs. Houston (11-16) and vs. Indianapolis (11-23) before suffering a toe injury at New York Giants (11-30).
- Placed on injured reserve with toe injury (12-3).

2002: (With Buffalo)

- After playing right tackle most of rookie season, moved to left tackle for second season and started 15 games at that spot.
- Served as a valuable member of an offensive line that did the job up front while Bledsoe set 10 team passing records, RB Travis Henry ran for fifth-highest single-season total in team history and WR Eric Moulds set franchise marks for catches in a season and had fifth-best receiving yardage year in Bills' annals.
- Left game late in fourth quarter at New England (12-8) with a leg injury and sat out the following week vs. San Diego (12-15) – the only game he missed in 2002.

2001: (With Buffalo)

- Enjoyed a solid rookie season in the NFL, starting all 12 games played. Started 10 games at right tackle and two at left tackle. Did not allow a sack all season.
- Made NFL regular season debut vs. New Orleans (9-9).
- Inactive with injured leg vs. Pittsburgh (9-30).
- Started in win at Jacksonville (10-18) but suffered sprained foot in first quarter and missed remainder of game.
- Inactive at San Diego (10-28) and vs. Indianapolis (11-4) due to sprained foot.
- Started at left tackle at New England (11-11) in first game back after foot injury.
- Started at left tackle but left in the first half with injured foot vs. Seattle (11-18).
- Inactive vs. Miami (11-25) with foot injury.
- Returned to start at right tackle at San Francisco (12-2).
- Part of 310-yard offensive performance vs. New Orleans (12-16).
- Played key role in offense putting up 398 total offensive yards at Atlanta (12-23).
- Helped the offense post 368 total offensive yards at New York Jets (12-30).

COLLEGE:

THE RECRUITER

Takeo Spikes, Larry Allen, Richard Seymour. It's not a past Pro Bowl roster, but a list of players that Jonas has recruited to play with him in various stops. At the University of Georgia, the offensive tackle played host to future NFL players Seymour (New England), Charles Grant (New Orleans) and even current 49ers teammate Bruce Thornton. In Buffalo, he was also instrumental in recruiting good friend, Takeo Spikes. Although he's only been in San Francisco for one season, Jonas was the "go to guy" to pitch the 49ers to potential free agents during their visits. He hosted WR Antonio Bryant and G Larry Allen in the 2006 off-season and also spent time with CB Walt Harris before each signed with the 49ers.

- Punted eight times for 357 yards (44.6 avg.) at Tennessee (11-27). Added one special teams tackle.
- Booted eight punts at Seattle (12-11) for 299 yards (37.4 avg.) and a long of 49.
- Hit eight punts for 335 yards (41.9 avg.) at Jacksonville (12-18).
- Tied CAREER-HIGH nine punts for 312 yards (34.7 avg.) vs. Houston (1-1-06). Had one kick blocked by Texans cover man Ramon Walker. Recovered by 49ers FB Chris Hetherington.

2004:

- Appeared in all 16 games.
- Kicked 96 punts for 3,990 yards including eight touchbacks, 25 inside the 20 and NFL-long of 81 yards.
- Average of 41.6 yards per punt was first time 49ers punter averaged over 40 yards per punt since Reggie Roby in 1998.
- Had seven punts for 296 yards (42.3 avg.) including long of 60 and two punts downed inside 20-yard line at Seattle (9-26).
- Punted seven times for 277 yards (39.6 avg.) including long of 53 and three punts downed inside 20-yard line at New York Jets (10-17).
- Tallied eight punts for 326 yards (40.8 avg.) including long of 55 at Chicago (10-31).
- Tallied seven punts for 338 yards (48.3 avg.) including CAREER-LONG of 81 yards with one punt downed inside 20-yard line at Tampa Bay (11-21). 81-yarder was fourth-longest in 49ers history and NFL's longest punt of the year.
- Established CAREER-HIGH nine punts for 335 yards (37.2 avg.) including long of 45 and three punts downed inside 20-yard line vs. Miami (11-28). Also had one assisted special teams tackle vs. Dolphins.

COLLEGE:

- Was Pittsburgh's starting punter for three seasons. Seized starting role late in true freshman season (2000).
- Punted 244 times for 10,353 yards (42.4 avg.) with 28 touchbacks, 29 fair catches, 61 kicks downed inside 20-yard line and three blocked kicks.
- Ranks first in school history in career punts (244) and second in yardage (10,353).
- Only player to ever win Big East Conference Special Teams Player of the Year honors twice in career.
- 2003 third-team All-America selection by The NFL Draft Report.
- Semi-finalist for Ray Guy Award, given to nation's top punter.
- All-Big East Conference first-team choice and Co-Special Teams Player of the Year.
- Earned Big East Player of the Week honors three times.
- His 44.1-yard average was best in Big East since 1997.

PERSONAL:

- Born Andrew Paul Lee (8-11-82) in Westminster, SC.
- Prepped at West Oak (Westminster, SC) High School.
- First-team all-state, two-time first-team all-conference and Anderson Independent-Mail all-area selection as four-year starter.
- Averaged 42.8 yards per punt as senior.
- Also played tight end and wide receiver as senior.
- Lettered three times in baseball and twice in basketball. Two-time All-Conference honoree and received all-state honors in baseball senior year. Standout pitcher, helped West Oak to district championship and baseball state playoffs with 8-2 record as senior. Went 5-0 with a 1.90 ERA as junior.
- Engaged. Resides in Westminster, SC.

GRAND ENTRANCE

Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a 49er player in 2004. And his first NFL season was memorable after sailing the fourth-longest punt (81 yards) in team history.

- Inactive vs. St. Louis (9-11) and at Philadelphia (9-18). Dressed but did not play vs. Dallas (9-25).
- Saw first NFL action at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2), taking reps with first-team offense in second quarter.
- Lined up as punt returner at Washington (10-23) and returned kickoffs in place of Otis Amey (ankle). Returned two punts for 12 yards and one kickoff for 20 yards. Also rushed one time for negative-seven yards and caught one pass for one-yard loss.
- Lined up as third receiver and returned CAREER-HIGH four punts for 18 yards with long of 10 vs. Tampa Bay (10-30).
- Took over majority of special teams duties vs. New York Giants (11-6) due to injuries to Otis Amey (ankle) and Maurice Hicks (knee). Ran back three punts for 30 yards including CAREER-LONG 30 yards and four kickoffs for 81 yards.
- Had one kickoff return for 16 yards and caught two punts for zero yards at Chicago (11-13) still serving as reserve for injured Amey and Hicks. Also fumbled fourth-quarter punt that was recovered by Bears.
- Returned two punts for 12 yards and had CAREER-HIGH six kickoff returns for CAREER-HIGH 125 yards and established CAREER-LONG of 29 vs. Seattle (11-20). Fumbled kickoff return in third quarter that was recovered by Seahawks.
- Tied CAREER-HIGH with six kickoff returns for 106 yards at Tennessee (11-27).

- Ran back five kickoffs for 76 yards, tying CAREER-LONG with 29-yard return and had a one-yard punt return vs. Arizona (12-4). One of nine draft picks to play in game.
- Returned one punt for CAREER-LONG 13 yards and three kickoffs for 64 yards at St. Louis (12-24).
- Inactive in season finale vs. Houston (1-1-06) due to groin injury.

COLLEGE:

- Enjoyed standout career at West Virginia, setting multiple school records as the squad's electrifying playmaker and three-year starter at quarterback.
- Named 2004 Big East Offensive Player of the Year. Also voted team captain and MVP final season with the Mountaineers.
- Finished with a 24-12 record as a starter while setting WVU record for career touchdowns, both rushing and passing (68), breaking a mark set by Ira Rodgers in 1919.
- Finished second in school annals in career quarterback rushing yards (2,040) behind Major Harris and fourth in career passing yardage (5,558).
- Named Big East Player of the Week two times senior season and completed 144-of-242 attempts for 1,886 yards passing. Threw 29 touchdown strikes and finished with a 157.2 quarterback rating. Rushed for nine touchdowns.
- Second team All-Big East selection junior year. Completed 139-of-259 passes for 1,616 yards, nine touchdowns and rushed for 303 yards and four touchdowns.
- Shattered Michael Vick's Big East quarterback season rushing record with 666 yards rushing sophomore campaign in 2002. Ranks fifth in all-time WVU sophomore scoring (78) and fourth in sophomore total offense (2,282).
- Served as the backup to Brad Lewis freshman season in 2001. Played in five games and completed 41-of-79 passes for 327 yards and two touchdowns. Also rushed 48 times for 210 yards and three scores.
- Played a year of football at Valley Forge Academy and captained football and basketball teams.
- Earned degree in athletic coaching education and earned spot on Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll.

PERSONAL:

- Born Rasheed Marshall (7-11-81) in Pittsburgh, PA.
- Prepped at Pittsburgh (PA) Brashear High School and threw for more than 3,000 yards in two seasons.
- Rated tenth-best quarterback in the country by ESPN in 1998.
- Two time all-city and Suburban Times Player of the Year.
- Also lettered in basketball.

PASSING THE TORCH

During his senior year as the quarterback at West Virginia, Rasheed received a special gift from Eagles QB Donovan McNabb. During the Mountaineers mid-season 27-6 victory over Big East rival Syracuse, Marshall ran 14 times for 87 yards breaking McNabb's Big East career quarterback rushing record of 1,561 yards. McNabb autographed the play-by-play from the game (which was also against his alma mater) and sent it to Rasheed as a congratulatory gesture. Rasheed went on to finish his career at West Virginia with 2,040 rushing yards and 24 rushing touchdowns as a quarterback. Rasheed's signed McNabb play-by-play still hangs in his Pittsburgh home.

COLLEGE:

- Started all 42 games played for Gardner-Webb.
- Finished college career with 306 tackles (172 solo), ten sacks, 30 tackles for losses, four interceptions, 11 fumble recoveries and eight forced fumbles.
- Named first-team All-Big South selection in 2003 after finishing season with career-high 116 tackles (70 solo), three sacks, 15 tackles for losses and one interception.
- Graduated in December, 2002 with degree in business administration.

PERSONAL:

- Born James Maxwell (8-8-81) in Johnsonville, SC.
- Played quarterback and safety at Johnsonville (SC) High School.
- Named salutatorian of graduating class at Johnsonville. Honor was based on excellence in academics and extracurricular activities.
- Earned master's degree in business administration during 2005 off-season.
- Married to Lindsey. Couple resides in Fort Mill, SC.

GROWTH SPURT

Maxwell, an imposing 6-2, 242-pound linebacker actually had to grow into his position. He started his career in high school as a 185-pound option quarterback at Johnsonville (SC) High School. "Mainly my job was to make sure everyone was going the right way and hand the ball off," Jim said. He was offered one scholarship to play quarterback at Gardner-Webb, a small school in Boiling Springs, NC. The option quarterback had to change positions in the team's new four-receiver shotgun formation, so Jim hiked his weight to 235 pounds and successfully made the move to linebacker starting all 42 games in which he played.

ON THE ROPES

Marcus has unusual plans when his NFL career ends. He hopes to get roped into another athletic endeavor – the California native would like to own a ranch and become a calf roper. Marcus said he appreciates the talent and eye coordination involved in the tough job and has the ultimate respect for the "amazing athletes that participate in the sport." Marcus caught the "roping bug" as a frequent visitor to his girlfriend's ranch in Dixon, CA and has attended several Black Rodeo events in the Castro Valley over the past five years.

MOUNTAIN MAN

Tennessee and snow skiing normally aren't combined in the same sentence, but in Jason's case, Tennessee is where his passion for hitting the slopes came to life. As a sixth grader in Oak Ridge, Jason joined a ski club and was hooked. Treks to the Smokey Mountains and Gatlinburg with the ski club proved to be ample training ground for his most recent trip in California/Nevada to Lake Tahoe.

START SPREADING THE NEWS

Brandon's trip back to his Long Island, NY high school alma mater on February 13, 2005 was one that the Baldwin Bruin's football team will never forget. His former squad cruised to a 10-1 season topped with a Nassau Conference I football championship. Brandon flew to Baldwin's Fire Department banquet room where he presented the team and coaches with 56 championship rings that he purchased on his own. The group celebrated the program's first title since 1953. For his achievements as one of Long Island's finest football players, and for his gracious gesture, Baldwin will retire Brandon's No. 6 jersey with a prominent display on the gym wall.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: (With San Francisco)

- Played in 15 games and was sidelined for one (at Tennessee, 11-27) with a hip and groin injury suffered in practice.
- Led 49ers with 97 points scored.
- Split the uprights on 26-of-28 field goal attempts, including 10-of-10 from 40-49 yards out. Finished with CLUB-RECORD 92.9 percent in field goals.
- Connected on 2-of-3 from 50-plus yards, including CAREER-HIGH 56-yarder at St. Louis (12-24) to tie 49ers club record.
- Finished perfect on extra points, hitting 19-of-19 PATs.
- Successful on 2-of-4 onside kick attempts including one in opening game vs. St. Louis (9-11) and was successful on 1-of-2 attempts vs. Indianapolis (10-9). Was unsuccessful on fourth-quarter attempt vs. Seattle (11-20).
- Kicked three or more field goals four times, tying 2002 mark with Tennessee. Kicked three or more field goals in seven games with Denver and Carolina in 2000.
- Voted by coaches as co-recipient of 49ers BILL WALSH AWARD, along with LB Derek Smith, given to team's most valuable player.
- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, recognizing players that did not receive Pro Bowl invitations but who were invaluable contributors to their team.
- Beginning with PAT in Week 7 at Washington (10-23), scored 43 straight points for 49ers until WR Brandon Lloyd scored on 22-yard reception from QB Ken Dorsey in fourth quarter vs. Seattle (11-20) in Week 11. Most consecutive points by one NFL player since K Matt Stover had 49 consecutive for Baltimore in 2000.
- Set CAREER-HIGH with five field goals as sole scorer in 15-10 win vs. Tampa Bay (10-30). Hit from 45, 47, 41, 46 and 28 yards. Marked most ever in a single game from 40-49 yards. Performance earned NFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK. Five field goals was one shy of team record for most field goals in single game (6 – Jeff Wilkins vs. Atlanta (9-29-96) and Ray Wershing at New Orleans (10-16-83)). Marked 13th time to kick game-winning field goal.
- Kicked 52-yard field goal vs. New York Giants (11-6). Also hit a 48-yard field goal.
- Finished 3-of-4 as only 49er to score at Chicago (11-13), hitting from 30, 34 and 29 yards in game marked by 47-mph wind gusts. 52-yard miss as time expired in first half was caught in end zone by Bears CB Nathan Vasher and returned 108 yards for touchdown, setting NFL record for longest play in League history.
- Played in 100th career game at Seattle (12-11).
- Inactive at Tennessee (11-27) with groin injury that was aggravated during practice. Was replaced for the week by Jose Cortez.
- Tied 49ers record for longest field goal and set CAREER-HIGH with 56-yard field goal at St. Louis (12-24) to bring 49ers within three points in fourth quarter. Tied club record with Mike Cofer's 56-yarder at Atlanta (10-14-90). Previous career-high were 53-yarders at Detroit (11-1-98) as an Arizona Cardinal and at Dallas (9-15-02) as a Tennessee Titan.
- Nailed 14th career game-winning field goal in overtime to give 49ers 20-17 win vs. Houston (1-1-06) in season finale.

2004: (With Tennessee)

- Placed on injured reserve (9-8) after injuring hamstring in practice just one day earlier.

2003: (With Tennessee)

- Connected on 8-of-10 field goal attempts and nine extra point attempts in four preseason games.
- Second quarter 50-yard field goal gave Tennessee a 9-3 lead in season opener against Oakland (9-7) before suffering a torn right ACL while attempting a tackle on ensuing kickoff.
- Missed remainder of season after he was placed on injured reserve (9-11).

2002: (With Tennessee)

- Scored team-high 111 points, second-highest career total.
- Ranked seventh in AFC in points among kickers and was sixth in field goal accuracy, connecting on 25-of-31 field goal attempts (80.6%), also second-highest career mark.
- Handled all kickoff duties and finished fourth in the conference with nine touchbacks.
- Made 53-yard field goal at Dallas (9-15) to tie then career long. Marked longest field goal since a 52-yarder (10-15-00) with Carolina and the team's longest field goal since 1996 (56 yards by Del Greco vs. San Francisco, 10-27-96).
- Booted three field goals in three consecutive games (10-13 vs. Jacksonville, 10-27 at Cincinnati, 11-3 at Indianapolis).
- Connected on four field goals (32, 37, 40 and 21 yards) for the sixth time of his career, a then career-high at Baltimore (11-24).
- Hit game-winning 38-yard field goal in overtime at the New York Giants (12-1), marking 11th career game-winner.
- In first playoff appearance, made 2-of-3 field goal attempts and all four extra point attempts in a 34-31 AFC Divisional Playoff win vs. Pittsburgh (1-11-03), including a 26-yard field goal in overtime to deliver the victory. Marked 12th career game-winning field goal.
- Left AFC Championship game at Oakland (1-19-03) in the second quarter after hyper-extending left knee while making a tackle.

2001: (With Tennessee)

- Played in 16 games with Tennessee and scored team-high 94 points.
- Connected on 20-of-28 field goal attempts (long of 51 yards) and 34-of-35 extra point attempts.
- Split uprights on three game-winning field goals in final two minutes of regulation or in overtime and did not miss a field goal under 44 yards all season.
- Kicked off 72 times, placing 19 in the end zone with 12 touchbacks, which tied for second place in the NFL.
- Hit season-long 51-yard field goal and two extra point attempts vs. Miami (9-9).
- Named AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK after hitting game-winning 49-yard field goal in 31-28 overtime win vs. Tampa Bay (10-14).
- Received AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK honors for second consecutive week after hitting game-winning kick from 46 yards with five seconds remaining in 27-24 win at Detroit (10-21). Had a perfect day against the Lions, making four field goals (38, 46, 30, 46).
- Connected on both field goal attempts (22, 21) in 13-10 win at Oakland (12-22), including 21-yard field goal with 1:47 to play to mark third game-winner of season and 100th successful career attempt.

2000: (With Denver/Carolina)

- Played in 15 games—three with Denver and 12 with Carolina—after being waived by Oakland prior to opening day.
- Was 8-of-10 on field goals with Denver before being waived and later signed by the Panthers (10-3).
- Connected on 34-of-38 field goals for 126 points in Carolina. Field goal total ranked second in the NFL and his point total tied for fourth in league.
- With Denver, connected on all four field goal attempts (24, 32, 22, 21) and all three extra point attempts at Oakland (9-17) after being signed week prior to game to fill in for injured Jason Elam.
- Named NFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK for 12-point performance vs. Seattle (10-8), registering then career-high four field goals (44, 42, 22, 29) in first action with Carolina.
- At St. Louis (11-5), converted on all four field goal attempts (35,45,24 and 46 yards), including game-winning 46-yarder with 40 seconds remaining in game. Marked seventh game-winning kick and third four-field goal contest since joining the Panthers. Earned NFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK honors for second time in 2000.
- Converted all three field goal attempts (20, 23 and 37 yards) against St. Louis (12-3) to set new Carolina record of 18 straight field goals made, breaking old mark of 16 set by John Kasay in 1996.

1999: (With Arizona/Oakland)

- Was with Arizona for four games (inactive three games) before being waived (10-4).
- Signed by Oakland late in season and played in three games. Converted on two field goals, including game-winner from 33 yards in overtime in Raiders' regular season finale at Kansas City (1-2-00).

1998: (With Arizona)

- Played 12 games for the Cardinals before suffering left ACL injury.
- Converted 13-of-19 field goals and all 30 PATs for team-leading 69 points and sailed 22-of-54 kickoffs into the end zone with 13 touchbacks.
- Connected from 53 yards to provide margin of victory in 17-15 Cardinals win at. Detroit (11-1).
- Placed on injured reserve with knee injury (12-2).

1997: (With Miami/Arizona)

- Signed by Miami (10-3) and waived three days later (10-6).
- Signed by Arizona as a free agent (10-14) and scored 52 points on 11-of-17 field goals (64.7 percent) in 10 games.
- Converted all 19 extra point attempts and sailed nearly one-half of kickoffs (16-of-35, 45.7 percent) into the end zone for touchbacks.
- In first game at Arizona, was hero of 16-13 victory at Baltimore (11-23) with field goals of 22 yards, 27 yards, and 43-yard game-winner as time expired.

1996: (With Miami)

- Re-joined Dolphins as a free agent and led Miami in scoring with 89 points on 18-of-29 field goals and 35-of-36 extra points.
- Tied for NFL lead in touchbacks with 20.

1995: (With Green Bay/Oakland/Miami)

- Signed by Green Bay as an undrafted free agent. Waived by Packers (8-27) and signed by Raiders late in training camp and appeared on practice squad. Also spent time on Miami's practice squad later in 1995.

COLLEGE:

- Four-year letterman as place kicker who also handled punting duties as senior at San Jose State.
- Finished as the school's all-time leading scorer with 236 points on 39-of-70 field-goal attempts and 119-of-132 extra points.
- Averaged 37.8 yards on 70 punts as a senior.
- Earned degree in recreation.

PERSONAL:

- Born Joseph Thomas Nedney (3-22-73) in San Jose, CA.
- Lettered in football as a kicker/punter and in basketball as a guard/forward at Santa Teresa (San Jose, CA) High School.
- Awarded college degree from San Jose State in May, 1998 after completing an internship in the Arizona Cardinals community relations department.
- Worked with the Easter Seals ABLE (Athletes Building Life Experiences) program in Tennessee.
- Married to Gina. Couple resides in Santa Cruz, CA, with their daughter, Gabrielle (6-23-02) and son, Cade (3-11-05).

TEAM TILLMAN

Joe had one of his best kicking seasons in 2005, splitting the uprights on 26 of his 28 field goal attempts. His ace-of-a-leg led the 49ers in points with 97, and helped them put away two games against Tampa Bay and Houston. His efforts also helped a greater cause. For every field goal Joe made, he donated $250 to the Pat Tillman Foundation. By season's end, Joe donated $6,500, helping the Foundation's efforts to support young people by encouraging them to promote positive change in themselves and the world around them.

NFL Honors:

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

While some players use their celebrity status to enhance their own profile, Jeremy has used his acclaim to a greater purpose. After hearing that his former wrestling team at Antioch High school was in jeopardy, he helped to raise the funds needed to keep the program alive. Jeremy was able to enlist the help of his teammates and host the first annual "Bowling with the Niners" as a fundraiser for the program. The event was a success and he says it is just one piece in his overall plan for youth empowerment through sports.

HOUSTONIAN AT HEART

Last year, Moran established his own community-based program, the Moran Norris Foundation, seeking to help Houston-area students become champions in Athletics, Character and Education. Support for the Foundation comes from three initiatives; the "Follow Me" Moran Norris Football Camp; "Shopping for Good Character," which rewards students for perfect attendance and good conduct; and "Making the Short Yardage for the Long Haul," where Moran speaks to male high school seniors.

Quarterback 7

CAREER: Strong-armed quarterback with vast potential...Committed student of the game who has a great advantage in the pocket due to time spent studying opponent and playbook...Became the New York Giants top backup in 2002 after spending the 2001 season as the No. 3 quarterback...Started the final three games of the 2003 season.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth round (125th pick overall) draft choice by the New York Giants in 2001...Released by the New York Giants on September 4, 2005...Signed by San Francisco as a free agent on November 1, 2005...Waived by San Francisco on November 25, 2005...Signed by San Francisco as a free agent on March 6, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: (With New York Giants/San Francisco)

- Released by the New York Giants following training camp on (9-4).
- Signed by the 49ers (11-1) after QB Alex Smith was sidelined after suffering a knee injury from a LaVar Arrington hit vs. Washington (10-23) and QB Ken Dorsey sprained an ankle vs. Tampa Bay (10-30).
- Dressed but did not play vs. New York Giants (11-6), serving as the team's emergency quarterback.
- Dressed but did not play at Chicago (11-13), serving as the team's emergency quarterback.
- Inactive vs. Seattle (11-20).
- Released by San Francisco (11-25).

2004: (With New York Giants)

- Did not see any game action.
- Was inactive as the third quarterback for 15 games.
- Active as the third quarterback for the season finale vs. Dallas (1-2-05) but did not play.
- Completed 11-of-30 passes for 166 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in preseason action.

2003: (With New York Giants)

- Played in CAREER-HIGH six games with CAREER-HIGH three starts.
- Became the 16th quarterback for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976).
- Had CAREER-HIGH totals of 116 pass attempts, 60 completions, 532 yards, three touchdowns and four interceptions for a 58.5 QB rating.
- Combined with Kerry Collins to throw 616 passes, a franchise single-season record.
- Saw first action of season late in fourth quarter vs. Atlanta (11-9), completing 2-of-4 passes for nine yards.

- Entered game in third quarter vs. Washington (12-7) when starter Kerry Collins was forced out with high ankle sprain. Completed 7-of-11 passes for 83 yards with no interceptions and no touchdowns.
- Made FIRST CAREER START at New Orleans (12-14), completing 15-of-26 passes for 140 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. Also rushed two times for 25 yards, including a 26-yard run in the second quarter that helped set up four-yard touchdown pass to TE Visanthe Shiancoe. Run was longest by a Giants quarterback since QB Jeff Hostetler had a 27-yarder at Washington on Nov. 1, 1992. Also threw the game-long completion of 39 yards to David Tyree on a double reverse.
- Started at Dallas (12-21) and completed 18-of-32 passes for 190 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions. Threaded CAREER LONG 40-yard pass to WR Amani Toomer in the third quarter.
- Started and completed 18-of-43 passes for 110 yards and a CAREER-HIGH two touchdowns vs. Carolina (12-28). Also threw four interceptions.

2002: (With New York Giants)

- Played in two games and was active throughout season as backup quarterback.
- Made NFL debut at Minnesota (11-10) as a holder on a Matt Bryant extra point attempt that sailed wide left.
- Played quarterback for the first time in the fourth quarter of a 37-7 victory over Dallas (12-15). Relieved Kerry Collins with Giants leading 30-0 and completed 3-of-4 passes for 30 yards in leading the offense to a touchdown. FIRST CAREER COMPLETION was a ten-yard pass to fullback Charles Stackhouse.

2001: (With New York Giants)

- Did not play a down as he was inactive as third quarterback for all 16 games of regular season.
- Only action was during preseason, completing 17-of-39 passes for 153 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown pass to Jonathan Carter against Jacksonville (8-16).

COLLEGE:

- Played in Steve Spurrier's "shuttle system" for quarterbacks at Florida.
- Played in 27 games with 14 starts during four-year career.
- Ranks eighth on the school's career list with 3,755 yards passing and ninth with 31 touchdown passes.
- Completed 254-of-479 passes (53.0 percent) in his career.
- Ranks fourth on the Gators' all-time list with a 133.14 passing efficiency rating.
- Named to Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll for third straight year in 2001.

PERSONAL:

- Born Jesse James Palmer (10-5-78) in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
- Received prep All-America honors from the National Recruiting Advisor, which ranked him among the top three quarterbacks in North America at St. Pius X (Ontario, Can.).
- Graduated from St. Pius X in December, 1996 and played for a club team in Canada, the Myers Riders, rather than his high school football team. Named Canadian Player of the Year in 1996. Passed for 2,934 yards and 31 touchdowns that year and helped team to Provincial Championship three times (1994, 1995 and 1996).
- Son of Susan and Bill Palmer. Father Bill was former Canadian Football League star with Ottawa Rough Riders.
- Brother Billy was tight end at Notre Dame and spent time in training camp with Washington Redskins.

THE INTERPRETER

Jesse grew up in Ottawa, Canada where he learned how to speak French in kindergarten. He has traveled to France, Switzerland and Austria using the language to maneuver throughout the countries. Though Jesse's French isn't always used in the States, or in the huddle, it's a popular language in his travels to Europe and Africa.

VIVE LE FOOTBALL

Tony has always loved football, both kinds. He says futbol was really "his first love." He once scored 16 goals in a game as a youth player in Huntington Beach, CA. He was a member of several state championship club soccer teams and one national championship team. But when he reached high school, Tony decided to go with football, though the school's soccer coach (his Spanish teacher) tried to talk him out of the decision every day. The decision paid off as he enters his ninth season in the NFL. Still, soccer is near to his heart. He said he plans to become a world-traveling soccer fan when his NFL career concludes. "When I'm done playing, the World Cup is on the top of my list of places I want to go."

- Passed for 372 yards and six touchdowns and rushed for 264 yards junior season. On defense, amassed 42 tackles and six passes defensed. Also returned a punt 79 yards for a touchdown.
- Ran track and was on Serra 1996 state championship 400-meter relay team.
- Served as student body president.
- Married to Chandra. Couple has one daughter, Alyssa.

SUPER DAD

Kris and his wife, Chandra, are enjoying every minute of being new parents. The couple had their first child, a little girl named Alyssa, in the spring of 2006. Though Kris juggled some sleepless nights with off-season conditioning during the day, he and Chandra have enjoyed watching Alyssa grow and begin to develop her own personality. Kris also said he has plans for Alyssa to attend her first football game this fall to see Dad play, and laughed when talking about molding her into a future athlete. "She'll understand what competition is."

THE REAL DEAL

Though football is his passion, T.J. has worked just as hard off the field to be successful in his business ventures. For two years, he has overseen a real estate company in San Antonio, TX that helps individuals get second chances to purchase homes. While other realtors may shun them away because of their past history, T.J.'s business buys property with the goal to resell at a fair price and interest rate. He's expanding his real estate business to Florida, where his new brokerage firm will be ready to open its doors in the Jacksonville area at the beginning of the 2006 season.

Justin Smiley

Ht: 6-3, Wt: 300, Born: 11-11-81
College: University of Alabama
3rd Year (D-2A in '04)
Games/Starts: 2005-16/16; Career-33/25

Guard 65

CAREER: Outstanding drive blocker with superb power and incredible quickness for position...One of five players (along with NT Anthony Adams, G/C Eric Heitmann, T Kwame Harris, LB Derek Smith) to start every game in 2005...His 16 starts are the most in his NFL career, besting nine in 2004...Very emotional player, commands respect from teammates and opponents alike...Shows quickness and agility coming out of stance...Very effective getting out and moving pile on traps and sweeps...Uses sudden burst to reach or cut off linebackers at second level...Shows above average lateral agility, especially when working in space...Delivers good pop and explosion with hands...Has very good reactions and keen field vision, showing instinctive reactions in blocking.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second round (46th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2004. Was the first of two second-round selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: (With San Francisco)

- Started all 16 games at left guard, joined RT Kwame Harris as only other member of offense to start at same position all 16 games.
- Started at Philadelphia (9-18) and played entire game with cast on hand after suffering a broken bone in his hand during week of practice.
- Started vs. Dallas (9-25) and helped the 49ers rushing attack tally 124 yards, surpassing 100-yard mark for first time of season.
- Started and paved the way for then season-high 158 49ers rushing yards vs. Tampa Bay (10-30). Part of offensive line that did not allow any sacks for first time since playing at Baltimore (11-30-03).
- Started at Tennessee (11-27), hustling to tackle LB Keith Bulluck at the San Francisco seven-yard line to save a touchdown after Bulluck intercepted QB Ken Dorsey in the second quarter.
- Started vs. Arizona (12-4) and made a tackle on Robert Griffith after he intercepted QB Alex Smith in the fourth quarter.
- Started at St. Louis (12-24) as a key blocker as 49ers amassed SEASON-HIGH 217 rushing yards, the highest rushing total since gaining 206 yards rushing at Philadelphia (12-21-03). Made one key block to pave way for RB Maurice Hicks' 73-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage and threw two more key blocks on RB Frank Gore's touchdown runs of 10 and 30 yards, which were both the same play call. Blocking efforts opened holes for three rushing touchdowns, most since the 49ers had three in 30-27 loss at New Orleans (9-19-04). Helped Hicks finish with 109 rushing yards (10.9 avg.).
- Started vs. Houston (1-1-06) and provided blocking that led to 49ers first back-to-back wins since the 2002 season. Marked the first time the 49ers won their final two games since 1996.

2004: (With San Francisco)

- Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie with nine starts.
- Took snaps on offensive line vs. Atlanta (9-12) when Jeremy Newberry was sidelined with an injury.
- Saw action on offensive line on a rotational basis and helped team total 370 yards at New Orleans (9-19).
- Made FIRST CAREER START at right guard Weeks 3-4 due to revamped offensive line when Kwame Harris was sidelined with an ankle and knee injury.
- Started at right guard and helped team total 448 yards vs. Arizona (10-10).
- Held strong up front to help 49ers offense total 371 yards as starting right guard at New York Jets (10-17).
- Started at right guard at Chicago (10-31).
- Part of offense that generated 317 total yards as starting right guard vs. Seattle (11-7).
- Started at right guard and was part of 357-yard offensive output vs. Carolina (11-14).
- Continued in starting right guard role at Tampa Bay (11-21).
- Started at right guard and helped offense generate 224 total yards vs. Miami (11-28).
- Saw action on offensive line Weeks 13-15 in a reserve role.
- Saw action on offensive line and helped team generate 318 total yards at New England (1-2-05).

COLLEGE:

- A mainstay on Crimson Tide offensive line, starting 36 games for Alabama. Never allowed a quarterback sack during collegiate career.
- Two-time recipient of team's Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award and won Mal Moore Leadership Award junior season at Alabama.
- Three-year starter holds school's weight room record in hang clean with 415-pound lift.
- Named guard on The Sporting News Freshman All-America third team (2001).
- Majored in criminal justice.

PERSONAL:

- Born Justin Smiley (11-11-81) in Ellabell, GA.
- Attended Southeast Bulloch (Ellabell, GA) High School.
- Border Wars second-team All-South pick.
- All-Area pick after grading at 80 percent blocking as a junior.
- Used as fullback as a freshman, shifting to offensive line following year.
- Cousin, Dusty Ziegler, played at Notre Dame and then for the Buffalo Bills and New York Giants as offensive center.
- Engaged to Mellisa Faust. Resides in Ellabell, GA.

LIVING LEGEND

On May 15, Justin was honored with a jersey retirement ceremony at his alma mater, Southeast Bulloch High School in Ellabell, GA. His No. 78 jersey was retired at halftime of the Southeast Bulloch's spring football game. Justin's is the first-ever jersey retired in the school's history. The local legend is also the only professional athlete to come from Southeast Bulloch's sports program.

TOUGHING IT OUT

When Urban Meyer took over as head coach at Utah, he made it very clear to Alex that he needed to toughen up as a quarterback. One of Meyer's tests in shaping Alex's toughness was making him take part in "No-Rules Wrestling." "I would wrestle with a 250-pound linebacker," Alex said. "He would try to stop me from making it to a wall 50 feet away. I had 20 seconds. There was punching, gouging and choking. I liked it. "The drill worked as Alex went on to lead the Utes to a 9-1 record and a Liberty Bowl victory his sophomore season.

EAT, BREATHE, SLEEP FOOTBALL

Like many young children, Corey was a football fanatic. Like his peers, Corey wore his favorite team's pajamas at night when he went to sleep. However, the Richmond, VA native loved the game so much he took it one step further. Corey would sleep in his youth football league uniform, shoulder pads and all. His passion for the game continued to burn, serving him well as he later went on to star at North Carolina State before winning a World Bowl Championship with the Berlin Thunder and Super Bowl Championship with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

CARBON COPY

While NFL players are required to train year-round to maintain their physical shape, Derek has gone the extra step by installing a replica of the 49ers team weight room in his garage. With the help of Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, Johnny Parker, Derek ordered the exact weights and accessories that are used at the team's Santa Clara Facility.

Adam Snyder

Ht: 6-6, Wt: 312, Born: 1-30-82
College: University of Oregon
2nd Year (D-3B in '05)
Games/Starts: 2005-16/8; Career-16/8

Tackle/Guard 68

CAREER: Versatile player who can rotate talent between guard and tackle positions... Will look to compete for the starting role at right tackle in 2006...Gained valuable playing time during rookie season, seeing action in all 16 games...Able to take command of an offense and step in to help the team wherever needed...Saw action at both guard and tackle during rookie campaign...Possesses the quickness to protect the quarterback's blind side yet utilizes strength to prosper at the point of attack.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third round (94th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005:

- Saw action in all 16 games during his rookie campaign.
- Started seven games at left tackle and one game at right guard.
- Saw first action in the trenches at guard late in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (9-18).
- Saw time at guard when G/C Eric Heitmann moved to center due to an injury to Jeremy Newberry at Arizona in Mexico City (10-2).
- Logged time at guard when Heitmann moved to center relieving Newberry vs. Indianapolis (10-9).
- Saw significant action in second half at right guard vs. New York Giants (11-6).
- Made his FIRST NFL START at Chicago (11-13), at right guard, taking over for Heitmann who moved to center to fill in for Newberry (knee/shoulder). Part of line that held Bears to zero sacks.
- Started at left tackle in place of Anthony Clement vs. Seattle (11-20), at Tennessee (11-27) , vs. Arizona (12-4), at Seattle (12-11), at Jacksonville (12-18).
- Started at left tackle at St. Louis (12-24) and was instrumental in 49ers amassing 217 rushing yards, the most since the team totaled 206 rushing yards at Philadelphia (12-21-03). Part of line that opened holes for RB Maurice Hicks to ramble 73 yards for a touchdown on initial play of game. Helped Hicks finish with 109 rushing yards (10.9 avg.). Offense produced three rushing touchdowns, the most since the 49ers had three in 30-27 loss at New Orleans (9-19-04).
- Started at left tackle vs. Houston (1-1-06) and provided blocking that led to 49ers first back to back wins since the 2002 season.

COLLEGE:

- Departed as one of Oregon's most decorated linemen of all time, becoming the Ducks' third Morris Trophy recipient (as the Pacific-10 Conference's top lineman) ever.
- Three-year starter and school's first two-time first-team all-league offensive line stalwart in four decades.

- Extended string of career starting assignments to 35 at three different positions (right guard, right tackle and left tackle) while playing in 48-of-49 outings.
- Only allowed two sacks the entire senior season. Voted All-Pac-10 while spending entire season at left tackle.
- Enjoyed most consistent year on the offensive line as a junior, highlighted by the selection as the Pac-10's first lineman to earn Offensive Player of the Week accolades since 1995 for his play in the Ducks win over Michigan. Became Oregon's first first-team All-Pac-10 offensive line honoree in 20 years, anchoring a line that boasted league's fourth-best rushing output despite the lack of a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in five years.
- Started 10 games while serving as a reliable anchor along the Ducks' offensive line as a sophomore. Helped Oregon churn out a first-team all-conference running back while the unit ranked second in the conference in rushing and fourth in sacks allowed.
- Majored in journalism/public relations.

PERSONAL:

- Born Adam Richard Snyder (1-30-82) in Fullerton, CA.
- Attended La Serna (Whittier, CA) High School.
- Ranked among best interior linemen and top 80 overall prospects in California by Super Prep.
- Two-year starter and 1999 team captain graded better than 80 percent blocking consistency final season. Second-team all-CIF honoree helped team rush for more than 2,400 yards senior year.
- Married to Erika. Couple resides in Whittier, CA.

ROLLER DERBY

As a youngster in Southern California, Adam enjoyed spending his time Inline skating with friends. In Junior High School, the group began to skate for PLAY IT AGAIN SPORTS who would support the skaters with wheels and accessories, enabling them to become locally-sponsored performers. Adam's greatest stunt accomplishment on his wheels was a 13-stair rail.

GAMES/STARTS (Regular Season) - 16/8; CAREER - 16/8

ROOKIE IMPACT

Both Adam Snyder and David Baas became rookie starters in 2005. As the season progressed, the 49ers run game improved aided by the development of the two rookies. Snyder started eight contests, while Baas had five starts on the season. San Francisco's offensive production was better when both linemen started games, especially in the run department. The 49ers averaged more than 111 yards in games that Baas and Snyder started.

- Lettered in hockey and earned All-State honors in track. Was state champion in shot put and discus senior year.
- Single. Resides in Mahtomedi, MN.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

Until he reached high school, Ben was too big to play football during his pee wee and middle school years. Unable to compete on the gridiron, he turned his focus to other sports like soccer, hockey and tennis. When Ben graduated on to high school, he was finally able to excel on the football field and continued to participate in hockey and track where he was the Minnesota state champion in both the shot put and discus. Though he went on to play collegiate football at Iowa, Ben's first college recruiting letter was sent from Yale, where the Bulldogs wanted him to be a part of the school's hockey program.

- Earned first-team All-League honors in junior and senior seasons.
- Member of League championship team as junior.
- Single. Resides in Pago Pago, American Samoa.

WAR DANCE

About one hour before kickoff, the 49ers encircle Isaac and pound out a beat on their thigh pads while he performs the animated and highly charged "Haka" dance. Isaac said the dance is used as a way of intimidating the opposition. "It's a dance we do in the islands when we play rugby," he said. "It's a war dance. It's to get everybody pumped up and get that feeling to get ready to go play the game." Isaac made the switch from rugby to football in junior college, and transitioned the Haka dance from the pitch to the gridiron.

- Rushed for 1,920 yards and 28 touchdowns as a senior, adding 932 return yards and 12 blocked kicks.
- Resides in La Grange, GA.

RISING TO THE OCCASION

In his first game as a 49er on October 9, 2005, Bruce stayed in step with Pro Bowl receiver Marvin Harrison, limiting him to just two catches for 17 yards while also intercepting a pass in the end zone to prevent a touchdown. For his efforts, Bruce was given honorable mention NFC Defensive Player of the Week recognition. "The young guy did an outstanding job," Head Coach Mike Nolan said. "He's very competitive. You never know what you have in certain players until you get them out in game situations."

TOUGH AS NAILS

Born in Sierra Leone, B.J. was sent by his parents at age 10 to live in Seattle with an aunt and uncle when the West African nation and former British Colony fell into a decade-long civil war which resulted in an estimated 50,000 casualties. B.J., short for Baigeh Joe, switched from soccer to football upon his arrival to the United States. B.J.'s father, a chemistry professor, moved to Milwaukee in 1997 while his mother, Joan Scott, still lives in war-torn Liberia near Sierra Leone, where she works for the United Nations assisting refugees. "It's always a concern, but we speak weekly or every two weeks so I know that she's safe," B.J. said of his mother, who he hasn't seen since leaving Sierra Leone in 1991.

ULTIMATE WORKOUT

Jeff is a big fan of Ultimate Fighting. In fact, the linebacker incorporates the style in his workouts. He frequently watches events with his wife and started using the training when a friend converted an old building into a fighting studio. At the studio, Jeff wrestles, practices ninjitsu and takes part in other cross-training activities. He says the alternate workouts increase his cardiovascular stamina to a different level because they are executed in a controlled environment.

POUND-FOR-POUND

Chad, a 5-9, 207-pound safety is no stranger to Mike Nolan-led defenses. The fifth-year veteran from Southern Mississippi spent his first four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens where Nolan served as the defensive coordinator. Chad is described as an intense competitor with good speed and great instincts who provides excellent depth at both safety positions. In fact, Nolan's nickname for Chad in Baltimore was "pound-for-pound" as he felt Chad was the team's best defender pound-for-pound.

SAN FRANCISCO'S FINEST

For his outstanding contributions as a class-act athlete and community citizen, CityFlight Media Network announced Bryant as one of the "10 Most Influential African Americans in the Bay Area" in 2005. More than 130 candidates were submitted, but Bryant's credentials deservingly landed him as one of the distinguished finalists. The nominees' backgrounds ranged from entertainment to politics to community service, with Bryant representing the sports community. But the one thing they shared were significant contributions in representing and enriching the African American community over the past year.

GAME 1
SAN FRANCISCO 28, ST. LOUIS 25
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
September 11, 2005

Mike Nolan made his debut as head coach and led the team to a 28-25 victory in front of a home Monster Park crowd against NFC West division rival St. Louis. The 49ers used some trick plays on offense and a big day on special teams that included rookie WR Otis Amey's 75-yard punt return for a touchdown. It marked the first time he touched the ball for the 49ers. The 49ers defense also chipped in tremendously, handing the Rams seven sacks. CB Mike Adams intercepted QB Marc Bulger's pass with 52 seconds remaining to help the 49ers hang on for the victory. After spotting the Rams a 6-0 lead, the 49ers exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take command of the game. Nolan and offensive coordinator Mike McCarthy used some gadget plays to spark the offense early in the second quarter. WR Arnaz Battle completed two passes off the flea-flicker, including a 24-yard pass to WR Brandon Lloyd early in the second quarter. That play pushed the 49ers deep inside St. Louis territory to help set up a 35-yard touchdown pass from QB Tim Rattay to Lloyd for the 49ers first points of the game. After stopping the Rams on the next set of downs, Amey took his first NFL punt return 75 yards for a touchdown for a 14-6 lead. The 49ers scored their final second-quarter points after taking advantage of a short Rams punt that gave the 49ers a first down at the St. Louis 41-yard line. A 30-yard pass from Rattay to WR Johnnie Morton put the 49ers in position for Rattay's six-yard pass to Battle for a 21-6 49ers lead. The Rams executed a perfect two-minute offense to drive to the 49ers 15-yard line where K Jeff Wilkins kicked a 33-yard field goal at the buzzer for a 21-9 49ers halftime lead. The 49ers took the second half kick and drove 80 yards down the field before RB Kevan Barlow scored on the nine-yard line to push the 49ers to a 28-9 lead. The Rams responded with a 17-play, 56-yard drive that was stopped at the San Francisco 23-yard line before another Wilkins field goal made it 28-12 heading into the final quarter of play. The Rams scored 13 points in the fourth quarter to close the lead to 28-25. St. Louis continued to threaten, advancing to the San Francisco 38-yard line with 59 seconds to play when Adams clinched the victory for the 49ers with his interception.

PHILADELPHIA 42, SAN FRANCISCO 3
At Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia
September 18, 2005

The Philadelphia Eagles dominated the San Francisco 49ers in every statistical category in a 42-3 win at Lincoln Financial Field. QB Donovan McNabb completed 23-of-29 passes for 342 yards and five touchdown passes as the Eagles built a 28-0 halftime lead en route to victory. Former 49ers WR Terrell Owens caught five passes for 143 yards, including two touchdown passes. The Eagles defense held the 49ers to a mere eight first downs, 142 total yards and intercepted QB Tim Rattay three times. The 49ers held the ball for 22:03 and had only four drives that went longer than three plays. Philadelphia scored on their third play from scrimmage when McNabb scrambled out of the pocket under a heavy pass rush and hit Owens behind the 49ers defense for a 68-yard touchdown pass and a quick 7-0 lead. The Eagles scored two touchdowns from two of Rattay's three first half interceptions to help build their lead. Rattay had a wide open RB Frank Gore streaking down the sidelines but was intercepted by LB Dhani Jones to help set up the Eagles second score in the first quarter. McNabb completed five-of-six passes on a seven-play, 70-yard drive that was culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from McNabb to TE L.J. Smith for a 14-0 lead. A 42-yard touchdown pass from McNabb to Owens lifted the Eagles to a 21-0 advantage in the second quarter. Rattay was intercepted for the second time at the San Francisco 36-yard line by CB Lito Sheppard, who ran the theft back 34 yards to the two-yard line where McNabb connected with RB Brian Westbrook for a two-yard touchdown and a 28-0 lead. Rattay was intercepted for the third time on the ensuing drive, and the Eagles marched to the San Francisco 12-yard line before DE Marques Douglas forced McNabb to fumble on a sack to prevent the Eagles from extending their lead. The 49ers only productive drive of the game came in the third quarter when they drove 43 yards on 11 plays to set up a 32-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney. The Eagles responded with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a six-yard touchdown pass from McNabb to WR Greg Lewis for a 35-3 lead. The Eagles scored for the final time on a drive that took over ten minutes of the fourth quarter and ended in a six-yard touchdown run by RB Lamar Gordon. Rookie QB Alex Smith made his NFL debut, playing the last series and throwing one incomplete pass.

GAME 3
DALLAS 34, SAN FRANCISCO 31
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
September 25, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers rolled to a 24-12 halftime lead including a 31-19 advantage to start the fourth quarter before the Dallas Cowboys scored 15 unanswered points en route to a 34-31 victory. After failing to get the offense going in the first two games of the season, the 49ers managed 124 yards on the ground for a 5.0 average, and QB Tim Rattay threw three touchdown passes, including two to WR Brandon Lloyd. Dallas rallied behind a strong performance by QB Drew Bledsoe, who threw for 363 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score. WR Terry Glenn picked the 49ers secondary for five receptions and 137 yards. The 49ers scored in the first quarter for the first time all season when Rattay completed an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown strike to WR Arnaz Battle to give the 49ers a 7-0 first-quarter lead. A total of 29 points were scored in the second quarter, with the 49ers scoring on both second quarter possessions and returning an interception for a touchdown. Following a Dallas touchdown and a missed extra point, Rattay completed an 89-yard touchdown pass to Lloyd for a 14-6 49ers lead. On Dallas' ensuing drive, S Tony Parrish intercepted a Bledsoe pass and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown and a 21-6 advantage. The Cowboys responded with an 84-yard touchdown drive to trim San Francisco's lead to 21-12 after Dallas failed on a two-point play. The 49ers drove to the Dallas three-yard line on the next drive but were forced to settle for a K Joe Nedney 20-yard field goal and a 24-12 halftime lead. Both teams scored touchdowns in the third quarter for a 31-19 49ers lead. But shortly after, Dallas retaliated from a 12-point deficit in the fourth quarter. Bledsoe connected on two big passes to Glenn to set up touchdowns. First, he hit Glenn for a 58-yard pass that put the Cowboys at the San Francisco 14-yard line to set up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Julius Jones early in the fourth quarter to close in at 31-26. Then, late in the fourth quarter, Bledsoe connected with Glenn on a 44-yard reception to give Dallas a first down at the 49ers 15-yard line. That play set up a 14-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Bledsoe and Johnson connected on a two-point play for a 34-31 lead with 1:48 left to play. Rattay was intercepted for the second time in the fourth quarter with 54 seconds to play to secure the Dallas victory.

GAME 4
ARIZONA 31, SAN FRANCISCO 14
At Arizona in Estadio Azteca, Mexico City, Mexico
October 2, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers and the Arizona Cardinals played in the first NFL regular-season game outside the United States in an ESPN Sunday Night match-up from Estadio Azteca in Mexico City, Mexico in front of over 103,000 fans. San Francisco jumped to a 14-0 lead before Arizona scored 31 unanswered points on eight straight possessions to take a 31-14 victory in an NFC West showdown. The 49ers jumped to a 14-0 first quarter lead on two fumbles that were returned for touchdowns. The Cardinals defense held the 49ers to just eight first downs, 168 total yards and allowed the 49ers to cross the 50-yard line just two times. The 49ers only offensive scoring threat came in the second quarter when they reached the Cardinals 45-yard line before WR Brandon Lloyd fumbled the ball to the Cardinals following a 14-yard gain. Arizona QB Josh McCown and wideouts Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald had big days. McCown completed 32-of-46 passes for 385 yards and two touchdowns. Boldin (8-116-1) and Fitzgerald (7-102-1) both had 100 yards receiving and a touchdown. K Neil Rackers scored on six field goals. The 49ers defense played hard, but was on the field for a lengthy 40 minutes and began to wear down in the second half. On the first play from scrimmage, DE Bryant Young forced McCown to fumble on a sack. The ball rolled to the 10 where LB Brandon Moore picked it up. Moore was hit at the one-yard line and then fumbled into the end zone where LB Derek Smith recovered for a quick 7-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, 49ers DE Travis Hall broke into the Arizona backfield and stripped RB Marcel Shipp of the ball. CB Derrick Johnson scooped up the ball and ran 78 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 San Francisco lead. Rackers had field goals of 40 yards and 45 yards. Then with 12 seconds to play in the first half McCown hit Fitzgerald in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown. A failed two-point play helped the 49ers secure a 14-12 halftime lead. The Cardinals scored 19 second half points on four Rackers field goals and a 27-yard touchdown pass from McCown to Boldin.

GAME 5
INDIANAPOLIS 28, SAN FRANCISCO 3
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
October 9, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers stayed on par with Indianapolis for three quarters of the game before a 14-point fourth quarter pulled the Colts to a 28-3 victory. Rookie QB Alex Smith made his first start, finishing with only nine completions and four interceptions. He was also sacked five times and lost a fumble on one of the sacks in the fourth quarter. The first of his three first half interceptions was returned 24 yards for a touchdown by LB Cato June early in the second quarter. Head Coach Mike Nolan did credit Smith's mobility as a factor in the 49ers ability to open up the running game. RB Kevan Barlow paced the 49ers with 99 of the team's 133 yards on the ground. Indianapolis took its first possession and marched 72 yards in seven-plays before RB Dominic Rhodes scored on a six-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Colts had a chance to go up 14-0 early in the second quarter but LB Jeff Ulbrich forced Rhodes to fumble at the one-yard line. The ball rolled into the end zone where S Mike Adams recovered for a touchback. Smith was intercepted on the 49ers next three series, including June's 24-yard touchdown return. Down 14-0 with just over two minutes to play in the first half, LB Derek Smith intercepted a QB Peyton Manning pass to give the 49ers a first down at the Indianapolis 47-yard line. The 49ers scoring threat ended when Alex Smith was intercepted by the Colts when he attempted to hit WR Arnaz Battle at the Colts 15-yard line. The 49ers tried to swing the momentum in the second half with a successful onsides kick that was recovered by RB Terry Jackson at the San Francisco 41-yard line. A two-yard run by RB Frank Gore on a fourth-and-one play from the 50-yard line, combined with a 20-yard run by Barlow, helped set up a 30-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney for the 49ers only points of the day. The 49ers failed to convert their second attempt at an onsides kick on the kickoff following the field goal, allowing the Colts a first down at the San Francisco 39-yard line. CB Bruce Thornton stayed step-in-step with WR Marvin Harrison on the next play and intercepted a pass in the end zone to prevent a touchdown. Alex Smith threw his fourth interception of the game on the next series after the 49ers reached the Indianapolis 37-yard line. The Colts scored 14 points in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach. RB Edgerrin James scored on a four-yard run to start the fourth quarter, and then Manning connected with WR Troy Walters on an 18-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-3.

GAME 6
WASHINGTON 52, SAN FRANCISCO 17
At FedEX Field, Landover, MD
October 23, 2005

The Washington Redskins gained 448 yards in total offense, scored in seven of their nine offensive drives and built a 35-7 halftime lead before beating the San Francisco 49ers 52-17 at FedEx Field. Redskins QB Mark Brunell (13-of-20 for 252 yards) threw for three touchdowns and RB Clinton Portis (19 attempts for 101 yards) ran for three touchdowns to help lead the Redskins to victory. The Redskins defense limited the 49ers to just nine first downs and kept rookie QB Alex Smith under constant pressure. Smith made his first NFL start on the road and was limited to just eight completions on 16 attempts for 92 yards. After spotting the Redskins a 14-0 lead early in the first quarter, Smith flashed his potential by rolling out of the pocket on a third-and-six situation and firing a 43-yard pass completion to WR Brandon Lloyd to give San Francisco a first down at the Washington 30-yard line. Two plays later, RB Kevan Barlow scored on a 17-yard run to cut the Redskins lead to 14-7 heading into the second quarter. Washington exploded for 21 unanswered points in the second quarter to put the game out of reach. The Redskins scored their first second quarter points on a one-yard Portis touchdown run after converting two third down attempts to keep the drive alive. On the Redskins next possession, RB Ladell Betts broke free for an 18-yard gain to get into San Francisco territory, putting the Redskins in position for a 32-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to WR Santana Moss. The Redskins scored their final points of the second quarter after LB Marcus Washington forced Smith to fumble on a sack deep in 49ers territory. On the Redskins first play following the turnover, Brunell connected with HB Mike Sellers for a 19-yard touchdown pass. The second half got off to an inauspicious start for San Francisco. After forcing the Redskins to punt on their first possession, the 49ers took over at their own 24-yard line. Alex Smith was intercepted by FS Sean Taylor who returned the ball to the San Francisco three-yard line to set up Portis' third touchdown to give Washington a 42-7 lead. A 45-yard field goal by K Nick Novak extended the Redskins lead to 45-7 heading into the final quarter. After Washington scored again in the fourth quarter to go ahead 52-7, the 49ers scored 10 points for a 52-17 final. The 49ers last points came when rookie RB Frank Gore bounced off a tackle and broke free for a 72-yard touchdown.

GAME 7
SAN FRANCISCO 15, TAMPA BAY 10
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
October 30, 2005

K Joe Nedney kicked five field goals to help the San Francisco 49ers snap a five-game losing streak with a 15-10 victory over the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Four of Nedney's field goals were from over 40 yards, scoring on kicks of 45, 47, 41 and 46 yards. The 49ers offense was able to grind out 158 yards on the ground, including a 101-yard rushing performance by RB Kevan Barlow. Tampa Bay entered the game with the fourth-best rushing offense in the NFL, but they were held to just 43 yards by a stingy 49ers defense. Tampa Bay QB Chris Simms was sacked five times, lost one fumble and threw two interceptions. DE Bryant Young helped the 49ers keep the lead with two fourth quarter sacks. Young's first sack forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Julian Peterson deep in Tampa Bay territory with under two minutes to play. After playing to a scoreless first quarter, Nedney was successful on a 45-yard attempt to gain a 3-0 advantage. The Buccaneers evened the score at 3-3 on the next series when they marched 61 yards on 10 plays to set up K Matt Bryant's 47-yard field goal with just 24 seconds left to play in the first half. RB Maurice Hicks returned the ensuing kickoff 30 yards to the San Francisco 42-yard line, and a 29-yard run by Barlow positioned the 49ers for Nedney's 47-yard field goal at the buzzer for a 6-3 halftime lead. Simms was intercepted on two straight drives in the third quarter that led to field goals to extend the 49ers lead to 12-3 heading into the final quarter. First, CB Shawntae Spencer intercepted a Simms pass midway through the period. His 24-yard return gave the 49ers a first down at the Tampa Bay 20-yard line to set up a 41-yard field goal by Nedney. On the Buccaneers next series, LB Brandon Moore intercepted a Simms pass that deflected off of a game official. That turnover set up a 46-yard field goal by Nedney. Tampa Bay closed the gap to 12-10 when Simms threw a short pass to WR Joey Galloway, who busted through the 49ers secondary and raced 78 yards for a touchdown. Nedney nailed his fifth field goal on a 28-yarder later in the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay had one last chance to attempt a comeback with 39 seconds to play, but Simms was sacked by Young on the final play of the game to secure a San Francisco win. QB Ken Dorsey started the game in place of QB Alex Smith, who was out with a knee injury. Dorsey left the game in the fourth quarter with an ankle sprain and was replaced by QB Cody Pickett.

GAME 8
NEW YORK GIANTS 24, SAN FRANCISCO 6
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
November 6, 2005

The New York Giants scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to turn a tight 10-6 game into a 24-6 victory, dropping the 49ers to a 2-6 record. A week after gaining 158 yards on the ground, the 49ers were held to just 52 yards rushing and 138 yards of total offense. QB Cody Pickett became the fourth 49ers quarterback to start a game due to the injuries to QB Alex Smith (knee) and QB Ken Dorsey (ankle). Pickett and the 49ers had chances offensively, but two mistakes helped turn the game for the Giants. Down 3-0 in the first quarter, Pickett threaded a perfect pass to TE Trent Smith who was streaking behind the Giants defenders with a clear path to the end zone. Smith failed to hold the ball and the pass fell incomplete. Then, with just under two minutes to play in the second quarter and the Giants still holding on to a 3-0 lead, Pickett appeared to complete a 31-yard pass to WR Brandon Lloyd on a one-handed, behind the head grab that gave the 49ers a first down at the Giants two-yard line. The play was negated by an offensive holding call by T Anthony Clement. Two more penalties pushed the 49ers back to the San Francisco 47-yard line and then Pickett tried to create a play on a scramble and was intercepted by Giants FS Brent Alexander who lateraled to CB Will Allen for a 20-yard gain to the 49ers 41-yard line with 52 seconds to play. Giants QB Eli Manning threw a nine-yard completion to TE Jeremy Shockey on first down and then threw two consecutive incomplete passes to set up a fourth-and-one situation with 23 seconds to play in the first half. Manning caught the 49ers in between coverages on the fourth-down play and completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to Shockey for a 10-0 halftime advantage. The 49ers got on the scoreboard in the third quarter with two K Joe Nedney field goals. Nedney connected on a 48-yarder to cap the 49ers opening drive of the second quarter, and then hit a 52-yarder on the 49ers next offensive series. Giants RB Brandon Jacobs sealed two Giants touchdown drives in the fourth quarter with one-yard scoring runs for a 24-6 final.

GAME 9

CHICAGO 17, SAN FRANCISCO 9

At Soldier Field, Chicago, IL
November 13, 2005

Winds that reached up 47 miles per hour at Soldier Field caused havoc for the San Francisco 49ers and Chicago Bears. The twisting winds forced both teams to play a battle of field position which eventually turned into a 17-9 Bears victory. The 49ers completed just one of 13 pass attempts, while Chicago completed only eight passes for 67 yards. The harsh lake front winds played a factor in two missed field goals and three fumbled punts by Chicago. The same winds helped cause a 52-yard field goal attempt by the 49ers to fall short. In an unusual play that has only occurred 14 times in the history of the NFL, the short field goal was returned 108 yards for a touchdown by Chicago at the end of the first half. With the score still close in the fourth quarter, rookie WR Rasheed Marshall misplayed a punt that got caught in the wind. His fumble deep in San Francisco territory helped lead to the Bears final points with just over seven minutes to play. Late in the first quarter, Chicago reached the San Francisco 21-yard line where they attempted a 39-yard field goal. The snap swirled in the wind, but P Brad Maynard still managed to get the ball in position for the kick. Maynard's attempt appeared to be sailing straight until a strong gust pushed the ball wide to the right. The 49ers recovered the first of three WR Bobby Wade fumbled punts early in the second quarter and capitalized with a 30-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney. The Bears responded by taking the ensuing kick and marching to the San Francisco nine-yard line where they attempted a field goal. Once again the wind took control of the snap, but this time Maynard aborted the play with a desperation pass downfield that fell incomplete. The 49ers recovered another fumbled punt with 2:31 left to play in the first half, giving the 49ers a first down at their own 35-yard line. San Francisco moved to the Chicago 34-yard line with three seconds to play where Nedney was set to attempt a 52-yard field goal attempt. The kick appeared to have the distance before the wind pushed the ball down short of the goal post. Bears CB Nathan Vasher caught the field goal attempt and weaved through the 49ers defenders on his way to a 108-yard touchdown return as time expired in the first half for a 7-3 Chicago lead. The 49ers opened the second half with a 10-play, 61-yard drive that ended in a 34-yard field goal by Nedney to close the Chicago lead to 7-6. The scoring drive was helped by a 28-yard pass from QB Cody Pickett to WR Brandon Lloyd on a third-and-five play. A 34-yard run by RB Adrian Peterson followed by two costly penalties against the 49ers on offense helped set up a seven-yard touchdown run by Peterson early in the fourth quarter for a 14-6 Bears lead. The 49ers recovered a third muffed punt by the Bears at the Chicago two-yard line, but a series of penalties forced the 49ers to settle for a field goal. Chicago recovered a 49ers fumbled punt at the 24-yard line late in the fourth quarter, leading to a field goal and a 17-9 victory.

GAME 10
SEATTLE 27, SAN FRANCISCO 25
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
November 20, 2005

The emotion of a Hall of Fame ring presentation to Steve Young during a special halftime ceremony was not enough to carry the 49ers to victory in a hard-fought 27-25 loss to the first-place Seattle Seahawks. QB Ken Dorsey rallied the 49ers from a 15-point deficit in the fourth quarter, leading his team on a six-minute drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Maurice Hicks to bring the 49ers within a two-point conversion of tying the Seahawks at 27-27 with just 27 seconds remaining. On the two-point play, Dorsey attempted to hit WR Johnnie Morton in the back of the end zone, but the pass fell incomplete. K Joe Nedney attempted an onsides kick that Seattle recovered to secure the victory. The 49ers offense rolled up a season-high 336 yards of total offense behind a strong day by Dorsey, Hicks and WR Brandon Lloyd. Dorsey completed 18-of-29 passes for 249 yards and one touchdown for a 101.1 quarterback rating. Hicks, playing in place of an injured RB Frank Gore (hip/groin) and RB Kevan Barlow (concussion), broke free for a 50-yard gain on his first touch in the third quarter and powered his way for 83 total rushing yards. Lloyd had his third career 100-yard receiving game after finishing with seven catches for 119 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown from Dorsey early in the fourth quarter. The 49ers drove deep into Seattle territory three times in the first half but could not find the end zone and were down 17-9 at the half. After closing the gap to 17-12 with Nedney's fourth field goal of the day in the third quarter, Seattle RB Shaun Alexander broke free for a 40-yard gain on a third-and-two situation to set up a touchdown and a 24-12 lead. The 49ers fumbled the ensuing kickoff, and Seattle converted the turnover into a field goal to extend their lead to 27-12. The 49ers offense and defense stepped up in the fourth quarter. Seattle entered the game with just 19 three-and-out plays in the first nine games of the season. The 49ers defense held them to three-and-out on all four of their fourth-quarter offensive drives. Seattle netted just 16 yards and had no first downs in the final quarter of play. The 49ers offense produced two touchdown drives to make for the dramatic finish. Dorsey ended a three-game touchdown drought for the 49ers with a 22-yard strike to Lloyd in the beginning of the fourth quarter to close the gap to 27-19. The 49ers got the ball back with 6:07 to play. Dorsey completed 6-of-8 passes for 77 yards, including two third-and-long passes, to keep the drive alive before Hicks scored on a one-yard run to get within two of tying the game.

GAME 11
TENNESSEE 33, SAN FRANCISCO 22
At The Coliseum, Nashville, TN
November 27, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers could not hold on to a 14-9 halftime lead, allowing Tennessee to take control of the game after scoring 21 third quarter points en route to a 33-22 Titans win. The 49ers played well in the first half and seemed to have the momentum after CB Shawntae Spencer returned an interception 62 yards for a touchdown with just :38 seconds to play before halftime to give San Francisco a 14-9 lead. Tennessee QB Steve McNair, who finished the day with 343 yards passing and three touchdown passes, directed a big third quarter that helped give Tennessee the win. McNair completed 5-of-7 passes for 142 yards and three touchdowns in the third quarter. McNair completed touchdown passes of 41 and 50 yards within 80 seconds of each other on Tennessee's first two offensive plays in the second half. The San Francisco defense opened the second half by holding the Titans on three straight plays, forcing them to punt from deep in their own territory. WR Otis Amey muffed the punt return and Tennessee took over at the San Francisco 41-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, McNair connected with RB Chris Brown on a short pass that was turned into a 41- yard touchdown. The 49ers were held on the ensuing drive, and a punt by P Andy Lee was returned 19 yards by Titans rookie CB Pacman Jones for a first down at midfield. On the next play, McNair completed a 50 yard touchdown pass to WR Roydell Williams down the right sideline for a 23-14 lead. McNair culminated an eight-play, 68-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown pass to TE Erron Kinney on the Titans next drive for a 30-14 advantage. McNair kept the drive alive with a 38-yard pass to Williams on a third-and-five play to give Tennessee a first down deep in San Francisco territory. The 49ers went three-and-out in all four drives in the third quarter, gained no first downs and netted just 17 yards. After Tennessee added a field goal in the fourth quarter to take a 33-14 lead, the 49ers mounted a 15-play, 82-yard drive that ended when QB Ken Dorsey completed a 17-yard touchdown pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a fourth-down play. Dorsey and RB Terry Jackson connected on the two-point play to cut the Titans lead to 33-22 with 1:15 to play. K Jose Cortez's onsides kick attempt was recovered by CB Derrick Johnson, but the 49ers drive ended when Dorsey was stripped of the football with five seconds remaining. RB Kevan Barlow had a 75-yard touchdown run in the second quarter nullified by a holding call.

GAME 12
ARIZONA 17, SAN FRANCISCO 10
At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA
December 4, 2005

Arizona Cardinals explosive WR Anquan Boldin broke numerous tackles on a 54-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. The play turned out to be the game winner as the Cardinals defeated San Francisco 17-10 in Monster Park. Down 10-9 and facing a third-and-20 situation, Cardinals QB Kurt Warner completed a short pass to Boldin, who then broke free for the score. A successful two-point play put Arizona in front 17-10 in the fourth quarter to seal the game. The 49ers final two offensive drives ended in interceptions to secure the Cardinals victory. Rookie QB Alex Smith returned to the starting lineup following a knee injury and responded with a solid first half. He completed 11-of-12 passes for 138 yards, including completions on his first eight attempts. Smith showed his true potential during a second quarter scoring drive that gave San Francisco a 7-3 lead. He completed two consecutive 24-yard passes to WR Johnnie Morton to get to the Arizona 37-yard line. Two plays later, the Cardinals flushed Smith out of the pocket. Smith recovered from the broken play and fired a 31-yard strike to RB Frank Gore at the Arizona two-yard line. That play set up a one-yard touchdown run by RB Maurice Hicks. Arizona scored two field goals in the third quarter before K Joe Nedney, who returned from a groin and hip injury put the 49ers in front 10-9, with a 48-yard field goal. The Cardinals opened the third quarter with an eight-play, 55-yard drive that ended in a 35-yard field goal. On the 49ers first offensive play from scrimmage in the second half, Smith was intercepted by LB James Darling for an Arizona first down at the San Francisco 29-yard line to set up a Cardinals field goal for a 9-7 lead. S Keith Lewis helped put the 49ers in position for Nedney's field goal when he blocked a punt that gave the 49ers a first down at the Arizona 26-yard line. Later, Lewis intercepted a Warner pass to give the 49ers a first down at the San Francisco 45-yard line, but on the first play from scrimmage Gore fumbled the ball back to Arizona. Three plays later, Warner hit Bolden for the go-ahead touchdown. Warner passed for 354 yards and Boldin (11-156-1TD) and WR Larry Fitzgerald (8-129) had success against an inexperienced 49ers secondary.

GAME 13

SEATTLE 41, SAN FRANCISCO 3

At Qwest Field, Seattle, WA

December 11, 2005

The Seattle Seahawks dominated the 49ers in a 41-3 victory at Qwest Field to drop San Francisco to a 2-11 record. Seattle QB Matt Hasselbeck picked apart the 49ers young secondary, completing 21-of-25 passes for 226 yards and four touchdowns. Hasselbeck threw three touchdown passes in the first half to give the Seahawks a 24-3 halftime lead. San Francisco struggled on both sides of the ball, allowing 438 total yards and 31 first downs, while gaining only 113 total yards and eight first downs. Seattle opened the game with an eight-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 28-yard touchdown pass to WR Bobby Engram. The 49ers responded with an 11-play, 43-yard drive that ended with a 39-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney to cut the lead to 7-3. Seattle scored 31 points in the second and third quarters to put the game out of reach. Seattle scored on their first two plays of the second quarter to take a 21-3 lead and end any momentum the 49ers had. The 49ers had Seattle pinned deep in their own territory on their second possession of the game and forced the Seahawks into a third-and-six situation. LB Derek Smith forced Hasselbeck to hurry a pass that fell incomplete, but was flagged for roughing the passer to give Seattle a first down to keep their drive alive. Hasselbeck capitalized by driving the Seahawks to the San Francisco eight-yard line before completing a touchdown pass to TE Jerramy Stevens on the first play of the second quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, 49ers QB Alex Smith fumbled the exchange on a handoff to RB Kevan Barlow and Seattle took over at the San Francisco 21-yard line. On the next play, Hasselbeck floated a pass in the end zone to WR Joe Jurevicius who used his 6-5 frame to out-muscle CB Shawntae Spencer for the touchdown and a 21-3 lead. Seattle intercepted Smith on the next series and turned the turnover into a 52-yard field goal to take the 24-3 halftime lead. Seattle added two touchdowns in the third quarter to take a commanding 38-3 lead before the Seahawks' reserves added a fourth-quarter field goal for a 41-3 final. Smith struggled against the Seattle defense, completing just 9-of-22 passes for 77 yards.

Game 14
JACKSONVILLE 10, SAN FRANCISCO 9
At Alltel Stadium, Jacksonville, FL
December 18, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers lost 10-9 to Jacksonville in what Head Coach Mike Nolan termed the most physical game of the season. The 49ers entered the game with six rookies in the starting lineup, including four on offense. Rookie RB Frank Gore started in place of the injured RB Kevan Barlow (knee) and gained over 100 combined yards with 79 yards rushing and 57 yards receiving. His most impressive play was at the end of the first half when he caught a screen pass from QB Alex Smith and raced down the right sideline for a 47-yard gain to the Jacksonville 30-yard line to set up a 47-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney with one second left in the first half. The 49ers opened the game with an eight-play, 80-yard drive that ended in the first of three Nedney field goals for a 3-0 lead. A big defensive play helped the 49ers take the 3-0 lead into the second quarter. On fourth-and-one from the San Francisco six-yard line, DE Marques Douglas stopped FB Greg Jones for no gain and the 49ers took over on downs. Jacksonville converted two third-down plays on a 71-yard drive in the second quarter that ended when QB David Garrard broke free from LB Julian Peterson on his way to a 13-yard touchdown for a 7-3 lead. The 49ers regained possession deep in their own territory with just 24 seconds left to play in the first half. Instead of taking a knee and allowing time to run out, the 49ers attempted a high percentage screen pass with the hopes of being able to break one for a big play. A pass from Smith to Gore in the right flat went for a 47-yard gain, with Gore sprinting down the sideline to the Jacksonville 30-yard line with six seconds left to play. Nedney nailed a 47-yard field goal for a 7-6 halftime deficit. After a scoreless third quarter, the 49ers took a 9-7 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter with a 33-yard field goal by Nedney. Smith completed a 28-yard pass to WR Johnnie Morton to get the 49ers in field goal range. Jacksonville responded by taking the ensuing kick and advancing on a 10-play, 47-yard drive that ended in a 32-yard field goal for a 10-9 lead. The Jaguars drive was aided when Nedney's kickoff went out of bounds, allowing Jacksonville to start the drive at their own 40-yard line. The 49ers gained just 15 yards on their next four drives and committed one turnover when Smith was intercepted. Smith didn't have his usual help with leading receiver WR Brandon Lloyd lost in the second half with a sprained neck and wideout WR Arnaz Battle inactive with a knee injury.

GAME 15
SAN FRANCISCO 24, ST. LOUIS 20
At Edward Jones Dome, St. Louis, MO
December 24, 2005

The San Francisco 49ers earned a series sweep of NFC West-rival St. Louis with a 24-20 victory at the Edward Jones Dome. RB Maurice Hicks set the tone with a 73-yard touchdown run on the game's first play from scrimmage to give the 49ers a quick 7-0 lead. The 49ers ground game gained 217 yards with Hicks pounding out 109 yards and RB Frank Gore gaining 68 yards including touchdown runs of 10 yard and 30 yards. QB Alex Smith finished with his best statistical game of the season, completing 12-of-16 passes for 131 yards. After falling behind, 20-7 due to a 17-point second quarter by the Rams, Smith led the 49ers on two scoring drives in the final 1:19 of the second quarter to cut the St. Louis lead to 20-17 at halftime. The 49ers started a drive at their own 26-yard line with 3:26 left to play in the first half. Smith went 5-of-5 for 57 yards to drive the 49ers to the St. Louis 10-yard line, setting up a 10-yard touchdown run by Gore to cut the Rams lead to 20-14. The Rams got the ball back and were attempting to run out the clock but Head Coach Mike Nolan utilized his timeouts and the 49ers got the ball back at their 40-yard line with just 17 seconds to play. Smith completed a 22-yard pass to WR Jason McAddley to push the 49ers into St. Louis territory at the 38-yard line where K Joe Nedney tied a team record with a career-high 56-yard field goal for a 20-17 halftime score. The 49ers secondary suffered game-ending injuries to both of their cornerbacks, forcing LB Julian Peterson to move into the secondary in several situations. Despite yielding 354 yards in the air, the defense held the Rams to just 44 yards rushing. The Rams had three long drives in the second half, but two ended in interceptions and one was stopped on a fourth-and-one attempt from the San Francisco 22-yard line. After a scoreless third quarter, the Rams went on a 12-play, 74-yard drive that ended when Rams QB Jamie Martin was intercepted by CB Shawntae Spencer in the end zone on the first play in the fourth quarter. The Rams drove to the 49ers 22-yard line on the next series, but elected to attempt a fourth-down play that was stopped short of the first down marker by LB Derek Smith and NT Anthony Adams. A combination of Hicks and Gore runs helped move the 49ers to the Rams 30-yard line where Gore broke tackles along the way for his second touchdown to give San Francisco a 24-20 lead. St. Louis had a chance when they started their next drive at the 18-yard line with 4:05 left to play. The Rams moved to the San Francisco 31-yard line with 1:14 to play before S Ben Emanuel intercepted Martin, allowing the 49ers to run out the final 59 seconds to secure the victory.

GAME 16

SAN FRANCISCO 20, HOUSTON 17 (overtime)

At Monster Park, San Francisco, CA

January 1, 2006

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10-0 first-quarter deficit for a 20-17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4-12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21-yard line. After two short runs, K Joe Nedney nailed a 33-yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20-17 victory. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10-10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17-10. Houston took advantage of good field position in the first quarter to take the 10-0 lead. P Andy Lee struggled in the 30-mile per hour winds, shanking a punt that allowed Houston to start a drive at the San Francisco 21-yard line to set up a field goal. The 49ers next drive ended when Lee's punt from his own 25-yard line was blocked, allowing Houston to begin a drive at the 49ers 17-yard line. Houston responded with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Vernand Morency.

2005 AWARD WINNING 49ERS

NFC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

BRYANT YOUNG—Defensive Player of the Week (Week One)—Bryant Young led the way defensively for the 49ers in an exciting 28-25 win over the NFC West-rival St. Louis Rams at Monster Park. The four-time Pro Bowler totaled four tackles and a Kickoff Weekend-best 3.0 sacks, resulting in losses of 20 yards. Young's three-sack effort tied a career high and was his 18th career multiple sack game. The last 49er to post 3.0 sacks was Chris Doleman on November 8, 1998 (3.5) against Carolina while the last time a 49er posted 3.0 sacks in Week 1 was Jeff Stover in 1986.

JOE NEDNEY—Special Teams Player of the Week (Week Eight)—Joe Nedney set a CAREER-HIGH with five field goals in San Francisco's 15-10 win over Tampa Bay (10-30-05). Four of Nedney's five field goals were from 40-plus yards (45, 47, 41 and 46), the most ever in a single game from the 40-49-yard range for Nedney. This is the seventh time that he has won Special Teams Player of Week honors. Nedney's five field goals are one shy of the 49ers team record. Jeff Wilkins had six field goals vs. Atlanta (9-29-96) and Ray Wersching had six at New Orleans (10-16-83). Nedney became the first player in NFL history to win the award with five different teams (Miami, Arizona, Carolina, Tennessee and San Francisco).

GARRY NIVER AWARD

JULIAN PETERSON—Given annually to the 49ers player who is most professional with the media.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

JEREMY NEWBERRY—Center Jeremy Newberry was chosen by his teammates as the 2005 Ed Block Courage Award recipient. The award, given to the player that exemplifies a commitment to sportsmanship and courage, is the second for Newberry. Newberry returned for the 2005 campaign after spending the off-season rehabilitating knee and back injuries that kept him out of action for all but one game in 2004. Newberry was placed on injured reserve in late November after appearing in and starting in 10 games while playing through knee and shoulder pain for most of this season. He was honored along with a Courage Award winner from each NFL team March 5-7, 2006 in Baltimore, MD.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

BRYANT YOUNG—Bryant Young was named the recipient of the 49th annual Len Eshmont Award. The team's most prestigious honor is given annually to the 49ers player who best exemplifies inspiration and courage. The award was established in 1957 in memory of Len Eshmont, an original member of the 49ers 1946 team who died in 1957. Young becomes the first six-time winner of the award. He won it in 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2004.

BILL WALSH AWARD

JOE NEDNEY AND DEREK SMITH—Joe Nedney, a nine-year veteran had an outstanding season in 2005. He was 26-of-28 on field goal attempts in his first season with the 49ers after missing the last two years with injuries. Derek Smith, another nine-year veteran has continued his dominant ways as the lead tackler on the 49ers defense. He reached the 100-tackle mark for the ninth straight year, finishing with 163 tackles (106 solo) in 2005.

The Bill Walsh Award was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979-88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102-63-1 and led the team to three Super Bowls. He was twice named Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s. The award, which is voted on by coaches only, is given to the 49ers team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual annual performance.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

JEREMY NEWBERRY—Jeremy Newberry was named the recipient of the 2005 Bobb McKittrick Award. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999 in honor of longtime offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick. The award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers. Newberry finished the 2005 season snapping to four different quarterbacks over a 10-game starting span as the leader of a young offensive line. This is the third time Newberry has won the award. He also won the honor in 2000 and 2003.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

BRYANT YOUNG—Bryant Young had three multiple sack games on the season and 20 on his career. He finished with two sacks against Tampa Bay (10-30-05), three sacks vs. St. Louis (9-11-05) and two sacks at Arizona (10-2-05). Young finished 2005 with 43 tackles, 8 sacks, 1.5 forced fumbles and one passed defensed.

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named for linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27
NFL Divisional Playoff
December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco made its first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but came up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

'70 49ers 17, Minnesota 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium (Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one-yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17-14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24-yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16-of-32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

Dallas Cowboys 17, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on a 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add to its final score on its next possession with a 26-yard Brodie-to-WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

49ers 24, Washington Redskins 20
NFC Divisional Playoff
December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49ers possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered it for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted its first postseason win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49ers cause was CB Ronnie Lott, who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana, who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

'81 49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27
NFC Championship
January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting end for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21
Super Bowl XVI
January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21

NFC Championship

January 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins went three-and-out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

49ers 21, New York Giants 10

NFC Divisional Playoff

December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship Game with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark, on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49ers defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

'84 49ers 23, Chicago Bears 0
NFC Championship
January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49ers defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries and scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, Montana was named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second quarter. On the next 49ers possession, Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and added two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49ers postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record, that he shares with five other players, with three touchdown receptions. He scored on receptions of two, four and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49ers defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defensed. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3
NFC Championship
January 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26 below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game-high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3
NFC Championship
January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49ers defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned its fourth trip to the Super Bowl of the decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship Game.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49ers offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig, who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10
Super Bowl XXIV
January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49ers offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49ers defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco its first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49ers defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49ers defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13
NFC Championship
January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giants defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49ers K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at its own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49ers fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giants 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49ers 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49ers lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on its final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niners defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

'92 Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20
NFC Championship
January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboys lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49ers defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

49ers 44, New York Giants 3
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49ers attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49ers defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

NFC Championship
January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmit Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored its second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49ers defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28
NFC Championship
January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into another touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship Game win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 31-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

'94 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

'95 Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0

NFC Wild Card

December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

'96 Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine-degrees) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19-of-36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10

NFC Championship

January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

'98 49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at its own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packers 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes with eight seconds to play. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

'01 Green Bay Packers 25, 49ers 15

NFC Wild Card

January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field.

With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco picked up two first downs as they moved the ball down to the Green Bay 16-yard line, where the drive stalled. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0 early in the second quarter. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst carried the ball three times for 13 yards, including a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead.

On their first possession of the second half, the Packers took over on their own 20-yard line. They moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26-yard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7. The 49ers picked up one first down on their next drive before punting for the fifth time of the game. The Packers were forced into a three-and-out and San Francisco took over at its own 39-yard line. The 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

'02 49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the San Francisco 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game.

The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens.

The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle.

Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. After New York was penalized for illegal men downfield, San Francisco leaped, sprinted and collapsed onto the field in a raucous celebration before an exhausted home crowd.

The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Only Buffalo's 32-point comeback in a 41-38 victory over Houston in January 1993 was by a larger margin in the postseason.

Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards.

The Giants won four straight to make the postseason and dominated the first 40 minutes. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving.

San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score.

After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-yard field goal with 7:49 left.

Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left.

Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

'02 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium (Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31-6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium.

The 49ers trailed 28-6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory.

Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

San Francisco answered with a 12-play, 63-yard drive capped by a 24-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30-yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia.

Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12-yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out.

Alstott added another two-yard touchdown run to end the first half and K Martin Gramatica added a 19-yard field goal to close the scoring for both teams.

LB Derek Smith led San Francisco with a game-high 14 tackles. LB Julian Peterson and LB Jeff Ulbrich added 11 tackles apiece. CB Rashad Holman led a banged up secondary with one interception. The unit was minus starting CB Jason Webster, who was inactive with an ankle injury. CB Ahmed Plummer left the game when he separated his right shoulder and did not return. FS Zack Bronson left the game in the third quarter when he aggravated his broken foot and SS Tony Parrish played the contest with a dislocated elbow.

LB Shelton Quarles led Tampa Bay with nine tackles and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Derrick Brooks added seven tackles and one interception.

OVERTIME GAMES

October 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on its previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

December 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued into the second half and the score remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line where Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

November 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime. But a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the score. The 49ers tied it up in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team would score again in regulation and the game went to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss, but were unable to move the ball, giving it back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from its own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints 16, where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck first on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

December 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss, but failed to pick up a first down on its first possession. San Francisco took the ball on its own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning 36-yard field goal by Ray Wersching.

October 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter, the Vikings Issiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

October 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took an early 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco maintained its lead in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime, but could not produce a score as the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

December 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass to Craig Taylor. San Francisco answered back on its next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the second half. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati, 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled and they would not regain possession until only 4:11 remained in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won its first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer's 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

January 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38-yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20-yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

October 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on another Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on its own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

November 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

November 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Washington's Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19 and 48 yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41 yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78 yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

September 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with 32 seconds remaining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of its second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

December 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting, high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, which covered 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards driving to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

December 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of its own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving to the Redskins 22-yard line before fumbling, which Washington recovered to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

October 8, 2000 - Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, but on fourth-and-10, Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

September 9, 2001 - San Francisco 16, Atlanta 13

The 49ers began the 2001 regular season in an exciting fashion, defeating the visiting Atlanta Falcons 16-13 in overtime. The 49ers trailed by seven points at halftime and began the fourth quarter with a 10-point deficit. A J.J. Stokes touchdown reception narrowed the gap before Jose Cortez's field goal attempt tied the game at 13 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the drive the 49ers faced a third-and-five when Jeff Garcia rifled a pass to Tai Streets, who raced 53 yards to the Falcons 23-yard line. Three plays later, Cortez nailed a 24-yard field goal to lift the 49ers to victory.

October 14, 2001 - San Francisco 37, Atlanta 31

The 49ers had their second overtime game of the 2001 season against the Falcons, sweeping Atlanta in the season series by winning 37-31. The 49ers rallied back from deficits of 20-7 at the half and 31-17 in the fourth quarter. The Falcons went up 14-0 early in the game. The 49ers put their first points of the game on the board in the second quarter when Jeff Garcia capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. The Falcons answered back with two field goals and went up 20-7 at halftime. San Francisco came back in the second half due to the hands of Terrell Owens. Owens, who did not catch a pass in the first half, roared back to catch nine passes for 183 yards and a career-high three touchdowns. The 49ers scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Atlanta answered back in the fourth quarter. After a 49ers touchdown, at the hands of Kevan Barlow, and a touchdown by the Falcons, the 49ers were down 31-24 with just 2:22 remaining in the game. Garcia calmly led the team on a 10-play, 72-yard drive when he hooked up with Owens from 17 yards out for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the game was tied at 31 with just 21 seconds remaining. The 49ers won the toss in overtime and drove to the Falcons 14-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, a mishandled snap between Garcia and Dave Fiore, who was filling in at center for an injured Jeremy Newberry, was recovered by the Falcons and their offense took over. The 49ers defense rose to the challenge, forcing Atlanta into a three-and-out possession. After the punt, San Francisco began its second overtime drive from its own 33-yard line. After picking up one first down, Garcia faced third-and-five when he connected with Owens, who raced 52 yards up the sideline for his third touchdown and the 37-31 overtime victory.

October 28, 2001 - Chicago 37, San Francisco 31

The 49ers had their second consecutive overtime game and their third of the 2001 season as they dropped a 37-31 decision to the Chicago Bears. San Francisco went up early in the first quarter after Bryant Young forced a fumble, which Julian Peterson scooped up and returned 26 yards for the touchdown. The 49ers struck again when Jeff Garcia hooked up with Justin Swift for a one-yard touchdown and the 14-0 lead. The Bears answered back with a safety and a touchdown, making the score 14-9 at the half. In the third quarter, the 49ers struck first when Garrison Hearst scored his first touchdown since 12-14-98 on a 60-yard bomb from Garcia. The Bears offense then took over and drove down to the 49ers 10-yard line where Zack Bronson intercepted a Shane Mathews pass and returned it a team-record 97 yards for the touchdown. After a Chicago touchdown and a 49ers field goal, the score was 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. The Bears then racked up 15 unanswered points on two touchdown drives to tie the game at 31 and send it into overtime. The 49ers won the coin toss and the offense took over. On the first play from scrimmage, Garcia was intercepted by Mike Brown, who raced 33 yards for the touchdown and the 37-31 victory for Chicago.

November 18, 2001 - San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth ovetime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25-22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see-saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24-yard pass, but the two-point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19-14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22-14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34-yard line and began the two-minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven-yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22-20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two-point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26-yard line. Garcia completed three-of-four passes for 27 yards, including a crucial fourth down conversion, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine-yard line. Jose Cortez came on for the game-winning field goal from 26 yards out, splitting the uprights to give the 49ers the 25-22 overtime victory.

The 49ers visited the Oakland Raiders and turned in an exciting performance. Tied at 13 entering the fourth quarter, the game see-sawed back and forth before heading into overtime. San Francisco scored first in the fourth quarter when Jeff Garcia connected with Tai Streets for a three-yard touchdown to take the lead at 20-13. Oakland answered after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Raiders got the ball at their own 40-yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth-and-three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13-play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27-yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. The 49ers won the toss and launched another impressive drive, this one 17 plays in length. It was there that Cortez lined up for the game-winning 23-yard field goal that sailed through the uprights. All totaled, the 49ers held onto the ball for the final 30 plays of the game.

September 14, 2003 – St. Louis 27, San Francisco 24

In an early-season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24-17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game-tying 13-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29-yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48-yard line. After a one-yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were penalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. Marc Bulger then completed two straight passes which brought St. Louis to the 49ers 10-yard line. Jeff Wilkins then came on and hit the winning 28-yard field goal.

October 26, 2003 – Arizona 16, San Francisco 13

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. With five seconds remaining in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game-winning 50-yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22-yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game-winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. The kick sailed through the uprights and the Cardinals notched the 16-13 victory.

The 49ers recorded their first overtime win of the season and also their first road win of 2003 with a 31-28 victory over Philadelphia. The two teams traded points back and forth heading into the final quarter. The 49ers kicked a 25-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Philadelphia's lead to 21-20. On San Francisco's next possession, Kevan Barlow ran for 26 of his career-high 154 total yards and scored from one-yard out to give the 49ers a 26-21 lead. The two-point conversion attempt was successful and the 49ers had a seven-point lead with five minutes remaining in the game. The Eagles answered with a 10-play drive, adding seven points to tie the game on a Todd Pinkston touchdown grab with a little over a minute remaining in regulation. Philadelphia won the overtime coin toss and started its drive at its own 21-yard line. On the first play in the extra period, Tony Parrish, who notched an interception on the game's first drive, intercepted another pass and ran it back to the Eagles four-yard line. Todd Peterson then came out and nailed the 22-yard game-winning field goal.

QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victories in a 31-28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER-HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career-high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30-yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

January 1, 2006 – San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10-0 first quarter deficit for a 20-17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4-12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10-10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17-10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21-yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33-yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20-17 victory.

History

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS
(NFL 1949-2005)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 - Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH OF THE YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC COACH OF THE YEAR award and all seven NFL COACH OF THE YEAR honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR, NFL OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE LINEMAN OF THE YEAR (NFL Players Association) and NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's number one all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 - The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus PLAYER OF THE YEAR, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

1991 - It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11-29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12-6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, 10-18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five-touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127.

Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first-team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record-setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team-record and was a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

2001 - The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all-star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316-of-504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third-year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career-high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000-yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE MONTH. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

2002 - The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC playoffs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5-1 division record and won their first division title since 1997.

The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career-high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed. San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17.

In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks.

WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career-high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12-8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career-high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

2003 - Head Coach Steve Mariucci is released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003.

The Erickson era started with a 7-9 record for the 49ers in 2003. The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games.

The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii.

On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2-1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

2004 - The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2-14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16-game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium.

The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff.

On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best-ever by a 49ers' tight end. WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career-best 417-yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16-point fourth-quarter deficit to win 31-28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team-record 38 passes en route to his first 400-yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi-sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career-high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third-longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season-ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second-year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second-year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career-high nine stops against Washington.

The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6-yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth-longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

2005 - The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows of the 2005 season as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4-12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail-biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston. The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL-record 103,467 fans.

Even though the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson).

On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28-25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket. WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100-yard single-game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and center.

Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi-sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all-time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co-MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100-yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish picked off two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each.

The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co-MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56-yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third-best ratio of touchbacks-to-punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75-yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first-ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation-wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California-Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All-America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D-Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league which would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 in the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

But as the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast-growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All-America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand-picking an inaugural roster that was comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17-7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34-14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21-7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9-5 their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8-4-2 record in 1947, 12-2 finish in 1948 and 10-4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3-9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7-4-1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of continuing with his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3-1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14-7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17-7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21-17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8-4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that has enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

MONSTER PARK (3COM/CANDLESTICK PARK)

(1971-present)

During the late 1950s San Francisco Mayor George Christopher envisioned a stadium in San Francisco. The only thing missing was the team. Both the Brooklyn Dodgers (MLB) and the New York Giants (MLB) decided to move to the West Coast. The Giants chose San Francisco and the Dodgers opted to go to Los Angeles.

That move put the wheels in motion and the stadium was set to be built at Candlestick point, located near the San Francisco Bay. After it was built the stadium was named Candlestick Park, because of its location. The Giants made their highly celebrated debut on April 12, 1960 against the St. Louis Cardinals. Vice President Richard Nixon threw out the first pitch, christening it as the "finest ballpark in America."

From then on history would be made at the fog-filled ballpark resting on the Bay. On May 4, 1966 Willie Mays broke the all-time home run record there and on July 18, 1971 he got his 3,000th hit at "The Stick."

Five months later the 49ers made their debut at Candlestick against the Los Angeles Rams. Through the years they have made right of Nixons' slogan. Candlestick is the only stadium in the country to have hosted six NFC Championship Games, three Western Division Championships, 12 NFC West Conference Games, two World Series, and two All-Star games.

After several years of weathering the Bay Area's brutal winds, Candlestick Park began deteriorating.

The mayor proposed for a new $50 million stadium. Although the city didn't grant him the new stadium, they did spend over $16.1 million stadium renovations and improvements.

The seating capacity increased from 45,000 seats to 59,000 and the Astroturf was replaced with real grass. The Giants and 49ers shared Candlestick Park until the 1999 MLB season when the Giants made the move to AT&T Park. In 1995, Candlestick was renamed 3 Com Park after 3 Com Corp. bought the naming rights.

Six years later 3 Com park was renamed Candlestick Park only to be bought by Monster Cable Products Inc. The stadium was renamed Monster Park in 2004 and it has been a mainstay in football ever since.

49ERS STADIUM–KEZAR STADIUM

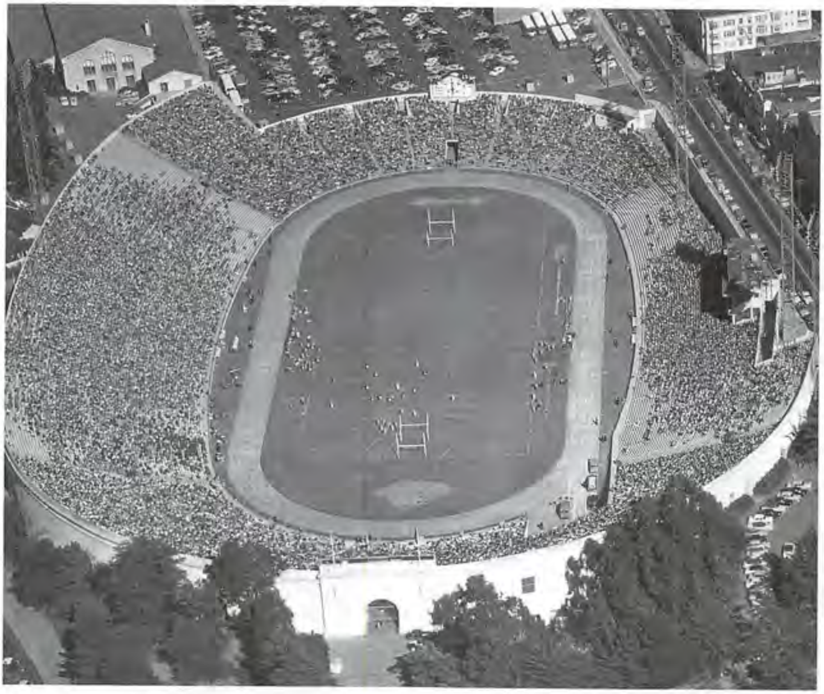
(1946-1971)

For 24 seasons, Kezar Stadium was the back drop that illuminated the tradition of the San Francisco 49ers. In 1922, $100,000 was accepted from the estate of Mary A. Kezar to erect a memorial to her mother and relatives. Once the San Francisco Park Commission accepted these funds and approved an additional $200,000 to build a new stadium, the dream began.

The first event ever held at Kezar was a 2-mile race between Willie Ratola and the World's greatest distant runner at the time, Pavo Nurmi of Finland on May 2, 1925.

Two world championship fights starring Jackie Fields vs. Young Corbett in 1932 and Rock Marciano vs. Don Cockell in 1955 were held at Kezar. Early on during the 1930s other events such as motorcycle races, rugby, soccer, lacrosse and auto racing took place at Kezar, but the 49ers would ultimately become synonymous with the legendary stadium when they moved their operation into its walls.

The 49ers first contest was against the New York Yankees on September 8, 1946. One tier of bleachers that could hold 59,942 was filled with fans ready to see the red and gold jerseys sprinkle the field. Although the 49ers lost the contest 21-7, this was a good sign of the things to come for the city of San Francisco. Twenty four years later the 49ers ended their run in the stadium on a high note. On January 3, 1971 the 49ers played their last contest at Kezar against the Dallas Cowboys in the NFC Championship game.



49ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

The 1940's saw the 49ers wear two different-colored helmets. In its inaugural season, 1946, the 49ers wore a plain white helmet. Gold helmets were first introduced in 1947 and were designed using a gold shell with red markings. The marking used is called a suspension pattern that can be found on many typical old leather helmets. The 1950's saw the 49ers start and end with the same shell color with two other colors mixed in between. The solid gold helmet was used from 1950-1952. 1953 brought yet another change in helmet color; red helmets with a silver stripe down the middle. This helmet was used until 1955 when that was dropped in favor of the original, white. The 1956 season was the only season the all white helmet was used. The close of the decade saw the team revert back to its '50s style, a solid gold helmet.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and committment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

2003 Jeremy Newberry
2004 Kyle Kosier
2005 Jeremy Newberry

C Jeremy Newberry was honored with the Bobb McKittrick Award in 2005 as the team's most courageous offensive lineman.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

2001	S Lance Shulters
2002	S Tony Parrish
2003	C Jeremy Newberry
2004	LB Jamie Winborn
2005	C Jeremy Newberry

C Jeremy Newberry was named the 2005 Ed Block Courage Award winner after returning for the 2005 campaign after spending the off-season rehabilitating knee and back injuries that kept him sidelined for all but one game in 2004. Newberry appeared and started in 10 games in 2005 while playing through knee and shoulder pain before he was placed on injured reserve.

BILL WALSH AWARD

The Bill Walsh Award was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979-88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102-63-1 and led the team to three Super Bowls. He was twice named Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s. The award, which is voted on by coaches only, is given to the 49ers team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual annual performance.

BILL WALSH AWARD WINNERS

2004	DE Bryant Young
2005	LB Derek Smith K Joe Nedney

K Joe Nedney and LB Derek Smith were selected by the 49ers coaches as co-MVP's in 2005

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

John Henry Johnson

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bob St. Clair

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

1993-Head Coach Bill Walsh (1979-88). Led "The Team of the '80s" to three Super Bowl titles (XVI, XIX, XXIII) in 10 years. Compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 mark that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. Notorious for his reputation of being an outstanding offensive coach, Walsh developed what is now known as the "West Coast Offense." Named NFL Coach of the Year in 1981 and '84. Attended San Jose State. Born November 30, 1931 in Los Angeles, CA.

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all-time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

Ronnie Lott

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-Time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

Dave Wilcox

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

Steve Young

2005-QB Steve Young (1987-99)-One of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history, standing as the most accurate passer in league history with a 96.8 quarterback rating. Ranks 17th all-time with 2,667 career completions, 19th all-time with 33,124 passing yards and 17th all-time with 232 touchdown passes. Dominating arm strength and mobility yielded 232 regular season touchdown tosses and 3,581 rushing yards during his years at Tampa Bay (1985-86) and San Francisco (1987-99). Recorded 28, 300-yard passing games during his prolific career, holding an NFL record for most consecutive 300-yard games with six in 1998. His 43 rushing touchdowns are the most by a quarterback in pro football history. Was a two-time NFL Most Valuable Player (1992 & 1994) and Super Bowl XXIX MVP. Earned seven consecutive Pro Bowl nominations (1992-98) and was All-Pro (1992-93). Six touchdown passes in Super Bowl XXIX victory over San Diego stands as Super Bowl record. SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

MARIE P. DEBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex to her in August of 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of the stadium), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Two natural grass practice fields with underground drainage and watering systems allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions. A synthetic turf practice field from Sportexe was installed in 2006 to maximize the team's versatility and safety on different playing surfaces. The field turf also enables the 49ers to make a smooth transition for practice if the natural grass becomes soggy from rain.

A two-story, 52,000 square foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, sales and marketing, business operations, public and community relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious locker room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps and training camp when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a digital projection unit, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities and a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), make the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the weight room is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

Murlan Fowell

Vice President/Operations

With his extensive knowledge of business management, Mo Fowell is entering his 21st year with the 49ers and his third as Vice President of Operations. Prior to his promotion, Fowell served as the Director of Stadium Operations for the 49ers for 15 years. He initially began with the 49ers in 1986 as the team's Luxury Suite Manager.

In his present role, Fowell splits his time between the 49ers two facilities – the stadium in San Francisco and the practice facility in Santa Clara. He is responsible for the supervision of stadium operations and the practice facility, where he oversees security, field maintenance, building maintenance, reception and all other aspects relating to the facility.

One of the major undertakings Fowell was responsible for in his stadium supervision was coordinating the $30 million renovation of Candlestick Park in 1986. Part of that task included the implementation of the luxury suite sales and marketing program.

In 2005, Fowell was instrumental in the logistical planning of the 49ers intricate three-day road trip to Mexico City to play the Arizona Cardinals. The historical matchup marked the first regular season NFL game played outside of the United States, drawing over 103,000 fans at Estadio Azteca.

A charter member of the Stadium Managers Association (SMA), Fowell is also a member of the NFL Task Force on Security, which was established after the events of September 11, 2001.

Before joining the 49ers, Fowell spent 15 years in the restaurant industry, compiling an impressive resume and honing his managerial skills. For three years, he worked as Vice President of Operations for Ole International Foods (1983-86) and was responsible for operating three full service restaurants in Boise, ID and Lewiston, ID. From 1980-82, he worked as a District Supervisor for El Torito Restaurants, Inc. and oversaw the company's regional expansion into the Northwestern United States.

Fowell attended the University of Wyoming and Montana State and majored in business administration.

Born in Billings, MT, Fowell and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Half Moon Bay, CA.

Elisabeth Lang

Vice President of Communications

Elisabeth (Lisa) Lang joined the 49ers on November 1, 2005 in the newly created position of Vice President of Communications.

Lang oversees a number of functions at the 49ers, including public affairs, community outreach, employee communications and the 49ers Foundation. She is responsible for overall communication planning to strengthen relationships with the community, fans, season ticket holders, corporate sponsors, government officials and employees. Lang also handles media relations for business and community issues and serves as the club's liaison to the 49ers Community Advisory Panel.

Lang joined the 49ers with over 20 years of experience in organizational and marketing communications for major brands. She has held top communications jobs in the consumer software, telecommunications and publishing industries. Most recently, she was Vice President of Corporate and Marketing Communications at Intuit, the Mountain View, CA-based makers of Quicken and Turbo Tax software. During her five years with Intuit, she oversaw the successful launch of dozens of consumer and small business products, led the effort to establish the company's privacy policies, created a brand strategy and helped establish the Intuit Foundation and employee giving programs.

Lang also had a 13-year career at Pacific Bell (now known as AT&T) where she quickly rose through the ranks from staff manager in 1983 to Vice President in 1991. For over seven years she led Corporate Communications for Pacific Bell and then for the entire Pacific Telesis Corporation. She oversaw a department of 85 communications professionals and the launch of new lines of business, including voice mail, Internet services and cellular phones. She also unveiled Pacific Bell's partnership with the San Francisco Giants for the new ballpark, developed the company's business ethics program and managed the consumer advisory process.

Prior to joining Pacific Bell, Lang handled a variety of promotional responsibilities as Director of Public Relations for Ms. Magazine in New York City. Lang was recently elected to the Board of Directors for Coro Northern California, a 62 year old non-profit that strengthens communities by providing public affairs leadership training to a diverse range of individuals.

Lang is a graduate of The Ohio State University. She resides on the Peninsula with her husband and two children.

Larry MacNeil

Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

With 20 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his fourth year as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers.

He is responsible for the management of the team's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's football operations staff on salary cap issues and contract matters.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking and transportation. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego based management consulting firm (1988-00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984-88).

He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas and is a licensed CPA in California.

David Peart

Vice President/Sales and Marketing

With more than two decades as a sports marketing professional, David Peart enters his third season with the 49ers as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Peart is responsible for the team's revenue-generating, marketing and branding activities. He oversees the sales and marketing staff.

Peart has attracted some of the industry's most talented sales and marketing executives to help lead the 49ers efforts to build a 49ers brand and turn the team into the most fan-friendly team in sports. Peart and his marketing staff were applauded with numerous accolades for the club's 2005 "Faithful" Campaign. The group won the 2006 National Sports Forum overall ADchievement Award, presented to the team in all athletics who has shown advertising excellence in sports. Peart's department was also recognized with six Telly Awards in 2006, including four awards for achievement in the 49ers "Faithful" commercials, one for the 49ers in-stadium player introduction piece and one for the 49ers team show, "Total Access."

Under Peart's direction, the 49ers have started an ongoing fan research program to provide fans a forum to communicate with the team. He has also directed the launch of an extensive marketing and branding campaign to increase the team's brand awareness.

Additionally, Peart led the team's efforts to expand the 49ers local broadcasting initiatives by taking the 49ers radio broadcast in-house and forging a multi-year broadcast agreement with Cumulus Radio San Francisco. The move features more than 20 hours of local coverage each week. The 49ers have also expanded their long-standing partnership with KPIX CBS 5 with increased local coverage of the team.

New to the 49ers 2006 radio lineup is a partnership with Fresno-based TEAM CINCO SPORTS and ENTERTAINMENT to provide Spanish language play-by-play broadcast of the 49ers games. Peart's partnering efforts with Team Cinco will yield 18 total games broadcast in 2006 including two preseason games and all 16 regular season games.

Peart came to the 49ers from the Houston Texans, where he spent four years as the Vice President of Corporate Sales. In Houston, he was a member of the executive team that managed the most successful expansion franchise launch in U.S. sports history. Peart oversaw the Texans Alliance Partnership program and directed the team's corporate sales efforts. In addition, he coordinated the Texans efforts to secure naming rights for Reliant Stadium and managed the radio and television broadcasting business relationships. The Texans earned several distinctions, including the top rating in J.D. Power and Associates NFL Fan Experience Index and the 2003 PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria.

Prior to joining the Texans, Peart was Assistant Vice President of Advertising Sales for the Southwest Sports Group in Dallas. Prior to his stint in Dallas, Peart served as Regional Vice President of Sales for Network International/SMG. From 1987-1993, he was Director of Advertising Sales for the Pittsburgh Penguins. He has been involved in seven naming rights projects including Reliant Stadium and most recently Monster Park.

A Pittsburgh native, Peart earned a bachelor's degree from Point Park College in Pittsburgh and attended Carnegie Mellon University for his graduate studies. In 2003, Peart completed the prestigious Rice University Program for Managers. He is a founding member of the Advisory Board of Baylor University's Center for Sports at the Hankamer School of Business.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in Menlo Park with their two children, Tyler and Kelsey.

49ERS COMMUNITY ADVISORY PANEL

This year the 49ers invited certain civic and community leaders throughout the San Francisco Bay Area to join a newly created Community Advisory Panel (CAP). This 15-member panel is comprised of leaders who have spent their careers working to make a difference in the lives of people in Bay Area communities.

CAP members advise the 49ers organization to ensure the team's community outreach events including volunteer efforts by players, coaches and staff; cultural half-time shows; holiday-giving events; 49ers Foundation donations and youth development programs that make the greatest impact in the community.

The CAP builds on the 49ers rich history of appreciating and giving back to the San Francisco Bay Area, and will work to ensure the team continues to be an integral part of the communities it serves.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS IN THE COMMUNITY

For decades, the San Francisco 49ers have demonstrated their commitment to the community through their support and funding of youth education, athletics and community outreach programs in neighborhoods throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

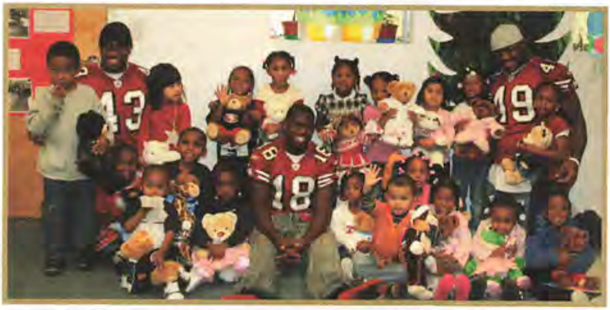
Making an Impact through Community Outreach

In 2005, the 49ers participated in nearly 200 community events donating more than 2,000 hours of volunteer time. Over 54,000 people in the Bay Area participated in 49ers community outreach efforts last season, including more than 15,000 children.

49ers Community and 49ers Foundation Focus for the 2006 Season

This season the 49ers are strengthening their dedication to the community by expanding their youth programs to help raise awareness of and provide support for non-profit organizations that are committed to violence prevention programs.

Through its community outreach, funding and public awareness efforts, the 49ers will be conducting a "respect" campaign to inspire youth to demonstrate respect for their families, schools and their communities. During the 2006 season, the 49ers will focus on supporting youth organizations and programs that help establish life goals; encourage positive character building choices; teach life skills; and demonstrate respect, tolerance and appreciation of diversity.



49ers Foundation

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation was established in 1991 as the non-profit community funding extension of the San Francisco 49ers. The 49ers Foundation provides financial support for and helps to increase awareness of non-profit programs and organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

Under the leadership of Denise and John York, the Foundation has become one of the premiere foundations in the NFL. In 2005, the 49ers Foundation had a record year, raising and distributing more than $1 million to non-profit organizations. Over the past three years, the Foundation has raised and distributed nearly $3 million.

SIGNATURE FUNDRAISING PROGRAMS

Hedge Funds Cares

Hedge Funds Cares is an industry alliance formed in 1998 with the sole mission of raising funds to prevent and treat child abuse. To date, Hedge Funds Cares has raised $15 million nationally. The San Francisco 49ers Foundation partners annually with Hedge Funds Cares to host the West Coast Open Your Heart to the Children Benefit to raise funds to support community-based non-profits that have services focused on the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. In 2005, more than $850,000 was raised to support non-profits including the Alameda County Social Services Department of Children and Family Services; CALICO Center; Center for Vulnerable Child; Child's Advocates (CASA) of San Mateo; Community Violence Solutions; Contra Costa County Employment and Human Services Department; Edgewood Center for Children and Families; Families First; Larkin Street Youth Services; Child Trauma Research Project-University of California San Francisco; San Francisco Child Abuse Prevention Center; San Francisco Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA); Sunny Hills Children's Garden; Summer Search; STAND! Against Domestic Violence; the Fred Finch Center; and Prenatal to Three Initiative, San Mateo County.

Celebrity Winter Fest

Since its inception in 2001, the 49ers Foundation Celebrity Winter Fest has become the premier fundraising event for the 49ers Foundation. Squaw Valley comes alive during the three-day event that includes a ski race between Olympians, 49ers players, coaches, ownership and alumni, silent and live auctions, live music and great wine and food. Corporations and individuals are able to purchase sponsorship packages to participate in the festivities. Since 2001, this exclusive event has raised more than $3.5 million for the 49ers Foundation.

Cadence Stars & Strikes

The Stars & Strikes bowling tournament is one of the largest community events of its kind in Silicon Valley. The annual fundraising effort between the 49ers Foundation and Cadence Design Systems, Inc., the world's leading electronic design software provider, raises funds to support charitable causes in the Bay Area community. The 49ers lend their star power by involving current and former players. Since its inception in 1990, Stars & Strikes has raised more than $8.5 million to fund major programs and projects that provide significant benefits to local non-profit organizations and charities.

Crab Festival – Celebrity Crab Cracking

Once a year, San Francisco celebrates its beloved icon from the sea, the Dungeness crab, with San Francisco Crab Festival. As part of the event, the 49ers Foundation, in partnership with the Union Square Association and in association with the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau, hosts the Celebrity Crab Cracking Contest at Union Square. Members of the 49ers team up with local chefs to demonstrate the art and intricacies of cracking a crab. Demonstrations are followed by a timed cracking and cleaning contest with local San Francisco celebrities. All proceeds benefit the 49ers Foundation.

Grant Process

The funding priority for the 2006 season will concentrate on supporting organizations and programs that focus on "tackling violence" and that help establish life goals; encourage positive character building choices; teach life skills; and demonstrate respect, tolerance and appreciation of diversity.

49ers Foundation grants will be awarded only to 501(c)(3) organizations in the greater San Francisco Bay Area that address violence prevention.

Please be advised that the 49ers Foundation does not fund the following areas:

- Land, building or vehicle purchase
- Endowments
- Political campaigns
- Religious organizations (projects to promote religion)
- Loans of any type
- Personal scholarships
- Travel
- Drives
- Specific individuals
- Organizations based outside the greater San Francisco Bay Area

Grant applications are accepted on an invitation only basis.

FAMILY

Holiday Giving

During the holiday season, 49ers players and significant others, alumni and staff come together to deliver food and holiday trimmings to families in need throughout the Bay Area. Partnering with the San Francisco Food Bank, Second Harvest and City Team Ministries, the 49ers are able to make the holidays a little brighter.

SCHOOL

NFL H.S. Tuesdays

Through the cooperation of the NFL, NFL Players Association and NFL teams, at least one player from all 32 NFL clubs visits a high school in that team's market on a designated Tuesday. High school students in NFL cities vie for a chance to win a visit by NFL players for their school. Students submit their entries during the summer months on NFLHS.com and are chosen at random by NFL teams. Players participate in a school-wide rally and have one-on-one discussions on topics such as preventing gang violence, the importance of education and how to balance sports and academics.

49ers Academy

Since opening in 1996, the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto has received ongoing support from the 49ers organization. The school serves 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who benefit from a small, nurturing and personalized environment. The 49ers Academy provides a caring community where the emphasis is on one-on-one relationships to promote academic success in children who have struggled in other school programs.

COMMUNITY

Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA

The Bayview/Hunters Point YMCA is supported by the entire 49ers organization from the top down. Ownership, players, alumni, coaches and staff frequently visit the center, donate tickets to the youth and financially support the YMCA's programs.

Most recently, the 49ers Foundation pledged $250,000 over a five-year period to assist with overall renovation of their newly acquired facility on Lane Street. The renovation included an overhaul of the gymnasium, including the addition of a performance stage, new basketball hoops, a new floor, new bathrooms, new roof and a renovated dance/exercise studio.

Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club

The establishment of the new Hunters Point Boys & Girls Club on Hunters Point Hill is a true city-wide partnership that involved branches of government including the Mayor's Office, the City Attorney, the SFPD and both San Francisco sports franchises, the 49ers and the Giants. The new facility has significantly expanded recreational opportunities for youth in one of the most underserved neighborhood in the Bay Area. The Boys & Girls Club's programming, together with the improved facilities, will help to inspire young people in that community to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens.

Hometown Huddle

Hometown Huddle is a partnership between all 32 NFL teams and the United Way. Each year, all 32 teams work with a local United Way agency on a select day to participate in a community service project. Past 49ers Hometown Huddles have included refurbishing the ropes course area at Camp Arroyo, installing playground equipment at local parks and beautifying Bay Area schools.

Tackle-A-Book

In partnership with Applied Materials, the 49ers work with the Boys & Girls Clubs and After-School All-Stars to encourage youth to read, write and make positive choices. Each child who chooses to participate in the program completes a pledge card as a commitment to read and make positive choices. The completed pledge cards are returned to the program director and in turn the child receives a prize.

San Francisco Neighborhood Parks Council (NPC)

The San Francisco Neighborhood Parks Council advocates for a superior, equitable, and sustainable park and recreation system. NPC provides leadership and support to park users through community-driven stewardship, education, planning and research. The 49ers support the NPC in two areas; Park Stewardship, where players and youth from the community participate in park projects; and the Blue Greenway, funding the creation of a "green" corridor along the Southeast shore of San Francisco from McCovey Park to Candlestick Point State Recreation Area.

2006 STADIUM DRIVES

During the football season, the 49ers partner with the 60,000 fans that fill Monster Park on Sundays by creating stadium drives to support various Bay Area organizations. The 49ers encourage the Faithful to bring their donation items to the game.

The TD4HIM Foundation contributes and supports the growth of religious organizations, local Boys & Girls Clubs, community service organizations and organizations that promote cancer research. For more information, call 408-829-3381.

- Marques Douglas – Marques Douglas Foundation

Three years ago, Marques and his wife, Sparkle, established the Marques Douglas Foundation. The two spearheaded efforts to mentor students who need guidance in academics, athletics and social issues. The Foundation also works with churches and after school programs. The Foundation assists youth in Douglas' former NFL playing city, Baltimore MD, in Charlotte NC, where his family currently resides; and in his hometown of Greensboro, NC. Douglas has future plans to establish programs in the Bay Area community. For more information, call 704-222-1651.

- Moran Norris – Moran Norris Foundation

Established in 2005, the Moran Norris Foundation seeks to help Houston-area students become champions in Athletics, Character and Education. Support for the Foundation comes from three initiatives; the "Follow Me" Moran Norris Football Camp; "Shopping for Good Character," which rewards students for perfect attendance and good conduct; and "Making the Short Yardage for the Long Haul," where Norris speaks privately with male high school seniors. For more information, please write to the Moran Norris Foundation at: PMB#128, 1270 Crabb River Road, #600, Richmond, TX 77469.

- Mike Rumph – Dream Big Foundation

The mission of the Dream Big Foundation is to give back to underprivileged youth in underprivileged communities. The Foundation raises money for communities in need and provides tutoring programs, football camps and one-on-one communication with youth. For more information, visit www.mikerumph24.com.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Youth football programs teach children the importance of teamwork, goal-setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun and educational environment. The 49ers make every effort to provide programs and activities for youth and coaches throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

Jr. 49ers Gatorade Kids Camp

The 49ers hold free football camps throughout the season and off-season. The Gatorade Jr. Training Camps offer children the opportunity to learn football skills like passing, kicking and blocking while also learning about proper hydration.

49ers/NFL Flag

In conjunction with the NFL, the 49ers host the annual NFL Flag Regional Tournament at the 49ers Training facility. Several teams take part in the day-long, round robin tournament. Tournament winners receive an all-expense paid trip to Disney's Wide World of Sports® Complex in Orlando, FL and the chance to participate in the National Tournament of Champions.

Play Football Month

In conjunction with the NFL and USA Football, the 49ers celebrate the annual Play Football Month to encourage kids to play America's favorite sport. Throughout the entire Play Football Month, events are held in towns across America, including clinics, skill competitions, scrimmages, picnics and parades. The 49ers provide tickets to preseason games to kids who completed a youth football clinic or Gatorade Junior Training Camp Clinic. In addition, 4,000 tickets are distributed to various Pop Warner, high school football and Police Athletic League teams.

Play It Smart

Play It Smart is an educational program designed to use sports as a vehicle to foster the academic, personal and career development of youth. Starting with just four schools, Play It Smart now benefits 158 high schools in underserved communities nationwide. Each school has a trained academic coach who tutors and mentors student athletes, thereby making football better for high school kids and high school kids better through football. The 49ers support all four Play It Smart schools in the Bay Area: Galileo High School (San Francisco), Concord High School (Oakland), South San Francisco High School (San Francisco) and Carlmont High School (Fremont).

Coach of the Week

The Charlie Wedemeyer Coach of the Week program was designed to aid and promote youth football and give high school coaches the recognition they deserve. During the season, 12 outstanding high school coaches are recognized for their efforts. The 49ers' "Charlie Wedemeyer Coach of the Week Award" was named after Los Gatos High School former Head Coach Charlie Wedemeyer. Each winner received a $1,000 donation from the 49ers Foundation for their football program.

NFL/NFF Coaching Academy

In partnership with the NFL and National Football Foundation, the 49ers host an annual Coaching Academy Clinic at the 49ers facility. Head Coach Mike Nolan and the entire 49ers coaching staff participate in the day-long clinic providing top-notch football instruction to more than 100 local Bay Area high school and youth football coaches.

NFL Grassroots

The 49ers/NFL Youth Football Fund Grassroots Program is a partnership of the National Football League Youth Football Fund (NFL YFF), the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) and the 49ers to provide non-profit, neighborhood-based organizations, middle schools and high schools with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local football fields. The 49ers help to renovate at least one field in the Bay Area every other year.

Junior Player Development (JPD)

The NFL developed a youth tackle football program for children ages 12-14. The program is designed to teach participants every football position step-by-step. Attendees receive instruction from NFL-selected high school coaches in the Bay Area. The 49ers currently have four JPD sites: San Jose, San Francisco, Marin and Sacramento.

High School Player Development (HSPD)

HSPD provides incoming fall season sophomores, juniors and seniors a program focusing on academic counseling as well as specific football skill training by position. Currently, the 49ers have two HSPD sites: San Jose and Sacramento.

TRAINING CAMP

The San Francisco 49ers will hold training camp at their Santa Clara training facility again this season. The 49ers will open ten, free practices to the public during the team's 2006 summer slate. It marks the second time in the history of the Santa Clara facility that practices will be open. Each of the ten open practices will feature inflatable games, ticket sales, photo opportunities with Gold Rush Cheerleaders, Sourdough Sam and player autographs. The 49ers will also have onsite broadcasting from KNBR/107.7 The Bone, Team Cinco and KPIX.

Location: Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre
4949 Centennial Blvd.
Santa Clara, CA 95054

Camp Dates: July 27-August 23

Reporting Dates: Entire team reports Thursday, July 27, 2006

Camp Facts: This is the fourth year the 49ers will hold training camp sessions in Santa Clara. The 49ers spent the previous five years (1998-02) at the University of Pacific in Stockton, CA. Prior to that, the team spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has also trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

2006 49ERS RADIO NETWORK

The 49ers flagship stations include KNBR 680/1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone. KNBR 680 and 1050 are the undisputed sports leaders in Northern California. With its dominant 50,000-watt non-directional signal, KNBR 680 reaches all of Northern California during the day and 11 western states at night.

In addition to full game day coverage that includes a comprehensive live three-hour pre-game show each week and full post game coverage following each game broadcast, KNBR 680, KNBR 1050 and KSAN 107.7 The Bone will air unprecedented week-long coverage of the 49ers from training camp through the NFL playoffs to provide the most extensive up-to-the-minute coverage in the area.

THE RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

Joe Starkey

Joe Starkey has been the voice of the San Francisco 49ers since 1989. In his role as the play-by-play announcer, Starkey has provided some of the most colorful calls in the team's history. He has also been the play-by-play announcer for University of California at Berkeley Golden Bears Football since 1975.

Starkey's first announcing job in sports was in 1972 for Charlie Finley's Oakland-based National Hockey League Seals. Since that time, Joe has been a broadcaster for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and Denver Broncos, the USFL's Oakland Invaders, and the NHL's San Jose Sharks and Pittsburgh Penguins. He has also called Golden State Warriors and Cal Bears basketball, and is an eight-time winner of the Associated Press Award for Best California Play-by-Play Broadcaster. His international experience includes Winter and Summer Olympics, Wimbledon tennis and professional soccer.

Gary Plummer

Back for his ninth season, Gary Plummer will join Joe Starkey to provide analysis and color to the KNBR broadcasts. Plummer is a San Francisco 49ers alumnus who played for the franchise from 1994-1997 as a star linebacker. Plummer is a native of the San Francisco Bay Area and played college football at California. He began his broadcasting career in 1997 in Los Angeles where he was a commentator for Monday Night Live on the ABC affiliate. Plummer had a professional football career that spanned 15 years.

A familiar voice in Bay Area radio, Rod Brooks joins the 49ers radio broadcast team for the first year as the sideline reporter. Brooks is in his ninth year with KNBR and currently co-hosts KNBR 680's Midday Show: Rick Barry with Rod Brooks. Brooks mixes knowledge of sports with a hip, down-to-earth perspective of a true sports fan. His style is serious, aggressive, slightly sarcastic and is characterized by his conversationalist approach and constant interaction with listeners. Brooks graduated from LSU with a degree in broadcast journalism.

2006 49ERS TELEVISION PARTNERS

CBS 5/CW Bay Area are the official television partners of the San Francisco 49ers preseason broadcasts and the flagship television stations of the San Francisco 49ers Television Network. Both are part of the CBS Television Stations Group. CBS 5 has roots that date back to 1948 as the first television station in Northern California. CW Bay Area began in 1968 as the first UHF station in the Bay area.

THE TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCAST TEAM

Dennis O'Donnell

Keena Turner

Announcing the 2006 preseason games are veteran broadcaster Dennis O'Donnell and former 49ers linebacker Keena Turner.

O'Donnell serves as the Sports Director at CBS 5 and appears Sunday through Thursday on Eyewitness News. In 2005, O'Donnell earned an Emmy as San Francisco's top sportscaster. He joined the CBS 5 News Team in August, 2000 and has been a fixture in Bay Area sports broadcasting since 1982. O'Donnell enters his sixth season as the preseason voice of the 49ers, calling the play-by-play on CBS 5. He has called the play-by-play for over 80 sporting events since 1999, including Stanford and University of San Francisco basketball for Fox Sports and Bay TV. O'Donnell also hosts CBS 5's NFL post-game show "The 5th Quarter," "49ers Preview," "Last Honest Sports Show," "49ers Press Pass" and the number-one rated Sunday night sports show, "Gameday" every Sunday night at 11:30 p.m.

Turner, a four-time Super Bowl Champion with the 49ers, returns as CBS 5's color analyst. Turner enters his 12th season as part of the broadcast team for 49ers preseason coverage. Turner spearheads the 49ers alumni efforts and is very active in the San Francisco community. He is also a partner in a local Bay Area Toyota dealership along with 49ers' great Ronnie Lott.

San Francisco 49ers
2006 Season

49ERS GOLD RUSH

For over 26 years, the San Francisco 49ers Cheerleaders, known as the "Gold Rush," have established a reputation as a bright, talented and diverse group of community leaders in the Bay Area. Their combination of dance ability and charity involvement has set a standard for other professional NFL cheerleading teams. The Gold Rush has been featured in many national television shows, was selected by the USO to tour their bases in Bosnia, South Korea and Europe; and has performed in Japan, Germany, Great Britain and Spain, as well as four Super Bowls.

Every year, the team's presence is requested at over 300 special appearances and charity functions. Because of their national acclaim, the Gold Rush has also been featured on numerous local and national television shows, including ESPN, Entertainment Tonight, MTV, Extra!, The Leeza Show, The Total Football Network, and the FOX Network.

In addition, the Gold Rush is involved in many charity events that have a positive impact on the San Francisco Bay Area community, and society at large. The Cheerleaders have volunteered to work along with the American Diabetes Association, Special Olympics, Shriner's Hospital, March of Dimes, American Cancer Society, Susan Komen Foundation, Children's Miracle Network and the Ronald McDonald House, as well as local fundraisers and charity work.

Let the 49ers Gold Rush make your event one to remember! The 49ers Gold Rush Cheerleaders appear at community events, corporate meetings, parties, trade shows and civic engagements throughout the year. To book them for your next special event, please visit 49ers.com or call (650) 838-0820 for more information.
